

This week The Cadre asked: "What was your biggest accomplishment of 2004?"

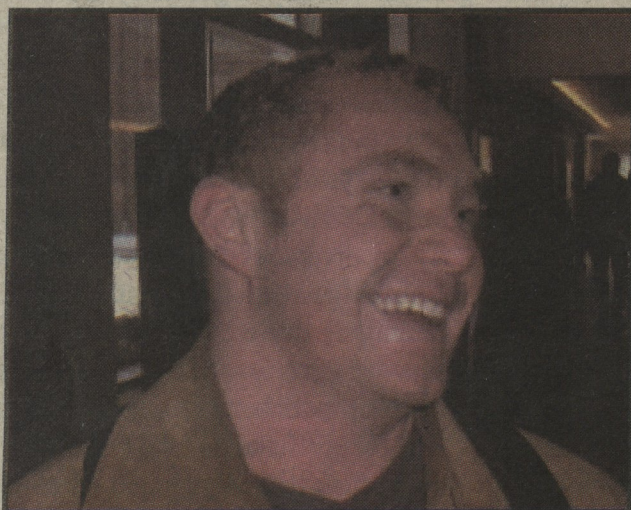

"Dated Keshia Chanté."
Britt Burns - 4th Year Business

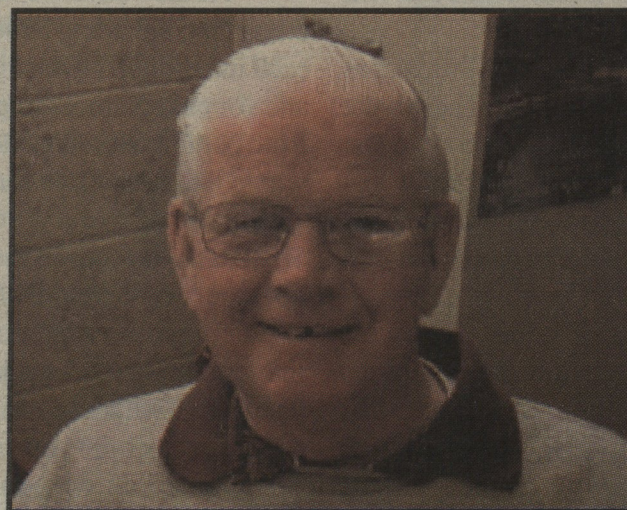

"Being asked by CBC reporter Pat Martell if he could interview me...in the bushes."
Catherine Colodey - 2nd Year Biology

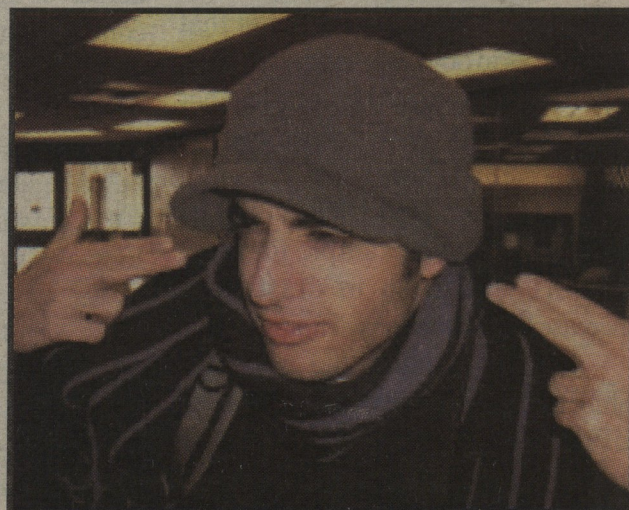

"Got my George Foreman Grill."
Colin MacDonald - 2nd Year Arts

"Wrote my car off. But it's okay, because the trunk smelled like ass."
Craig Malone - OB/GYN

"Queens County Fiddlers released their first CD."
Fr. Charlie - UPEI RC Chaplain

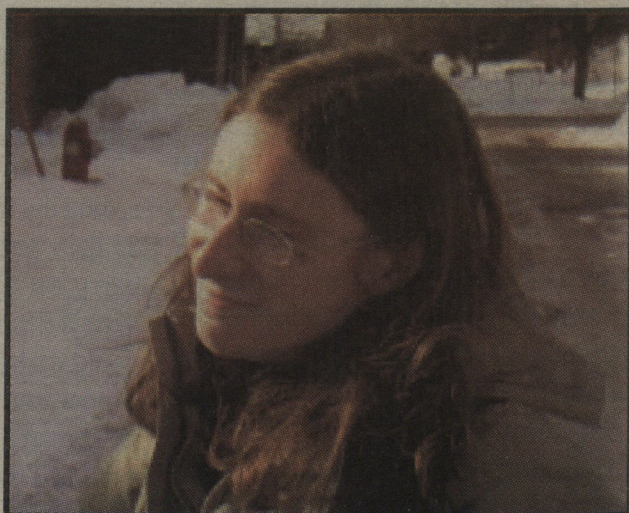

"My mom made me cut off my rattail."
Josh Simon - 4th Year Anthropology/Computer Science

"Passing calculus...and, I guess capturing Saddam Hussein."
Neal Gillis - 3rd Year Economics

Getting kicked out as High School Student Council President and forming a communist faction."
Rob Diamond - 1st Year History

"I lost 5 pounds on the Atkins Diet. And counting."
Tommy Rowe - 2nd Year Arts