COME TO THE VARIETY CONCERT in Freetown Hall on Friday, April 20th, by South Freetown Players. Sponsored by the South Freetown Home and School Association.

PRESENTATION MADE TO RETIRED C. N. E. EMPLOYEE—Mr. Duncan MacDonald of Summerside who has retired after forty years service with the C. N. R. was pleasantly surprised at his home on Wednesday evening when his fellow employees, accompanied by their wives, waited upon him. Mr. George Walsh read an address and Mr. David Edwards made a presentation of a Trillight Floor Lamp and "Smokes." Mr. MacDonald expressed his appreciation after which all joined in singing "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow." The remainder of the evening was spent in cards, instrumental music by Messrs. Howard Waite and C. Keisler and a sing-song. Refreshments were served by the visiting ladies.—S.

FORMER MISSIONARY GUEST SPEAKER—Rev. George Archibald, former missionary in Africa and now of Springhill, N. S., was guest speaker at the Summerside Church of the Nazarene on Thursday evening when he gave an illustrated lecture on Africa and the customs of its people. The minister, Rev. David Morrison, presided. A vocal duet by Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth MacMillan, and Mrs. Gordon Lewis, accompanist, was much appreciated.—S.

SUMMERSIDE Y. P. S. MEETS—Miss Vera Rogers conducted the worship period of the Y. P. S. of the Summerside Church of Christ which was held in the Hall on Tuesday evening. The opening hymn "The Name of Jesus" was followed by the Scripture lesson in Matthew 5, the Beatitudes read responsively. The singing of "This so sweet to trust in Jesus" followed prayer by the minister. Mrs. Milton Mellish was pianist. The business session was in charge of Mr. Marshall Callbeck. There were 23 members present. Arrangements were made for this Society to take an evening church service in the near future and four of the group were chosen to attend choir practise on Thursday evening that they might sing a quartette on Sunday evening. Practice for the play "Whatever goes up" will begin next week. The minister took for his topic "Habits—Good and Bad" illustrating how good habits cultivated in their lives will develop Christian character and personality; while bad habits like cobwebs that will eventually become like cables. Prayer was followed by the Mizpah benediction.—S.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY—Mr. and Mrs. Heath Caseley of Kensington were pleasantly surprised on the evening of April 5th, on returning home from a business trip to Summerside, to find their family all gathered in their home to celebrate with them the fortieth anniversary of their marriage. Members of the family present with their life partners were: (Edith) Mrs. Bruce Riley and Bruce; (Willie) Mrs. Ralph Somers and Ralph; (Anna) Mrs. Douglas McMurdo and Douglas; Mr. and Mrs. Clark Caseley and Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Caseley. (Velda) Mrs. Earl Hogg was prevented by illness from being present, much to the regret of everyone. When the surprised parents entered the Wedding March was being played by Mrs. Clark Caseley and this was their first intimation of the nature of the family re-union. Further surprises were in store for the happy parents when their daughter Edith read an address expressing the love and appreciation of a devoted family. A beautiful bouquet of roses was presented by Willie while Nelson made the presentation of a purse. A jolly evening followed, climaxed by a bountiful lunch featuring ice-cream and wedding cake. Mr. and Mrs. Caseley's host of friends unite with their family in wishing them many more happy anniversaries. K

Personals

Mr. Duncan MacDonald and son David returned to their home in Summerside after spending the week end in Halifax, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce MacDonald. Mrs. MacDonald with her children Jackie and Bobby accompanied them to the Island to spend two weeks.—S.
