Militia Changes.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND has lost its identity as a militia district. In so far as all military movements are concerned it is part of New Brunswick. The excuse for the change is, of course, the necessity for economy. Money which has heretofore been paid to maintain this Province as a separate district, is to be applied to the improvement of accoutrements and drill. The autonomy of Prince Edward Island has been further infringed to the end that our militiamen may move together with greater facility. It may be, too, that the change was favored by the Government as in some degree anticipatory of the larger political union of the Maritime Provinces which is undoubtedly desired by Ontario and Quebec. The immediate result of the change will probably be a slackening of the ardor of P. E. Island militiamen. While our people are proud to belong to the grand old British Empire, and while they delight in forming part of the large and vigorous young Canadian Nationality, they love their own little Island Province. Insignificant as it is, in some respects, its people, whether at home or abroad, are attached to it by associations and ties at least as strong as those which bind the people of any other Province. It is their pride that, given a fair field, Islanders, in every position of life, are able to acquit themselves as ably and as nobly as men born in larger countries. They can point to honorable triumphs achieved in every direction and on every field of effort. Not the least of their sources of satisfaction is the recollection of prizes won in friendly competition with the militiamen of the neighboring provinces. From the day on which Hickey "plucked the laurel from the tree which grew at Sussex Vale" until the present day, there has been won by our Island militiamen a long series of peaceful victories. Each of these victories was a victory for the Island. Whether it was a high score on the rifle range or the quickest shift in an artillery competition, our people hastened to welcome the victors home as triumphant Islanders and to felicitate themselves with the idea that each victor reflected credit upon his Island home. We fear that the esprit du corps thus developed will, as one result of the change, be in great part lost, and that it will be long ere our militiamen, united with those of New Brunswick, will have just the same hearty interest in their duties and competitions that they have evinced in the past. Still, as Canadians and militiamen, they will, we feel sure, fall in as heartily as possible in accordance with the desires and orders of their commanding officer and the economical policy of the Government.

Too Hasty Again.

A GREAT deal of quiet fun has been poked at Mr. L. H. Davies since he came out in the role of a constitutional authority. The Ottawa correspondent of the Empire says that he caused amazement among his friends and discomfiture to the constitution. "Having pre-empted the seat of the late Mr. Mackenzie, Mr. Davies, with equal audacity, proceeded to-day to possess himself of the reputation as philosopher and constitutionalist-in-chief of Hon. David Mills." Mr. Davies undertook to show that Parliament had for twenty years and more been in the wrong respecting the passage of Redistribution Bills. He argued that Parliament had no power, under the British North America Act, to pass the proposed measure. He based his argument on a single section of the British North America Act, which provides that the representation of the Provinces shall be "readjusted by such authority, in such manner and from such time as the Parliament of Canada, from time to time provides." From this he inferred that Parliament can only provide authority to make the readjustment, and lay down the principles upon which the readjustment shall be made: it cannot readjust. But Sir John Thompson quoted the 91st section of the British North America Act which gives to Parliament full powers to make laws for the "peace, order and good government of Canada," and pointed out that authority was here given to pass the Redistribution Bill. Other sections of the same act Sir John pointed out—such, for instance, as section 40, which fixes the boundaries of the constituencies "until the Parliament of Canada otherwise provides"—all point to the Parliamentary power of redistribution being unlimited. Sir John also showed that Mr. Davies' interpretation would lead to endless absurdities, some of which Sir John, with his acute intellect, argued to a conclusion, while, as the Empire's correspondent reports, "the members of both sides listened and admired."

Mr. Davies has probably discovered that it is not so easy to bamboozle the Parliament of Canada as it is to mislead a petit jury, and that he ought not to base a constitutional argument upon any single section of the British North America Act. But Mr. Davies will never discover that it is unwise to jump to a conclusion.

The wall paper manufacturers of the United States have formed a combine, with a capital of $14,000,000. The head office will be in New York city.

Notes and Comments.

—The Patriot admits the nuisance in the Provincial Building resulting from the jobbery of Mr. J. R. McLean, and shouts "corruption at Ottawa!"

—Sixty millions and more are excited about the Republican convention sitting at Minneapolis to-day. Will it be Blaine, or Harrison, or the dark horse?

—The Toronto Globe in its "reptile fund" disclosures makes out that in the election of 1887 the Conservative candidates in the four conrtituencies of Quebec East, West, Centre and county spent $33,000. The Montreal Gazette retorts that "the same year in the same election Mr. Patrick Purcell, grit candidate in Glengarry, spent in that one constituency, as shown by evidence under oath taken in the courts a sum of $30,000!"

—The Toronto Globe remarks that "in this democratic country we are still troubled with the anomaly of allowing the property-owner to count for more than his landless fellow-citizen." Yes. And the Liberal party of Prince Edward Island, led by Mr. Frederick Peters, has passed an act to give an additional vote to every mortgagee! But the Act has been reserved.

