Inter-Varsity Christian Rally

On Saturday evening the Prince of Wales College chapter of the Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship held a rally in the College auditorium. Following introductory remarks by President, Bruce Moore there was a hymn sing. Included in the program were an octet of student nurses from the Prince Edward Island Hospital and a violin solo by Carol Marie Coles of the I. V. C. F. chapter. A vocal selection was also given by Margaret MacMurdo after the Scripture reading by William Underhay.

The message of the evening entitled "The Fifth Freedom" was given by Charles E. Hummel, Maritime staff representative of the Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship. Mr. Hummel pointed out that achievement of the Four Freedoms of the Atlantic Charter throughout the world hinges on a Fifth Freedom, freedom from sin. Jesus Christ has stated in St. John 8:34 that whoever commits sin is the servant or slave of sin, but "If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed. In that men can find freedom from both the penalty and power of sin and thus have the key to achievement of true freedom of worship and speech, freedom from fear and want.

Mr. Large would like to express the thanks of our membership for the fifteen days of sick leave, with pay, that was granted by the Department of Education during the past year.

"We have all read, with much interest, the splendid record of school improvement for 1950, as reported by our Minister of Education, Hon. Mr. Large. Money spent for education is an investment that can be afforded in increasing measure because such an investment pays future dividends. You gentlemen, have evidently realized this fact when, during 1950, you authorized the spending of substantial sums of money to improve school buildings and school equipment on Prince Edward Island.

"Modern school buildings and good equipment are an essential part of education, but we remind you that it requires the teaching profession to make them effective. A good teacher is the result not only of natural ability, study, and sound training but also of contentment. Material improvement in schools and working conditions will contribute to the stability of the teacher, but he is also entitled to just and adequate material rewards.

"In his report, already referred to, Mr. Large states as follows: 'Salaries are satisfactory from the standpoint of those entering the profession, but they are not sufficient, however, to retain young people in the ranks for more than a few years.'

"Let us examine this statement and see where the difficulty lies. First of all, the spending value of our Canadian dollar has dropped alarmingly within the past ten years. According to an article in MacLean's Magazine of January 1, 1951, the dollar is now worth about fifty-eight cents, and its value is steadily decreasing. A salary of one thousand dollars in 1951 is comparable to one of five hundred and eighty-eight dollars in 1939.

"It is true that the average salary of a teacher on Prince Edward Island is higher than it was in 1939, but the increase is not sufficient to keep pace with the cost of living. Thus we have an annual wage in the teaching profession for teachers, a more readily convertible to other professions than are other workers to teaching. Every year we are losing many of our best teachers to positions that combine better salaries with less arduous work.

"We agree with Mr. Large's statement that the salaries are relatively adequate for those entering the profession, but there is no incentive for them to remain. We feel that, if the increments were to begin after the second year of service and to continue until the salaries were at least comparable to those of other professional workers, it would keep our teachers in the profession and encourage other young people to enter the field of teaching. We ask you to examine the schedule we propose and we hope that you will see the justice of our plea."

Arriving Tonight

H. A. Rogers, (above) Founder of Kinsmen Clubs will arrive in the city to-night to be present at the annual anniversary celebration of the Charlottetown and Summerside Kinsmen Clubs on Tuesday evening when he will address a joint meeting of the two clubs in the Charlottetown Hotel.

It was 31 years ago that "Hal" as he is known to Kinsmen throughout Canada, founded the first Kinsmen Club in Hamilton, Ontario. Since that time, the number of clubs has grown to approximately 260 with ten thousand members.

A Kinsmen group is a young man's service club devoted to the welfare of the community in which it is active. The Charlottetown club was formed in 1938 and five of its Charter Members are still active within the group. It was at the instigation of the Charlottetown group that a Kinsmen club was formed in Summerside in 1945. The contributions of these two Island clubs to the communities which they serve can be measured in the Children's Camps and summer picnics they sponsor in the welfare baskets they distribute, in the skating rinks and playgrounds they help to maintain and in the countless other community services which they render.

At the anniversary celebration tomorrow, Mr. Rogers will receive a key to the City of Charlottetown. Mr. Rogers will be welcomed tonight at the Charlottetown airport by President D. I. Sinclair and fellow members of the Charlottetown Kinsmen Club.

