

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE

Without Colman—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning! Rinse in Go!

The liver should pour out about 2 pints of bile into your digestive tract every day. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food may not digest. It may just decay in the digestive tract. Then gas builds up your stomach. You get constipated. You feel sour, stunk and the world looks pink.

It takes those mild, gentle Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these 2 pints of bile flowing freely to make you feel "up and up." Get a package today. Effective in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills, 50¢ at any drugstore.

COW BRAND BAKING SODA

Former S'ide Girl Weds At Pictou, N. S.

A pretty church wedding was solemnized at Pictou, N.S., on November 25th when Inez Elaine, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Clow, Pictou (formerly of Summerside) and John MacMillan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel A. MacMillan, Vancouver, B.C., were united in marriage by Rev. J. C. Rookford.

The bride wore a street-length dress of royal blue crepe, grey hat adorned with royal blue feather and veil. Her only jewellery was a gold necklace and earrings, which were worn by the groom's mother at her own wedding. Her corsage was pink roses.

The bridesmaid, Mrs. D. A. MacDonald, sister-in-law of the groom, was dressed in pale green taffeta. Her accessories were grey and her corsage, white roses.

The groom was supported by his brother, Daniel MacMillan, New Glasgow.

The bride's mother wore a grey crepe two piece dress. Her corsage was of pink roses.

Immediately after the ceremony, breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents with a number of invited guests. The room was trimmed with flowers and wedding bells and the table was charmingly decorated with pink and white streamers and centred with a beautiful three-tier wedding cake. It was topped by a miniature bride and groom.

Soon after breakfast the happy couple accompanied by their guests motored to the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. O. MacNeill, Truro, N.S., where a sumptuous dinner was served by the hostess. The couple then proceeded on their honeymoon to points of interest in the Maritimes. Many beautiful and useful gifts were received by the couple. The staff of Steadman's Store, where she is an employee, presented her with an electric iron. Several showers were given in her honor. They will reside for the present in Pictou, N.S.—S

O'Leary and Vicinity

Mrs. Willard Smallman of Forest View entertained the members of the Knutsford Baptist Choir. The evening was spent in singing and social chat and a dainty lunch was served by the hostess.

Mrs. Walter Darrach and family and Mr. Ralph Lidstone of Southport were recent visitors to Brae the guests of their parents Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lidstone.

Congratulations are being extended to Mr. and Mrs. John Harris of Knutsford who on Dec. 6th celebrated their fifty-third wedding anniversary. Their legion of friends wish them many more happy anniversaries.

Mrs. Sam Duncan of the Mill Road was pleasantly surprised when members of her family remembered her on her birthday with a special dinner and this dear old lady received the congratulations and good wishes of many friends that God will spare her to enjoy more happy birthdays.

For the past several weeks William Turner, principal of the school has conducted "Night School" in the O'Leary schoolhouse for all pupils who want to come. The time is 7 to 9 p.m. The Principal is always ready and willing to help any pupils in his or her studies or problems. This is a new move in O'Leary and the pupils are obtaining great benefit from this progressive venture.

The Executive of the Western Presbytery Young People's Union of the United Church met at the O'Leary United Church with the new President James Burleigh of Bideford presiding and the new secretary-treasurer Rev. B. B. Colborne of Springfield West recorded the minutes. Plans were made for furthering young people's activities during the winter months. Among the items discussed were more Leadership Training and more visiting among the local groups. The Honorary President Rev. R. H. Baxter attended. The Western Presbytery includes all the approximate twenty local young people's unions in the following pastoral charges: Alberton, O'Leary, Montrose, West Cape and Bideford.

For the O'Leary area the following are the speakers for the annual Week of Prayer service which begins Jan. 1st 1951. On that day in the O'Leary United Church the speaker will be Rev. J. R. McMahon of Alberton. On Jan. 2nd the service is in the Knutsford Baptist Church and the speaker is Rev. W. G. Dickson. On Jan. 3rd the service will be in O'Leary Corner Church of England and the speaker is Rev. G. B. Cunningham of Alberton. On Thursday afternoon the service is in Brae and Rev. W. G. Dickson will speak and on Thursday night in the O'Leary Nazarene Church and the speaker is Rev. B. B. Colborne of Springfield West. On Friday the service is in Springfield Baptist Church and the speaker is Rev. P. A. Fitzpatrick of Alberton and also on Friday in the West Devon United Church and the speaker will be Rev. Mr. Dickson. All offerings will be given for the Protestant Orphanage. The West Prince Ministerial Association under whose auspices the services are being conducted have also arranged

NEW ANNAN W.I.

