

MR. AND MRS. EDMUND MAYNARD

Ages Belie Youthful Vigor Of Couple 66 Yrs. Married

SUMMERSIDE — A former northern couple, now residing in Tyne Valley, whose ages belie their youthful vigor, yesterday celebrated their 66th wedding anniversary at their home. Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Maynard, 94 and 85 years respectively, yesterday were recipients of a host of congratulatory messages from relatives and friends, many of whom paid a call, and all joined in extending to them wishes for many more years of happiness together. Mr. Maynard who will be 95 in January was born in Port Hill and has been a farmer all his life — a vocation at which he still works daily to a limited degree. This youthful gentleman, who is in excellent health, walks daily from Tyne Valley to Northam and return, a distance of six miles to visit the old home-land which was gutted by fire in December. Mr. Maynard, who has been a lion for 32 years, says, "I can work and I won't take a back seat from anybody." A short time later he went out to feed his chickens and ducks and handle the other necessary chores. Mrs. Maynard, the former Sarah Jane MacArthur was born in Enmore and celebrated her 85th birthday on October 13th. She too, is in good health and the happy couple reside alone, moving to Tyne Valley after the fire at their Northam farm. Mr. and Mrs. Maynard, who were married at the Presbyterian Manse on October 26, 1892 have eight children, all living: Maud, Mrs. Harry Frankel, New York; Emily, Mrs. Charles Newcombe, Tyne Valley; Arthur, Detroit; Flora, Mrs. John Thompson, Aberdeen, Sask.; Gertrude, Mrs. John Jack, New York; Edith, Mrs. Edith McKay, Summerside; Helen, Mrs. Donald Smith, Cambridge, Mass.

5 Plan To Raise Million For Springhill In Night

TORONTO (CP)—A Springhill Disaster Fund was formed Sunday and the five national business figures named to the executive said they would try to raise $1,000,000 in a single night because "our responsibility is to keep Springhill alive."

To get the money, the sponsors said they would whip up the "most spectacular" radio and television show ever seen in Canada and go to the CBC with an appeal to carry it next Sunday night.

Originators of the plan were A. G. Sampson, president of Chateau-Gai Wines Limited; Ralph R. Corson, president of the Chartered Trust Company; Stephen Polier, president of the Canadian Quo Vadis Foundation; R. C. Berkshaw, president of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company, and Kenneth M. Sedgwick of Montreal, general manager of the Royal Bank of Canada.

BORN IN NOVA SCOTIA

Mr. Sampson was born at l'Ardoise, on Nova Scotia's Cape Breton Island. Mr. Sedgwick is a native of Middle Musquodoboit, N.S.

The 30-person group appointed Mr. Sampson as national fund chairman, James Karfills of Toronto, president of Canadian Terminal Restaurant Limited, was given the job of organizing a committee to put together the national television and radio appeal. The idea took shape after consultation with Premier Robert L. Stanfield of Nova Scotia.

The premier wired the group: "Springhill has suffered its third great disaster within two years and this is the worst of all. The town and especially the families affected greatly need all the help which can be provided. Please convey our gratitude to Mr. Sampson and the foundation. May they have the utmost success in bringing assistance to the gallant people of Springhill."

A CBC spokesman said of the committee's plans: "We have been holding preliminary staff discussions during the weekend, looking to the possibility of such a show being arranged. We are seriously considering it and we are very sympathetic." T. J. Allard, executive vice-president of the Canadian Association of Radio and Television Broadcasters, sent this message to the meeting: "The association and its member stations in every part of Canada are supporting and will continue to support the Springhill Disaster Fund."

The Catholic Women's League through its Toronto chairman, Mrs. George Davis, pledged its full support. Mrs. Davis said plans are being made to organize CWL members from coast to coast as pledge-takers during the forthcoming appeal.

Said Mr. Karfills: "This is not an honor. This is a duty which we share with every living Canadian. Our responsibility is to keep Springhill alive."

Home, School Ass'n. Formed At St. Mary's Academy

SUMMERSIDE — A meeting of the parents and teachers was held Friday evening at St. Mary's Academy for the purpose of organizing a home and school association. Gordon Kelly, presided. The meeting was opened with prayer by Rev. Justin MacDonald and the singing of "O Canada." Rev. Father MacDonald spoke briefly to the assembly expressing the great need for such a group and urged the parents to give their full support and cooperation. He wished the new organization every success in this all important work of child education.