Traffic Congestion At Victoria Park While a crowd gathered on the ice in the centre of the North River yesterday afternoon, staring helplessly at a spot where a truck had gone through, taking the life of Mrs. Gordon Lewis of Parkdale, well over a hundred vehicles were tied up in a traffic jam on the shore which lasted for almost an hour.

The congestion occurred when a car going around Victoria Park towards Brighton Road pulled up behind parked automobiles on the east side of the road, stopping the stream of cars behind it. Automobiles coming in the other direction kept moving until they were halted by the end of the rapidly forming line around the park.

Unaware of the tragedy out on the ice, passengers sat patiently waiting and watching groups of skaters and the few automobiles which had ventured onto the ice. City Police were called and by backing up the vehicles on Brighton Road were able to release the tie-up.

Woman Hanged In Australia MELBOURNE, Feb. 18 - (Monday) - (Reuters) - Jean Lee, 31, was hanged here today—the first woman criminal executed in Australia in 56 years.

Her execution was twice postponed by appeals. Last week, after her lawyers had exhausted every process of the law to save her, the Privy Council, highest court in the British Commonwealth, rejected her appeal.

The woman and her lover, David Clayton, a bookmaker's clerk, and Norman Andrews, 39, another clerk, were sentenced to death March 3 last year for killing bookmaker William Kent, 73, in Melbourne in 1949.

Is Re-elected Chairman Of Potato Committee

Mr. Walter R. Shaw, Deputy Minister of Agriculture, returned Saturday night from the annual meeting of the Horticultural Council at Ottawa after being elected Chairman of the Council's Potato Committee for the fourth successive year.

Summing up the discussions at the meetings of the potato committee he stated that, "It was the unanimous opinion that there is a need for improvement in both table stock and seed potato grades and quality."

Among the suggestions offered, he stated, was that of eliminating one of the present seed categories preferably Foundation A. This resolution was dropped as members objected to the change at present.

Another suggestion asked that the minimum size of tablestock potatoes be increased from two to two and one-quarter inches. This resolution was tabled.

Much of the discussion centered around potato quality and the meeting felt that some measures should be taken between the potato interests in the various provinces and the Government officials to see if the quality could be improved, he stated.

Speaking of consumer demand he stated that some assurance must be given the consumer so that when he buys a package of potatoes one week he will know it is of as high quality as the potatoes bought last week.

Mr. Shaw and Mr. E. D. Reid, Managing Director of the Provincial Potato Marketing Board, were appointed to the Horticultural Council's board of directors.

Girl Guide News

RALLY POSTPONED Due to the prevalence of severe colds and influenza, the Rally planned for Thinking Day has been postponed indefinitely. It was considered extremely unwise to have such a large group of children together at this time. Do not be too disappointed, Guides and Brownies, save your little concert as we shall be announcing a new date later when everyone will be well and able to attend. Think day pennies for your Companies and Packs should be sent to Miss Gladys Hart or Mrs. Barbara Jenkins.

Basilia Brownies had a Valentine's Party Friday evening and had lots of fun. They are planning an enrollment shortly.

Guides of the 8th had a record candy sale raising a total of $40. They must have been busy. Members of the Local Church Committee headed by Mrs. Wilson helped and the candy was chiefly sold at St. Dunstan's. Leader Miss Elaine MacDonal and the guides are to be highly congratulated on such a fine effort.

THINKING DAY One consolation of the cancelled Rally is that we shall all be home to listen to the Dominion broadcast over C.B.A. at 7.15 p.m. on Thursday. Mrs. Wishart, our Dominion Commissioner, Guide choirs, etc. will be heard so be sure and tune in.

MacArthur Still In Full Command WASHINGTON, Feb. 18 - (AP) - Contrary to whispered rumors, Gen. Douglas MacArthur apparently continues to hold absolute authority in the conduct of the war in Korea.

This became clear today on the basis of statements made by President Truman and Gen. Omar N. Bradley, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff.

Bradley said in an interview: "General MacArthur is in full command in Korea. He has absolute control over the Korean war operations and Washington has taken over none of the direction."

Bradley made his statement after President Truman Thursday indicated to his press conference that the entire strategy in the Korean war is in MacArthur's hands. Truman said any Allied crossing of parallel 38 by United Nations troops was a strategic matter - and a decision to be made by MacArthur.

