

THE DAILY EXAMINER. AUGUST 11, 1882.

The Potato-Bug Visitation.

WHAT'S to be done about it? The Patriot suggests interference on the part of the Government, and, in fact, condemns the Government for not having already taken action.

A Half Million.

Sir Alexander Galt succeeded in getting the English Government to propose the expenditure of 500,000 in aid of Irish emigration to Canada.

The Irish Police Strike.

MR. TREVELYAN, Chief Secretary for Ireland denied in the House of Commons that some of the Irish Constabulary had refused to go on duty.

Summer Resorts.

SOME of the American papers have been publishing a series of descriptive articles on New Brunswick and Nova Scotia.

Memory and Music.

MUSIC is strangely allied with memory. The sweet succession of sounds connect our thoughts with the past.

Just So.

The Opposition ridiculed Sir John Macdonald when, in the session of 1880, he estimated that Manitoba and the North-West would attract between forty and fifty thousand immigrants in 1882.

The Y. M. C. A. Convention.

The 16th annual session took place at Truro on the 6th inst. Mr. Geo. Younger of St. John, and J. S. MacLean of Halifax, opened the proceeding with appropriate remarks.

President—P. C. Hill, Halifax.

Vice-President—Judge Hensley, Charlottetown, P. E. I.; G. F. Atherton, Grafton, C. C.; Wm. Cummings, Truro, N. S.; A. C. Thompson, Moncton; Lee B. Botsford, M. D., St. John.

The Scottish Troubadours.

MR. FAIRBAIRN and his talented company were greeted by a fair house at the Academy of Music last evening. The Scottish songs and the interesting descriptive preludes were performed in unique style.

Indian Troops for England's Battles

The bringing over of Hindu troops to fight England's battles, laughed at as a "theatrical show" when Lord Beaconsfield first tried it in 1878, is in reality a very far-sighted and thoroughly practical measure.

Gladstone Speaks.

At the Lord Mayor's banquet to Her Majesty's Minister, last Wednesday evening, Gladstone said:—

"I am sanguine we have passed the moment of danger, and there will be wisdom and harmony in the work and deliberation of Parliament for the remainder of the present year."

Briefs of Latest News.

A decree closing the session was read in both French Chambers to-day. A telegram received at the Admiralty announces that Gen. Wolsley has recovered.

CORRESPONDENCE.

We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions or statements of our correspondents.

A Complaint.

To the Editor of the Examiner. Sir,—On the 9th of July last, the fishing schooner "Welcome," 44 tons, from Lunenburg, N. S., made for Casumpeque Harbor, in Prince County, P. E. I., on account of sickness on board.

ALBERT HIMMELMAN, Capt. Schr. "Welcome," Lunenburg, N. S. Alberton, Aug. 10th, 1882.

Historical or Not?

To the Editor of the Examiner. Sir,—In your paper of August 7th, is a paragraph, commencing as follows:—"It is rumored that the historical bonnets of the Highland regiments in the British army are fated to disappear."

The Markets.

Owing to the prospects of a splendid wheat crop, the price of flour in Chicago and Montreal is declining. The following were the quotations at the last named place on the 6th inst.:

Table with 2 columns: Item and Price. Includes Superior Extra, Extra Superfine, Fancy, Spring Extra, Superfine, Canada Strong Bakers, American Strong Bakers, Fine, Middlings.

Personal.

THE Khedive states that his government will indemnify the sufferers from the recent disorders in Alexandria.

MR. WILLIAM BUCKINGHAM, formerly private secretary to the Hon. Alexander Mackenzie, will be editor of the Winnipeg Sun.

FAIRBAIRN, his two daughters, and Madison O'Brey will be at the Academy of Music this evening.

"Mine is a remarkable case," says Postmaster J. E. Bousail of Liverpool, Pa. "At 15 years of age I was seized with a fearful attack of rheumatism which lasted for twenty-five weeks, resisted medical treatment until my physician said I would never get well, and finally left me with my system liable to frequently recurring attacks."
