Let's Talk It Over by "d"

When it was seen that double parking on Summer Street just above its intersection with Water Street was causing serious congestion, the powers-that-be ruled that no parking should be allowed on the east side, and this parking regulation made a pronounced improvement in traffic conditions in that area. There are other areas in town, however, which, though perhaps not having as much traffic as on that section of Summer Street, nevertheless have too much for the amount of double parking permitted. Lower Eustace, just above Hanover, is an example. When cars have to stop to pick up passengers, it seems to be approaching cars through, it seems time for further action by the town fathers.

The fire department in Summerside, having recently had a major operation on its method of paying firemen, is attracting considerable attention. The suggestion has been made that now that firemen are to be penalized for missing fires, a more adequate fire alarm, one that would reach the ears of all firemen concerned, should be part of the new regulations. An excellent suggestion, we think.

And now that progress is in the wind, how about zoning the town, and having a system of siren signals that would indicate the zone the fire was in. There could be north west, south west, north central, south central, north east and south east. The zones in some towns are even smaller than that, and a series of whistles, so many long and so many short, gives the location of the fire pretty accurately.

Well Known Resident Of O'Leary Dies

There passed away at his home early Tuesday morning, Sept. 23rd, of the most prominent and best known residents of O'Leary in the person of Mr. Arthur J. Matheson in his 81st year.

In his early years he was a school teacher but for many years conducted the Rexall Drug Store in O'Leary. Possessing a genial and happy disposition, he was beloved by young and old. He was always interested in everything that pertained to the advancement and welfare of O'Leary. He was the senior elder of the O'Leary United Church and for fifty-three years from 1898 to 1951 guided the large Sunday School of the church as its superintendent until his retirement in 1951. He has been the O'Leary Church treasurer for over thirty-one years. He was a member of the Orange Lodge and the Masonic Lodge and was a Justice of the Peace.

Mr. Matheson was an able historian and had one of the most interesting collections to be found on the Island. Many of them are quite valuable and all of them are old and interesting.

He was a delegate to the Presbytery for many years and he missed only two sessions of the annual Maritime Conference of the Church which meets in Sackville, N. B., every June, since church union in 1925.

Besides his sorrowing wife he leaves to mourn one son, Keith in Charlottetown. The funeral service will be held on Thursday from the O'Leary United Church conducted by his minister, Rev. W. G. Dickson. "He was a good man and full of the Holy Ghost."

ident, explain his political fund in Illinois.

2. That Senator John Sparkman of Alabama, Democratic nominee for vice-president, come before the people, as he (Nixon) has, and explain the fact that his wife has been on the payroll for 10 years.

His report over 62 television and more than 750 radio stations ended nearly a week of charges that the Republican nominee was guilty of unethical and illegal practices.

Nixon denied he received a cent of the $18,000; he denied that it was wrong for him to have accepted the money to help pay extra expenses of his senate office.

He read a statement from lawyers retained by Eisenhower national headquarters to study the legal aspects of the case:

"It is our conclusion that Senator Nixon did not obtain any financial gain from the collection and disbursement of the fund by Dana Smith (trustee of the fund);

That Senator Nixon did not violate any federal or state law by reason of the operation of the fund;

"And that neither the portion of the fund paid by Dana Smith directly to third persons, nor the portion paid to Senator Nixon to reimburse him for designated office expense constituted income to the Senator which was either reportable or taxable as income under applicable tax laws."

Hundreds See New Potato Combine At Work

Several hundred people from various parts of the Province attended a demonstration yesterday of a new two-row potato combine on the farm of Messrs. Lorne MacFarlane and Lorne Driscoll, near the Summerside Standpipe.

The machine, being seen in operation for the first time in this Province, leisurely completed digging a four-acre field. The tops were completely dead in this field and the machine operated exceedingly well.

The combine was then moved into an adjoining field of Sebagoes which were still green, and which farmers present said would not be ready for normal harvesting for two or three weeks.

Because the potatoes were so green in this field that they could not easily be separated from the stocks, the machine had to stop repeatedly to allow men to try to shake the potatoes free. Because of this unnatural harvesting condition, it was decided to leave the potatoes in the ground to mature and digging was stopped after completing one round. However, farmers present to witness the digging in the first field expressed the belief that the combine was fully satisfactory when digging conditions were normal.

It was also found that the split-type digger blades would be more satisfactory than the single type used in the demonstration.

This machine, which is said to be capable of digging 12 to 15 acres of potatoes in one day under local conditions, digs, picks, and loads the potatoes. The potatoes are loaded into special bins which fit on any standard truck body.

