The City Bill.

The conduct of the Legislative Council respecting the City Bill, in the session of the Legislature just closed is another strong argument in favor of abolishing the Legislative Council. The Opposition members in that decrepit body are not only obstructive but they are also bungling legislators.

The House of Assembly passed the City Bill without a dissenting voice, and its passage was duly communicated by a message to the Council. The Council in their wisdom made several important suggestions to the Bill. Through some bungling on their part, the message sent by them to the House of Assembly only referred to a change in the title of the Bill, and not a word about any other suggestion.

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL, May 14, 1886. Suggestions made by the Legislative Council to the Bill to be intituled an act to enable the city of Charlottetown to issue debentures to liquidate the smallpox expenditure.

Dishonest Tactics.

How long will the Opposition persist in charging the teachers' salaries falling due on December 31st as a part of the debt of the previous year? Saturday's Patriot charges $26,000 teachers' salaries for quarter ending December 31, 1885, as part of the debt due at that date.

Foreign Missions.

The Foreign Mission committee of the Presbyterian Church in Canada was in session in Toronto last week. There were nine applications from ladies to be sent out as missionaries under the supervision of the committee, but no new appointments were made.

A train had just emerged from a tunnel and a vinegar-faced maiden of thirty-five said to her music companion: "Tunnels are such holes? But a young lady of eighteen, who sat just in front, adjusted her hat, brushed the frizzes back and said to the young man beside her: "I think tunnels are awfully nice."

Confirmation Services.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH.

Yesterday morning at eleven o'clock, the Apostolic rite of Confirmation was administered in St. Paul's Church to 41 persons including a good proportion of young men, by His Lordship the Bishop of Nova Scotia.

St. Peter's Church was crowded last evening on the occasion of the Lord Bishop of Nova Scotia administering the rite of Confirmation. When the bell began to ring for service there was not an available seat left and many had to stand throughout the entire service.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

A Complaint.

SIR,—As a subscriber to your daily, permit me to make the suggestion that you endeavor to supply your columns with items that will prove more interesting to the general run of your readers than do the Gospel and Salvation Army affairs.

Terrible Domestic Tragedy.

Early on the morning of the 10th, the people of Lonsberry, a small hamlet about four miles west of Oswego, N. Y., were considerably startled by the report that a murder had been committed in their neighborhood.

Missing Fishermen Reported.

The schooner A. T. Gilford reports that Daniel McEischen and McPhee, two of her crew, while attending trawls, went astray and had not been heard from.

Accidentally Drowned.

A boat upset this evening inside of Coney Island Point. There were several parties in the boat who disappeared instantly.

Large Mackerel Shipment.

One thousand barrels, the first of this season, of mackerel, were shipped from Yarmouth to Boston Saturday.

The Sawdust Track.

Myers yesterday defeated George, the English champion runner, in a one mile race for $2,000 and gate money.

An Entertaining Incendiary.

The Enterprise Distillery was destroyed by incendiary fire this morning. Loss, $200,000.

More Annexation.

The English Government has decided to annex the Kermadec Islands, in the South Pacific Ocean.

Weather Bureau.

Toronto May 17.—10 a. m. Winds shifting to westerly; fair weather with slightly higher temperature, preceded by local showers.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

[SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.]

A Threatened Dissolution.

LONDON, May 17. An informal Cabinet Council was held last evening, and to-day, Gladstone had a conference with his colleagues.

It is reported that yielding to advice of Morley and Lord Spencer, Gladstone has decided, in the event of a defeat, to demand from the Queen an immediate dissolution of Parliament.

The Liberal Association leaders have sent a letter to Gladstone, pleading with him not to resign but to appeal to the country, with every certainty of securing a majority.

A Birmingham Liberal, having written that Chamberlain's actions had destroyed all chances of his ever attaining the leadership of the Liberals, Chamberlain replied that he would sooner forsake political life than consent to the measures that would prove disastrous to the country.

Gladstone's committee has asked Chamberlain to formulate a statement of the concessions that would reconcile him.

Evictions by Wholesale.

DUBLIN, May 15. Heartrending details have just reached here, of evictions on the estate of Lord Kenmare, near Killybegs.

While he, as Lord Chamberlain, is attending the Queen at the Liverpool festivities, and enjoying life, the sheriff, backed by 97 police, has been turning out a large number of his tenants of the poorest kind, who are undeniably unable to pay anything. Owing to the resistance, they only average nine evictions per day.

Fighting Redskins.

ARIZONA, May 16. A fight occurred yesterday between Geronimo Band of Apache Indians and a company of regular troops under the command of Capt Hatfield.

A number of Indians were killed and wounded. Two soldiers were killed and three wounded. In a fight between Mexican troops and Indians one hundred Indians were killed and two hundred captured. The Mexicans lost 20 killed and 50 wounded.

A Ghastly Find.

CHICAGO, May 15. The coroner received a despatch this morning from the town of Cicero, near this city, which said that nine boxes containing the bodies of children and adults had been found at Oak Park.

The fact, as known, created excitement in police circles. One of the theories advanced being that the corpses were those of Anarchists who had died from injuries received in the Haymarket explosion.

Repeal for Cape Breton.

HALIFAX, N. S., May 16. A mass meeting, held at Sydney, C. B., unanimously resolved to sink party differences and unite as one man to use every constitutional means for securing a repeal from Nova Scotia, and securing the erection of Cape Breton into a separate Province of the Dominion.

On the Alert.

ST. JOHN, May 17. The Lansdowne arrived in port Saturday afternoon. She left Digby about daylight for the purpose of getting another prize, but failed.

A New York Alderman Convicted.

NEW YORK, May 16. The jury in the case of ex-Alderman Jachne—charged with accepting bribes from the Broadway Railway Co., while a member of the Board of Aldermen—returned a verdict of guilty this morning.

Death in the Sausage.

HALIFAX, May 16. Three families, of fourteen persons, were seriously poisoned yesterday by eating sausages purchased from a pork dealer named Mosher. They are all recovering.
