Matters of importance to rural women all over the world will be discussed at the conference. Home-making will be the keynote of all discussions.

Queen's County Fish And Game Ass'n Formed

Mr. Harold Shaw of Charlotte-town was elected President of the Queen's County Branch of the Fish and Game Protective Associa-tion at the open Sportsmen's meet-ing held last evening in the City Hall.

The meeting was held for the express purpose of forming a Queen's County Branch, and select-ing its executive. Last fall the Prince County Branch was formed and as soon as a King's County division is organized the executive of the former Fish and Game Association, which re-presents the entire Province with Stewart Jones as its President, will be released from office.

The new Provincial executive will be comprised of a president, vice-president, secretary-treasurer and three directors from each County branch.

Other officials of the Queen's County branch as elected by the large representation in attend-ance last evening, were as fol-lows: Vice-president, Harold Smith of Pownal; and twelve di-rectors, Messrs. S. Jones of Char-lottetown; E. Wood of Pownal, F. MacKenzie of Charlottetown; Mc-Leod Douglas of Mt. Stewart; E. Ings of Mt. Herbert, W. Rodd of Winsloe; P. A. Champion of Brad-ley, D. McLeod of Vernon; Dr. A. B. Reid of Victoria, P. Arbing of Rocky Point and H. Wood of Victoria.

The choice of a secretary-treas-urer was left to the discretion of the new executive.

President Jones opened the meeting by expressing his ap-preciation for the splendid turn-out to the meeting, mentioning the fact that many of those present were from rural areas.

After the reading of the min-utes of the last meeting by sec-etary-treasurer, H. R. Vessey, Mr. Jones gave a short talk on the aims and purpose of the Fish and Game Association as it has stood since it was incorporated in 1906. "The purpose of our organ-ization," he said, "is to increase the feeling of sportsmanship, and to give added protection to the wildlife of our Province."

He also stated that it had been suggested by the Prince County Branch of the F. and G. A. that seventy-five per cent of dues collected be retained by the Coun-ty branch, and the remaining twenty-five per cent be returned to the Provincial Executive.

President Jones answered a very pertinent question when he explained that permits must be obtained in order to hunt or fish wildlife which is the property of the Crown, but that the permit does not give the bearer the right to intrude on private property without the consent of the land-owner.

Guest speaker for the evening, Mr. Earl Ings, president of the Queen's County Branch of the Federation of Agriculture, stress-ed the need for educating youth and teen-agers as to the rules and regulations of the Fish and Game Act.

Mr. Spurgeon Jenkins, special Game Officer, spoke briefly on the necessity for co-operation on the part of all citizens in order to abolish poaching.

The special secretary G.E. Wood reported that the three combination radio and talking book machines which were purchased by the board last month are now on loan to a blind person in each county on the Island and the many services of the Institute are continued.

The special speaker of the even-ing was Mr. R.J. Hill, assistant superintendent of the C.N.I.B. in the Maritimes. He explained to the Board members the proposal for a blind persons act, which the In-stitute hopes will meet with the approval of the Dominion Gov-ernment. This act would make for better conditions among the blind persons of Canada if adopted by the Federal Government.

Chairman W.G. Foster remaind-ed the attending members that the organization had completed a year of service and the annual meeting will be held the last of April.

Mrs. A.P. Oerett of Borden has been appointed to the board to represent the district of Borden.

Arts & Crafts Guild Exhibition

The second annual handicrafts exhibition sponsored by the Prince Edward Island Arts and Crafts Guild will be held in Charlot-tetown from April 25th to May 6th. No entry fee is required, and any-one living in P.E.I. may submit their work to this exhibition. Needlework, rug weaving, leather-work, woodcarving, basketry, toys, furniture, metalwork, pottery and modelling, or any other handi-crafts, not including drawing or painting are eligible for this ex-hibition, providing they have not previously been displayed in Char-lottetown.

The purpose of this exhibition is to show what Island craftsmen are doing now and to discover crafts-men whose work is perhaps un-known but who are interested not only in developing their own craft, but teaching it to others. Along with this, the Arts and Crafts Guild hopes, through these ex-hibitions and other programs, to encourage the development of a standard of design, color and craftsmanship which will make P.E.I. handicrafts appeal to a larger number of tourists.

Talks and demonstrations by some of the exhibitors will be given. For further information and entry forms, get in touch with Miss Johnston at the Art Centre.

Agricultural Heads And Scientists Meet

Hon. C. C. Baker, Minister of Ag-riculture and Mr. W.R. Shaw, Deputy Minister of Agriculture, con-ferred with Dominion Agricultural Scientists from Ottawa yesterday regarding matters under the Science Service Division here. Mr. H.G. Crawford, acting associate of the Division of Entomology, Ot-tawa, stated they were very pleas-ed with the work being done, and helped to lay plans for next year's activities.

An advisory committee meeting was held at the Science Service Laboratory yesterday afternoon. On Thursday the officials visited the local laboratories.

Mr. Crawford and Dr. J.I. Craigie, Ottawa, Dominion botan-ist, will leave this morning to in-spect the Dominion Entomological Laboratories at Kentville and Fredericton. The third member of the group, Mr. W.N. Keenan, Chief of Plant Protection Services will leave by plane this afternoon.

