London, Aug. 27. It is stated that over a million people witnessed the Oxford and Harvard boat race. Harvard won the toss for position and got the start, and making forty-five strokes per minute to Oxford forty, kept the lead half a boat's length for three-eighths of a mile. At Chiswick boats were even, and it was evident that the pace was telling on Harvards. Oxlands obtained lead for two lengths, where Harvards held them for half mile, when they fell behind, and Oxford pulling thirty-eight strokes a minute, were three lengths ahead at Barnes Bridge, three and five-eighths miles pulled. Harvards were enthusiastically received at the finish. Oxford won by four lengths. A Miss Tinnis and her attendants (English) had been murdered in Algiers by their own camel drivers.

London, Aug. 28th. The King of Portugal closed the Cortes with a speech from the Throne, in which he gave assurance that the Ministry would use all exertions to improve the resources of this country, and that the independence of Portugal would be preserved.

London, Aug. 30. The London Times, in an editorial on the late boat race, says that for gallantry, energy and pluck the Harvards set an example which cannot be excelled.

Only fifty Bishops have declined to attend the Ecumenical Council at Rome. The Irish residents of London held two meetings yesterday at which a Fenian amnesty was urged.

A Paris despatch this evening confirms the report that the Emperor's health is improving.

New York, Aug. 31st. A riot of Coal Miners was feared at Scranton, Pennsylvania, last night, and four hundred special Police were sworn in, besides seven hundred men enrolled as volunteers, under command of Colonel E. Boyce. The Coal Mines are all under guard.

London, Aug. 31st. The story of a conspiracy, followed by executions on board the United States frigate Sabine at Cherbourg, telegraphed from Paris some days since, is contradicted.

Boston, Aug. 30. Twenty-two sailors of the U. S. frigate Sabine attempted to blow up that ship in the harbor of Ch'rborough by setting fire to the powder magazine. After the fuse was lighted it was discovered by a cabin boy. Seven of the conspirators have been condemned to death and will be hung at the yard arm.

The Bishop's Visit.

The Bishop of Nova Scotia, according to appointment, officiated on Sunday last, the 29th, in the Parish Church of St. John, Saint Eleanor's, and St. Mary's, Summerside. Three adults were publicly baptized, and 26 persons presented for confirmation. The services were very interesting and impressive, and the large congregations listened attentively to the able sermons of the Bishop, both morning and evening.

His Lordship also confirmed nine persons in the church at Irishtown, on Tuesday morning last. The congregation was large and devout. A large number partook of the Holy Communion. Many also took an affectionate leave of their late Minister, Mr. Cox, whose departure from them is much regretted.

His Lordship leaves the Rectory, Saint Eleanor's, this morning, in company with the Archdeacon, for the Western parishes. Continuing at Port Hill to-day, at 11, a. m.; at Lot 1, at 11 a. m., on Friday; and at Cas-cumpeo on Sunday next, after which he will return to Charlottetown.

DEAF AND DUMB EXHIBITION!

By notice received from Mr. J. Scott Hutton, Principal of the Institution in Halifax, for Deaf and Dumb Scholars, I learn that that gentleman will be in Summerside, on Monday next, the 6th inst. He will be accompanied by several of the Mutes. It is Mr. Hutton's desire to place his work before the public of this Island, and if possible, create a deeper interest in that work in the minds of all philanthropic men. With this design, he will lecture in Strong's Hall, in our town, on Monday night, and will be assisted in his task of interesting the audience, by his young deaf and dumb companions. Those of your readers who may have witnessed the remarkably quick mental powers of the former scholars who visited our Island, and their astonishing performances with signs, and on the blackboard, will scarcely need an invitation to be present at the exhibition of the new students, that will be with Mr. Hutton on this occasion.

It seems that there are mutes from Prince Edward Island in the institution at Halifax. They are, however, I believe, very few, compared with those left in our country. These number over eighty. In most of these cases inability prevents their parents sending them to Halifax, and thus persons, who otherwise would become good and useful members of society, are condemned to grow up a burden to themselves and to others. Mr. Hutton is invited to increase the numbers of his interesting charge, and as his work is chiefly sustained by voluntary assistance, the object of his tour through the Island is to receive what aid he can from liberal and enlightened communities. He makes no charge for entrance to his exhibitions, but he takes up a collection at their end.

I sincerely hope and trust that our town will witness this good man in his mission labours; and that a large audience, and collection, on Monday night, will be the manner selected for wishing him God speed.

Knowing Mr. Editor, your willingness to assist, I need not apologize for trespassing on your space.

Very Truly,
ALBERT S. DESBUNAY.

Summerside, Sept. 1st, 1869.
