

What's Up At The PANTHER LOUNGE

Last week saw an anxious crowd gathered around the big screen waiting for word on the state of our country. The word was good. Hope everyone's mid-terms went well. Next time you need a study break or a place to get together with your friends, why not stop by the lounge? We are open Monday to Saturday just waiting to serve you.

Thanks to everyone who turned up for the Mascot Pub. The Lugnuts and Wishbone were in great form.

Don't forget that Jen Daley hosts Trivia every Wednesday night in the Panther Lounge, from 8:00 to 10:00 pm. The lounge has been packed every week. The Panther Lounge is looking for local talent to join or play around with the guitars Wednesdays after trivia. Anyone interested in getting something going give Paul MacRae a call for details at 892-3730.

Also, do not forget Movie Pubs every Friday at 1:00 pm. We try to bring in classics and new releases every time. This Friday it will be Crimson Tide and Bad Boys. On November 17 we have a Simpsons marathon planned. Every Friday after the Pub there are pool tournaments beginning at 6:00 pm. There are lots of prizes, come test your luck!

The Pursuit of Happiness will be playing on November 9, with special guests Grace Babies. This pub is sponsored by the Student Union, CIMN, and the Panther Prints. Tickets are on sale and selling fast so get yours today. This event is wet/dry.

Hope to see everyone at the upcoming events. Just remember -- it is your student bar, so support it. Stay tuned, in a couple of weeks we will have an interview with Mike, it should be interesting. If you have any comments, (was your beer too warm?), or ideas, (how about a night of blender drinks, or a shooter party for your on-campus organization), call Mike Taweel, Panther Lounge Manager, at 566-0530.

Upcoming Events:

Thursday, November 9, 1995 --
The Pursuit of Happiness
Tickets are $6 in advance, $8 at the door and they are on sale now.

The Island Remembers Returns To Stage

Theatre Prince Edward Island's hit show about this province's contribution in World War II has been remounted and will be presented in four Island communities from November 6th to 12th.

Through drama and music the production pays tribute to the grit and resilience of Islanders during the Second World War. Conceived and directed by Ron Irving, with a script by well known Island playwright Michael Hennessey, the show features "The Venerables" who share their personal experiences of those eventful years. Mark Stevenson heads a large supporting cast.

The Island Remembers premiered a year ago for two performances only on Confederation Centre's Main Stage. Reviewer Ken Kingston declared the production as "a fitting tribute to Island Veterans". The new production will be seen in Charlottetown at the Carrefour Theatre for four performances and at the King's Playhouse in Georgetown, Three Oaks High School in Summerside and in West Prince at the Westisle theatre.

Hennessey's script focuses on how the war transformed the lives of Islanders, particularly four young people who find themselves actively involved in the conflict. The excitement and the danger and the humour of their adventures is compellingly dramatized in the production. The unforgettable songs of the war years also plays an important part in the production under Music Director Helen MacRae.

Dates for The Island Remembers are:

| | |
|------------------------------------|----------------------|
| Westisle Theatre | Tue. Nov. 7 8:00 pm |
| Three Oaks High School, Summerside | Wed. Nov. 8 8:00 pm |
| King's Playhouse, Georgetown | Thu. Nov. 9 8:00 pm |
| Carrefour Theatre, Charlottetown | Fri. Nov. 10 8:00 pm |
| Carrefour | Sat. Nov. 11 8:00 pm |
| Carrefour | Sun. Nov. 12 2:00 pm |
| Carrefour | Sun. Nov. 12 8:00 pm |

Tickets for Charlottetown performances are $14 for adults, $11 for seniors and $8 for students, available from Sam The Record Man, the UPEI Bookstore, or at the door. For information on ticket prices at the other venues, call Theatre PEI at 566-0321. Or contact Daphne Harker at Theatre PEI, 566-0321

Struck

I have weakened.
You are my weakness.

I am tempted.
You are my temptation.

I desire certain pleasures.
You only can provide the pleasure I desire.

I want to have you learn the things only I can teach;
See the things I have to show;
Do the things I have done;
Feel how only I make you feel.
I want to become a part of you,
And to have you become a part of me.

You may be unsure if you want me.
I can convince you.

You may be scared of getting too close to me.
I will never let you be hurt.

You may not be ready yet.
I will wait with patience.

- SBH

The Rush Limbaugh Quiz Book
by Ted Reuter
(Andrews and McMeel)

This 116 page book contains 115 pages of more than I ever wanted to know about Rush Limbaugh. Sure, it's a quiz book, but on Rush Limbaugh? What next, the philosophy of Beavis and Butthead? Who wants to learn more about Rush Limbaugh? I really thought I hated Rush and his ideas, but now I'm certain I do.

Each quiz section (covering various areas of Rush's life) is preceded by a two-page primer for the questions. Now comes a big strike against this book -- the utterly stupid questions, and horrible answers. Prime example: What does Rush have to say about the civil rights movement? a) "When are those people going to stop whining and get a job?" b) "They're nothing but a bunch of house niggers." c) "I told this black guy he was a credit to his race, and he got all upset. What's with those people?" d) "Pretty soon they're going to start demanding their own country. Fine. Good riddance. Let them have Cleveland." e) "It is not farfetched... to draw an analogy between the civil rights leadership and the Soviet Communist leadership..." The right answer is "e", but that doesn't excuse the author for slandering minorities in the name of satire. I recommend this book as an excellent fire-starter, or possibly to balance uneven legs of chairs, but as a book for reading, I'd rather read the ingredients of Spam.

-- Joel Gillespie

The Fulcrum

SUSPENDED
ANIMATION

Student poetry

bent mg07