This truck bin is mechanically unloaded by a conveyor belt on the bottom of the bin which is operated by a detachable motor.

Messrs. Driscoll and MacFarlane, who pioneered in introducing this machine on P. E. I., in addition to buying this two-row combine, have ordered a single row combine which is expected to arrive soon in Summerside.

As a result of yesterday's demonstration Mr. James MacNeill of Kensington has placed an order for a two row combine, and Mr. George Brooks, also of Kensington, has ordered two single-row combines which are expected to arrive in time for potato harvesting.

Several other potato growers are believed ready to place orders for these machines which the manufacturer said will revolutionize potato growing on P. E. I.—S.

represent them in the Legislature. The Liberal Government in New Brunswick, in power for 17 consecutive years, was the second Liberal provincial government defeated recently. The Liberal Government of British Columbia was defeated in June by the Social Credit party.

Premier Byron Johnston, like premier J. B. McNair of New Brunswick, suffered personal defeat. The Liberals lost ground in the last provincial elections in Alberta, Saskatchewan and Ontario. The Liberals gained in the last Quebec election, but the party's leader, Georges LaPalm, was defeated. Walter Thomson, Liberal leader in Ontario, also was defeated.

The present standing in the Commons is: Liberals 182; Progressive Conservatives 49; C. C. F. 10; Social Credit 10; Independent Liberal 2; Independent 4; Vacant 2; total 262.

Large Attendance At S'side Home, School Banquet

Approximately 100 persons, parents and teachers, attended the annual banquet held by the Home and School Association of the Summerside High School last evening.

The banquet was held in the Baptist Church Hall and was presided over by Mr. Amos Hubley, president of the Home and School Association. The program was arranged by a committee under the chairmanship of Mr. Albert Billiphant.

Mayor Henry W. Wedge, Mr. D. O. Stewart, chairman of the Board of Trustees and Mr. Clarence Mercer, supervisor of the Summerside High School, were present as guests and briefly addressed the meeting, paying particular praise to the fine work done by this very active Association.

Another guest present, to whom many paid tribute last night, was Miss Agnes Ramsay, who had devoted more than 50 years of her life to the teaching profession. Led by Mr. Jerry Sheen, more than 25 of her former pupils stood and sang "School Days" in fitting tribute to their teacher, Miss Ramsay.

Mr. Amos Hubley, in a short address, outlined the purpose and the activities of the Home and School Association. He said that the organization meets regularly on the third Tuesday of each month and he extended a special invitation to all parents to attend these meetings.

Mr. Hubley said that the Home and School plays a great role in the community and suggested that the objective for this year should be for all parents to attend and thereby make this the best year yet.

Praises Organization Mayor Wedge congratulated the organization on bringing about a better understanding and relationship between parents and teachers. He commented on the sudden drop in enrolment of students as they reach the higher grades, and spoke of the role in the field of education that is required of a center such as Summerside.

Mr. D. O. Stewart was high in praise of the Home and School Association. He said the public would be amazed to know of all the work being done by this group and stated that the fine work should be brought more to the public attention.

Mr. Clarence Mercer spoke on the extreme need for enlarged school facilities in Summerside. He said when he came here six years ago there were classrooms to spare, but that now, even the basement space is being utilized as classrooms.

He commented on the fine school grounds and the school's proximity to the newly named Queen Elizabeth Park, and said that nowhere east of Montreal can be found such splendid school grounds, and said "We owe all this to the initiative of Mayor Wedge."

Mr. Mercer said that too many children were observed on the streets of Summerside at night, and suggested that better supervision of parents in this respect would reflect in improvement in the scholastic achievements of these children.

Entertainment was provided under the chairmanship of Mrs. Clarence Mercer and included vocal solos by Mr. Thomas Hall, mathematics teacher at Summerside High School, accompanied by Mr. Gabriel Chalison, who followed with a piano solo.

A sing song which preceded the banquet was led by Mr. Ivor Phillips accompanied by Mrs. Muriel MacArthur.

Among those attending who were not members of the Home and School Association last year were: Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Vaughan, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Ramsay, Mrs. Roy Johnston, Mrs. Jock Hopkirk, Mrs. Margaret Rankin, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Sheen, Mrs. Arthur Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Ivor Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Kaye Hansen, Mrs. Percy Keyes, Mrs. Borden Connell, Miss Winnifred Cairns, Miss Barbara Matheson, Mrs. Margaret Champion.—S.