Bill To Eliminate Bang's Disease Before Provincial Legislature

Chief interest in the Legisla-ture yesterday centred on com-mittee discussion of a bill re-specting restricted areas for eradication of Bang's disease. Spon-sored by Hon. C. C. Baker, Min-ister of Agriculture, it provides for the establishment of such areas, under regulations of the Lieutenant Governor in Council which may have general applica-tion or may be limited in applica-tion to one or more particular sections.

The Minister of Agriculture is authorized to appoint inspectors and may designate officials of the Health of Animals Division of the Federal Department of Agricul-ture for this purpose.

When satisfied of the existence of Bang's disease, he may order steps to be taken to quarantine all reacting cattle on the premises, to permanently mark these ani-mals for future identification, and order their immediate slaughter under supervision of an inspector.

Although the Bill as drafted does not provide for barring the importation of cattle without a health certificate, this possibility was discussed.

Hon. Mr. Baker explained the eventual goal is to have the en-tire Province proclaimed a re-stricted area so far as Bang's is concerned, as has already been done regarding Bovine tuber-culosis. But there was the possi-bility of this legislation proving ultra vires on the ground of restricting interprovincial trade.

The Attorney-General, Hon. W. E. Dwyer, suggested that it might be possible to prevent cattle coming into the Province unless they were accompanied by a health certificate. He read the section of the British North Amer-ica Act which applies and noted that the Province could pass any legislation relative to agriculture if it is not repugnant to the Parliament of Canada. Mr. Darby suggested that the legisla-tion could be worded so as to have the effect of barring im-portation of cattle affected with the disease.

The Bill was left in commit-tee and will be studied further later in the session when such a clause may be added to it.

Premier Jones, W. F. Alan Stewart, the former Minister of Agriculture, Hon. A. W. Matheson, R. L. Burge, Fred Ramsay and a number of other members partic-ipated in the discussion and all of them had the same idea in view, that of making the legisla-tion as beneficial to Island cattl-men as possible.

Bang's is almost non-existent in this Province at present, while it is causing serious concern in most of the other Provinces. The aim here is to maintain the present situation and improve it to the point where the disease will have been eradicated entirely.

Minor amendments to the Pro-bate Act were also read in committee yesterday, and the amendments to the Dairymen's Association Act, the Sheriff's Act, the Constables and Fence next few days when they finish here.

AERIAL SEAL

At Anticosti The men have just completed photographing the herds around Anticosti and had planned to fly out to Grindstone Island and tag the pups but the seals did not stay in this area. This sea-son unlike other years they moved away from the Magdalen's and are nearer the sea.

Tagging operations if carried out will be handled by Mr. Skin-ner flown out to the area by Paul Sharpe in his Sinton Voyager. By means of these tags the scient-ists will be able to determine where the seals go and will also help to determine their ages.

A noted Norwegian naturalist, Mr. Per Host has accompanied the men during the past few days. Mr. Host took several movies of the seals from the air and tomorrow is leaving Halifax on a sealer in an attempt to tag some of the pups. He tagged some last year and will be looking for them while he is out there.

This is the first year that an aerial survey has been conducted on the seals in the Gulf. Last year a biological study of them on the ice was made from the sealing vessels.

There are six types of seals al-together. Two remain in coastal waters here all year around, two types migrate and the other two remain for the most part in the Arctic waters. The seals that migrate come out on the ice in February to have their pups and are at their peak in pupping time now. They come out again in April to change their coats.

The survey is being carried out by the Fisheries Research Board of Canada, through it's Atlantic Biological Station at St. Andrews, N.B., with the aid of the Maritime Central Airways and Sparian Air Services Ltd.

Constitutional Law Authority Comments

OTTAWA, March 10 - (CP) - An authority on constitutional law at Ottawa said tonight he believed it would be possible for Prince Ed-ward Island to prohibit importation into the Island Province of cattle infected with Bang's dis-ease.

However, he said he believed such action would have to be taken as "police protection to prevent spread of the disease," rather than through any legislation preventing inter-provincial commerce.

Provincial legislation preventing commerce between P.E.I. and the rest of Canada would be beyond the constitutional powers of the Province and therefore ultra vires, he said.

But he could see no reason why the Province could not pass "police laws to prevent spread of the dis-ease." This could be used to pre-vent importation of infected cattle.

Viewers Act and the Workmen's Compensation Act were read a third time and passed.

Hon. Eugene Cullen, Minister of Industry and Resources, referring to a statement in the House of Commons by Mr. McLure, M.P. respecting shortage of reefer cars, said his department had reports each morning from the C.N.R. and on the date in question 306 cars were in the division. There was no request in Mr. C. C. Thompson's office for any assist-ance in having reefer cars placed, nor had Mr. Rogers received any such request.

Hon. A. W. Matheson tabled the annual report of the Department of Health and Welfare.

Before adjournment at 1 p.m. Hon. Mr. Darby announced de-finitely that the Budget would be brought down at 8 o'clock on Tuesday night. The House ad-journed until 3 p.m. Monday.