Club Addressed By Premier Jones HALIFAX, Feb. 18 - (CP) - Prince Edward Island is getting smaller, Premier J. Walter Jones said here Saturday, and it wouldn't be happening if the Indians had been left around the shores.

He told a meeting of the P. E. I. club that erosion would not be eating away the coastline if the forests had not been cut.

Wood, however, had brought its boon to farmers this year. For the first time in modern history, the Island was exporting pulp wood.

Oysters, too, had come back in abundance and sand for glass making was available in the Province.

Club Addressed By Premier Jones

Wood, however, had brought its boon to farmers this year. For the first time in modern history, the Island was exporting pulp wood.

Oysters, too, had come back in abundance and sand for glass making was available in the Province.

Sawwood, which died out almost completely 25 years ago, was coming back and modern methods of fishing were being introduced. The high quality of Island farm produce was being maintained and, with the expected development of the north shore of the St. Lawrence, he expected to see the Island supply this area with foodstuffs.

Islanders, said Premier Jones, were the most "air-minded" people in Canada, and last year for the first time strawberries were exported by air.

Says Canada's Forces In Korea Disgracefully Small

TORONTO, Feb. 18 - (CP) - Jack Macbeth, Associated Press war correspondent, said Saturday that Canadian troops, soon to enter Korea, are in for a tough time.

Macbeth, on leave after six months in Korea, saw the 2nd Battalion, Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry during their advanced training at Miryang.

"There's nothing wrong with those troops," he said in an interview. "Their appearance is outstanding. They're exceptionally smart and keen as a razor blade."

"They'll do well when they go into action—although I'm afraid they're likely to get a blood bath."

Macbeth is a 30-year-old Canadian navy veteran and former sports editor of the North Bay (Ont.) Nugget.

The Chinese Communists are every bit as tough as reports from the battlefronts indicate, he said. "They've hit us four times—and ripped right through us each time. Despite the U. N. advances from time to time, there's no reason to believe the Chinese can't do it a fifth time."

Macbeth said the morale of United States troops—who, with South Koreans, make up the great bulk of the United Nations force in Korea—is adversely affected by the comparatively meagre contributions of other U. N. countries.

"The average American soldier feels he's taking the brunt of it and that the other countries have let him down..."

"The Brazilians are fine but 1-500 men in Korea—eight months after the war started—isn't much of a contribution."

Macbeth said he considers Canada's contribution so far "a national disgrace."

"I don't think the Canadian people are to blame. We'd have plenty of men over there if Ottawa had given the green light at the start. It's the first time certainly in this century, that we've fallen down so publicly and in such degree."

Steam Heating For Diesels Big Problem

MONTREAL, Que., Feb. 17 - (Passenger train in this country's very severe winter conditions requires a tremendous amount of steam for train heating and it would be unwise to dispatch a train on one of our transcontinental runs under severe weather conditions unless its diesel locomotive was equipped with boilers capable of producing seven to eight thousand pounds of steam per hour, the Society of Automotive Fleet Owners of Montreal voted Friday night by 5-3.

Feasey, general supervisor of diesel equipment, Canadian National Railways.

On the subject of "Progress of Dieselization of the Railway" Mr. Feasey said that each passenger in very cold weather requires between 350 and 450 pounds of steam per hour and this represents approximately 45 gallons of water per car to be converted into steam. This a normal train of sixteen cars may require 700 gallons of water an hour which must be converted into steam. Providing space for tanks to carry heavy loads of water has been a major problem to the manufacturers of diesel locomotives and some designers have been unable economically to arrange for more than 1200 gallons of water for each locomotive unit, Mr. Feasey said.

However, as the diesel has a thermal efficiency of over 30 per cent, which is much greater than that of a steam engine which is 8 per cent, and with its relatively low cost of maintenance and other advantages it is safe to predict that the diesel will dominate the motive power field for a long time to come, even though progress is being made in the development of the gas turbine. No matter what the prime mover may come to be, "the locomotive of tomorrow is the electric locomotive, whether it reconverts its power from a steam turbine, a diesel engine, or a gas turbine, because in all of these, the axle traction motors are electrically actuated," the Canadian National official told the gathering.

Taken together, these statements form a flat denial of rumors that the defeat suffered by the U.N. forces last November had shaken MacArthur's authority to call the shots in the Korean war.
