Carter for Wall Paper

RACES AT SUMMERSIDE. Unsworth Wins every Race in which He Starts. Eight cars well filled with excursionists consisted Carter's contribution to the athletic meet at Summerside yesterday. The train left here at 9.20 and reached Summerside about 11.45. It did not leave Summerside on return until 7.30 in the evening, and reached the city about ten o'clock. Conductor Tanton was in charge, and nothing was left undone that would add to the pleasure of the excursionists.

TIED EYES.

Especially when reading or working by artificial light are nearly always a sure indication of defective vision. It is poor economy to refrain from wearing glasses when permanent injury to the eyes may result. It doesn't cost anything to find out the condition of your eyes. Examination by correct methods free at the Queen Street Store, opposite J. D. McLeod's.

DIED.

In this city, on the 6th of August, inst., Gladys, infant daughter of Wm. W. and Ada Harper, aged 10 months.

BORN.

On Saturday, July 25th, to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. Vey, a son.

Mr. Mahion Sands died suddenly on Friday last at his residence in London.

She bore a remarkable resemblance to the Princess of Wales, with which she was upon terms of intimate friendship. On two occasions at fancy dress balls, at the Princess's request, Mrs. Sands and the Princess dressed alike, and it was impossible to decide which was which.
