WEDDING BELLS—A very pleasing event occurred on the evening of May 19th, 1922, at 5 o'clock when Miss Freda Caroline MacNevin, eldest daughter of Mr. Hessel D. MacNevin, became the bride of Mr. Neil Kenneth Salmon, both of Bonshaw. The nuptial knot was tied by the Rev. George C. Taylor, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. McWilliams, 161 Water St., Charlottetown, cousin of the groom. After the ceremony a dainty lunch was served in Mrs. McWilliams's expert manner. The bride was charmingly attired in a cream serge suit and wore a blue sash hat. He travelling suit was of blue with braid trimmings. After lunch the happy couple visited friends and relatives in the city. On the following evening, May 11, they motored to their future home in Bonshaw. A small crowd of near friends and relatives gathered at their home in the evening to welcome them home. The presents were numerous and costly. Later in the evening a large crowd, both young and old, gathered on the lawn to show respect for the happy couple who are both very popular in the vicinity. The evening past rapidly in music and games. Ice cream and cake was served by aunts of the bride. At the cheery hour of 1 o'clock the guests all joined hands and sang "They Are Two Jolly Good Fellows," and then dispersed, leaving behind them their best wishes for future happiness and prosperity. "One of the crowd."

MR. MICHAEL McLEAN The visits of death is ever laden with grief and tears and was especially so when the grim reaper reaches unexpectedly and cuts down Mr. Michael McLean of De Gros Marsh. All the medical skill and kind assistance that could be done was done, but pneumonia set in and the grim messenger of death, for God willed otherwise. Deceased was a progressive man and his genial, kind disposition gained many friends and made him a favorite with both young and old and his death will be regretted by a wide circle of friends and acquaintances. Mr. McLean was most faithful in attending to his religious duties and during his illness was visited by his pastor, Rev. Father McDonald, who administered to him the last rites of his church. Mr. McLean was a most Christian man of a lovable disposition, was always ready to assist a neighbor in time of need, a friend to all and enemy to none, to know him was to love and respect him. His genial smile and pleasant greeting will be sorely missed in the neighborhood, but it is in the home where the vacant chair and the loved voice is forever silent that the pang will be felt the worst. He leaves to mourn one nephew, John J. Clark, Annandale, and one niece, Mrs. Douglas McDonald, Georgetown. May his soul rest in peace. Amen.

PERSONALS (Mr. and Mrs. Roy McLean, Mrs. Currie and Miss Sterns, Souris, motored to the city yesterday. Major F. M. and Mrs. May are spending a few days in the city. They are guests at The Russ. Mrs. B. W. Sherwood of Ottawa, is visiting relatives at the Charlottetown Experimental Station. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Clark are leaving this morning for Los Angeles, Calif., to attend the Rotary Convention. Rev. C. E. and Mrs. Armstrong of Montague, were visitors in Charlottetown en route to the "All Canadian Convention of the Disciples of Christ" which is being held at Komoka, Ont.