The December meeting of New Annan Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Walter Moase. The president took the chair and the meeting opened with O Canada followed by club women's creed. Ten members answered roll call by going to a gaily decorated Christmas tree and finding a present. A visitor was welcomed, also two new members. The sick committee made six calls. Mrs. Harold Manderson very kindly offered to scrub the school before Christmas. School committee was asked to get paper towels and dustbane. Money was voted for treats for school children at Christmas time.

It was moved and seconded that $5.00 be sent to the Children's Aid Society, $2.00 to T. B. League and $5.00 for cod liver oil capsules. One member paid in money to birthday box. It was moved and seconded that from now on the meeting will be the first Thursday in each month. The next meeting is to be at the home of Mrs. Robert Williams with Mrs. Stewart Moase and Mrs. Emeline McKay to assist with the lunch. Roll call is to be answered by handing in material to make a quilt.

The meeting closed with the National Anthem and the programme committee took charge and put on two interesting contests, one being won by Mrs. Delbert Rayner and the other by Mrs. Keith Thompson. Shirley and Eleanor Moase had a Christmas duet. The hostess assisted by committee served lunch.

services during the Week of Prayer for Alberton and Elmsdale.

The annual meeting of the Evening Auxiliary of O'Leary United Church was held on Thursday night Dec. 7th at the Mansie with an attendance of about twenty young women. The worship service was conducted by the President Mrs. Lewis Bernard who was assisted by Mrs. Thorne Phillips, Mrs. E. W. Turner, Mrs. A. S. Palmer, Mrs. W. G. Dickson and Misses Eva J. MacLennan and Hester Boates. Mrs. Herbert Vatcher had a fine article on Temperance and Miss Eva J. MacLennan gave the financial report which showed that this energetic group of missionary minded ladies far exceeded their objective. The following are the officers: President—Mrs. Gerald Gamble; Ist

Vice President—Mrs. Lewis Bernard; 2nd Vice President—Miss Hester Boates; Secretary-Treasurer—Mrs. A. S. Palmer. The following conveners were appointed: Community friendship—Mrs. Waldo Phillips; Temperance—Mrs. Thorne Phillips; Stewardship—Mrs. E. W. Turner; Missionary monthly secretary—Miss Eva J. MacLennan; Supply secretary—Mrs. Stanley Dunville. Delicious refreshments were served by the following ladies: Miss Pearl Craig, Mrs. Herbert Vatcher and Mrs. W. G. Dickson.

The spacious Brae United Church was packed when the members of the Choir and the Sunday School presented a splendid Christmas pageant in which the beautiful story of Christmas was told in music and song. The pageant opened by a short worship service conducted by the Superintendent of the Sunday School Mrs. Ivey MacFadyen. Prayer was offered by the minister Rev. W. G. Dickson of O'Leary. The main part of the pageant was taken by Mrs. Lorne MacNevin who was realistically gowned as "The Angel". Her fine clear voice could be heard to advantage in all parts of the sacred auditorium. She knew her part perfectly and needed no prompting at all and had no notes of any kind. The full choir augmented by several members from St. Luke's Choir, O'Leary Corner, rendered the special music and sang the grand old Christmas carols. Mrs. Bam Webb was the organist. A solo was splendidly sung by Charles Caseley entitled "Star of the East". Solo parts were also taken by the following men of the Choir, Bam

Webb, John Webb and Elwyn Boulter. The Shepherds, the Wise Men were all splendidly portrayed by young people in appropriate costumes. The role of "Mary" the Mother of Jesus was reverently portrayed by little Miss Helen Baglole who also sang very feelingly "away in a manger". The children of the Sunday School were realistically gowned to represent children of many nations who all came forward to present their gifts to the new born King. The great message of the pageant may be summed up as follows: "Where little children are cared for the needy and those that have no helper; where justice is sought for all; where the lost are reclaimed; where the gospel of redeeming love is declared to sin-sick souls, there Christ is born anew—there new Bethlehems are found.
