BOAR BONUS POLICY

1. The following bonus will be paid on bacon type boars which are in active service at time of inspection.

All boars born after December 1st, 1947, must be out of a dam qualified in Advanced Registry to be eligible, and dams of boars born after December 1st, 1951, must have an Advanced Registry score of 85 or better.

Class A $16.00
Class B $12.00

2. All boars must be in breeding condition, sound and serviceable.

3. A Class "A" boar is one which in the opinion of the Inspector is good enough to sire registered breeding stock.

4. A Class "B" boar is one which although useful as a sire of commercial market hogs may carry slightly objectionable features of conformation.

5. Boars must be registered and transferred to the party making application for inspection.

6. REGISTRATION CERTIFICATE MUST BE AVAILABLE TO THE INSPECTOR AT TIME OF INSPECTION.

7. Any boar showing evidence of hog lice at time of inspection will not be eligible for a bonus.

8. No boar shall receive inspection under 7 months of age.

9. No boar shall pass inspection unless he is kept in sanitary and reasonably clean quarters. Preference will be given to boars which are on pasture at time of inspection.

10. All reports of Boar Inspection shall be submitted for final approval to a Board composed of three members of the Federal and Provincial Departments of Agriculture and approved by the Minister of Agriculture.

11. In cases where boars have been purchased by Farmers' Institutes or other similar organizations which have received a grant to assist in such purchases, no bonus will be paid on such boars in any year in which such grants have been paid.

12. All applications for inspection must be made on the forms supplied by the Provincial Department of Agriculture.

13. Applications will be received up to August 14th but boar owners are asked to apply for inspection immediately. Inspection may be made any time before the end of October.

OUR NEWS BUDGET for OUR SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

gets underway this evening at Acadia University in Wolfville, N.S. Wayne MacDonald, West Kent, Frankie McGulgan, Queen Square, and Irene Cotton, Prince Street, all of Charlottetown; Bernice Delory of Georgetown but a student at Montague High School, Myrna Hancock of Summerside High, Bernard McCabe of Kinkora, Eunice McNaught of Coleman who attends O'Leary High School, James MacLean of Kensington, Norma White of Souris Convent and Miss Suzanne Francis of Rochford Square.

A young college student had a narrow escape from drowning on Sunday afternoon at Cavendish Beach. Melvin White, a third year Prince of Wales College student, was overcome when caught in a strong undertow, and required the assistance of two lifeguards, Jerry McQuaid and Bob Hutchison before a rescue was effected by three men in a boat.

Charlottetown's new high school will be officially known as the Queen Charlotte High School. This was the unanimous decision reached at a recent meeting of the Charlottetown School Board in choosing a name for the new building now well advanced in construction. The selection was made as perpetuating a name so closely associated with the City.

A Charlottetown soldier, L/Cpl. John B. Young, 25, serving in Korea with 4th Canadian Guards Regiment, was among a group of 90 soldiers from various Commonwealth Armies to graduate from a six week Junior NCO course recently at the 25th Canadian Infantry Brigade's NCO School in Korea.

The Rocky Point ferry "Fairview" was becalmed in midstream at 12:40 yesterday afternoon when she was making the return trip from Rocky Point. A broken over-speed governor was the cause of the engine stoppage. It is expected that a delay of a few days will be experienced before the defective part can be replaced since it will have to come from either Saint John or the United States.

A large group of cadets from Prince Street, West Kent, Queen Square and St. Dunstan's University will attend several weeks training at Camp Debert beginning next week. This will be the first time that the Camp has been used for cadet purposes.

The second annual chicken barbecue sponsored by the Prince Edward Island poultry industry in co-operation with the Federal and Provincial departments was a decided success when held last evening on the beautiful grounds of the Charlottetown Experiment Farm.

Almost two thousand people enjoyed a succulent chicken meal on the grounds. The chief cook, Mr. Borden Douglas, with a smooth working staff, kept an ample supply ready for anxious guests whose appetites were whetted by the aroma of roast chicken as they waited their turn.

Officers and ratings from the French warship, L'Adventure, have been widely entertained since the ship docked here early this week. Last night the officers were guests of His Honour Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. T. W. L. Prowse at Government House at a formal ball.

Earlier in the evening the officers were entertained at a party at H.M.C.S. Queen Charlotte and the Petty Officers and other ratings were also guests of the local training ship. In addition to making the caissons available to the visitors, several dances have also been held in their honor.

Pine weather greeted the delegates attending the forty-first annual convention of the Prince Edward Island Women's Institute yesterday. The convention, which will continue today is largely attended and is being held at Prince of Wales College Hall.

After the delegates had registered, the meeting opened with the address from the President, Mrs. Michael J. Doyle, North Rustico. An address of welcome was given by Mayor J. D. Stewart of Charlottetown and words of welcome were extended by Hon. C. C. Baker, Minister of Agriculture.

The rear window of a '53 model automobile shattered into hundreds of pieces at about 1:40 Wednesday afternoon as the vehicle was parked at the home of the owner, Ivan Rollings, North Rustico. The vehicle was facing the sun at the time.

Investigation by both the owner and the R.C.M.P. failed to reveal evidence of application of Department force, such as a bullet or stone. It appeared the glass shattered because of the heat or because of faults in the manufacture.

Prince Edward Island has been singularly free from poliomyelitis this year according to Department of Health officials. Dr. O. H. Curtis, Deputy Minister of Health, stated last night there was no evidence of an epidemic and apparently no danger of one. He said there have been only five reported cases all year.

Mr. Joseph Walsh, president, presided at the annual meeting of the Morell Co-operative Association held at Morell hall last evening. Mr. Walsh in his report stated that the business for the year had increased, which meant larger profits for the members.

Mr. Byrne Webster, manager of the Morell Co-operative gave a financial report, and Mr. Leo Corcoran presented the financial statement which showed assets of $175,645.24.

Hereditary chief Colin MacNeill, the Clan MacNeill and fellow clansmen gathered at Mt. Pleasant airport yesterday and were joined by several hundred spectators in celebrating Clan MacNeill day, which was only slightly marred by showery interference from the weatherman. This year's gathering of the clans was presented under the auspices of the Ladies Aid of the Stewart Memorial Hospital.