Rev. Mother Superior then extended a cordial welcome to the parents and teachers who were in attendance and to Mrs. J.A. Clark, who kindly consented to assist in the setting up of the association.

Mrs. Clark outlined the history of the home and school and the important work it is accomplishing at national, provincial and local levels.

She commented on the objectives of the association, the different committees and the duties pertaining to each. Mrs. Clark rendered valuable assistance by clearing up problems and questions that arose during the course of the discussion which followed.

NEW OFFICERS

The following members of the executive were elected: President, Gordon Kelly; vice-pres., Edgar Sherry; treas., Russell Phaneuf; secretary, Sister St. Mary Pauline, Mrs. Gilbert Galant was appointed convener of the membership committee. The appointment of other committees was left to a later date.

Delegates appointed to attend the semi-annual meeting of the Provincial Home and School Association to be held at the Summerside auditorium tonight, are members of the executive, Mrs. Camillus Gillis, Mrs. Arthur Gaudet, and two sisters of the teaching staff of the Academy.

It was decided that future meetings be held on the second Monday of each month.

At the close of the meeting parents and teachers were introduced by Rev. Mother Superior, thus affording an opportunity to both of discussing school matters in connection with the pupils.

East Prince Junior Farmers Hold Meeting

SUMMERSIDE — The East Prince Junior Farmers Association held their regular monthly meeting Thursday evening with the President Glenforde MacLean presiding.

The president, along with Bruce Small, reported on the recent Provincial Junior Federation meeting held at Charlottetown. At this meeting plans were formulated to hold a Junior Farmers Rally at P.W.C. on November 13th with each group being responsible for part of the program.

East Prince Junior Farmers will hold a special meeting on November 6th to draw up a program for their portion of the rally.

Urban Laughlin was asked to send for 100 soil test boxes from the Department of Agriculture before the next meeting. The annual banquet and meeting is planned for the third week of November which should be a well attended function.

Couple Returns From Holiday Trip To Bermuda

SUMMERSIDE—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rogers and son Gregory, returned to Summerside Wednesday after a three-week holiday trip to Bermuda and Barbados. They are visiting at the home in the former's parents Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn Rogers, Upper Granville St.

Mr. Rogers, who is Trans Canada Airlines station agent at Greenwood N.S. and family left Toronto Saturday October 4th by TCA, arriving in Bermuda the following day. After a brief stay on this holiday island they flew on to Bridgetown, the capital of Barbados where they spent the major portion of their vacation.

The total flying time from Montreal to Bridgetown is 13½ hours. Mr. and Mrs. Rogers and Gregory stayed at the Paradise Beach Club just outside Bridgetown from where they toured the beautiful island, taking in the historic sites, other places of interest and especially the scenery which in some areas is dominated by the high sugar cane.

The temperature was from 80 to 90 degrees in the daytime falling to between 75 and 80 at night. The Rogers returned to Canada via Montreal.

Guest Speaker Gives Address

The October supper meeting of the Bedeque United Church Men's Association was held in the Church Hall on Tuesday evening, Oct. 21st. The president, Mr. Douglas MacFarlane presided. Rev. E.S. Weeks said grace. Following a delicious supper, provided by the W.M.S. of the local Church, a sing-song was led by Mr. Ralph Callbeck, with Mrs. Edna Jenkins at the piano.

Rev. G.A. Cowper-Smith introduced the guest speaker, Rev. Angus Brown, pastor of the North Bedeque United Church. Mr. Brown said that he had followed the sea for thirteen years prior to entering the Ministry of the United Church. A native of Newfoundland, he grew up familiar with the seaman's life. During his address he related his experiences as he visited most of the important seaports of the world. At the conclusion of his intensely interesting address he was given a rousing applause.

A special committee was set up to arrange for the November meeting, consisting of Messrs. Harrison MacFarlane, Arnold Henderson and Arthur Murray. Mr. Arthur Murray closed the meeting with a brief devotional period.

Mr. William MacLean was a ed to hold a Junior Farmers Rally at P.W.C. on November 13th with each group being responsible for part of the program.

Los Angeles To NY Mark Is Set

NEW YORK (AP)—An American Airlines jet plane whizzed from Los Angeles to New York Saturday in four hours and 43 minutes. The company said it was a record for commercial jet transports.

The airliner, a Boeing 707 of the type now being put into commercial service, carried 89 passengers and a crew of five.

The airline said the official record for the same flight up to now was set by a DC-7—a piston engine plane. This craft made the trip in six hours and 10 minutes in 1954. Later flights were clocked unofficially in about 5½ hours.