—In his address on the redistribution bill, Hon. Mr. Ouimet pointed out that at the last general election, while the Conservative majority in Quebec was over 4,000 votes, the liberals elected 38 members of Parliament, and the Conservatives only 27. A majority from Quebec has been sitting at Mr. Laurier's back representing a minority of the electorate. The rectification of this wrong is what Mr. Laurier calls a gerrymander.

—Viscount Sherbrooke (Mr. Robert Lowe) once said:

"I cannot express the repugnance with which I view the dual vote. It seems to me to be more invidious than anything which can be devised. You are raising up a sham sort of oligarchy to control and overbalance the will of the people. I will not associate the giving of power with any shabby expedient to counteract it."

These words are sharp for our Mr. Fred. Peters, the sham liberal who is striving to establish in this Province the power of the Peters-McLean-Farquharson oligarchy by means of mortgage votes, gerrymanders, and downright political robbery.

—One of the private letters now being published by the Toronto Globe is the following:

[Private.]

STADACONA HALL, OTTAWA, June 24, 1882.

My Dear McGreevy,—We have thrashed the rascals and can run the machine for the next five years. We shall probably go to Riviere du Loup in the first week of July. I was glad to see Malouin defeated and all the Quebec district sound. I am awfully used up, but I hope soon to get around again.

Yours sincerely,

JOHN A. MACDONALD.

Hon. T. McGreevy.

It is needless to say that this letter is instinct with boodling and all political corruption. Sir John is dead, and Sir Hector is out of the cabinet, and Mr. McGreevy is out of Parliament, and the letter was written ten years ago. But the present Government must be punished for it!

Militia Changes.

The Canada Gazette, received to-day, contains the following among the announcements respecting the militia:

By an order in Council dated the 14th May, 1892, His Excellency the Governor-General has been pleased to approve of the following titles being conferred on Permanent Corps of Active Militia.

1st. The Cavalry School Corps to be known henceforth as the "Canadian Dragoons."

2nd. The Infantry School Corps to be known as the "Canadian Regiment of Infantry."

1 By an Order in Council dated 11th May, 1892, His Excellency the Governor-General has been pleased to approve of the following changes in the existing Military District.

1. That No. 12 Military District (Prince Edward Island) be incorporated in and form part of No. 8 Military District.

In pursuance of the above authority the following dispositions are made:

1. The Prince Edward Island Brigade of Garrison Artillery, the Charlottetown Engineer Company, and the 82nd Battalion are transferred to No. 8 Military District.

2. The Headquarters, and Nos. 1, 2 and 3 Companies of the 96th Battalion are transferred to No. 10 Military District. Nos. 4, 5 and 6 Companies will remain as independent Companies in No 2 Military District.

Promotions:—82nd "Queen's County" Battalion of Infantry, P. E. I.—No. 1 Company, Charlottetown Royalty.—To be Lieutenant: 2nd Lieutenant Ernest Walter Fairfax Harris, R. S. I. (1st B), vice J. A. Ferguson, resigned.

To be 2nd Lieutenant, provisionally: Sergeant Ira Sprague Kennedy, vice E. W. F. Harris, promoted.

No. 3 Company, Charlottetown.—To be 2nd Lieutenant, provisionally: Colour Sergeant Benjamin Charles Prowse, vice Isaac Carter, who retires from the service.

Personal.

Dr. William Warburton, of India, is visiting his relatives and friends in this city.

It is said that Prince George wears a beard to please his mother, of whom he is devoutly fond.

Hon. David Mills has been appointed legal lecturer in medical jurisprudence in the University of Toronto.

Mr. H McKellor, in company with Mr Haslam, crossed to the Island yesterday for the purpose of inspecting that province before returning to Manitoba.—Moncton Times.

Mr. W. J. Truelove, formerly in the employ of J. D. McLeod & Co., is in the city. He left the Island nineteen years ago, and has since sojourned in the United States.

At the meeting of the Botanical Club of the Royal Society of Canada, held in Ottawa last week, Mr. Francis Bain, of North River, was re-elected secretary for Prince Edward Island.

At the recent award of scholarships at Cornell University, Victor Coffin, of Prince Edward Island, was awarded a travelling fellowship, and D D Hugh, another Islander, was awarded a fellowship.

Mr. Humphrey Waugh, of Summerside, a student at the Union Baptist Seminary, St. Martin's, N. B., was very successful in the prosecution of his studies during the year, as is evidenced by the prize list published in the St. John papers at hand this morning. Mr. Waugh gave the valedictory, and was one of the performers at the entertainment which brought the proceedings to a close.

Prof. Frank Dean, lately of Halifax, who was appointed organist of the Episcopal Church in Annapolis, made vacant by the death of Prof. Porter, has disappeared, it is said. He received some salary in advance, and took his leave without saying good bye. A letter from Montreal says Prof. Dean was seen in that city. He said he was en route for Hamilton.

THE RE-DISTRIBUTION BILL

OTTAWA, June 8.

In reply to Mr. Laurier, Sir John Thompson said there would be a statement of the result of the recent visit of ministers to Washington made in a few days.

The debate on the redistribution bill was resumed by McCarthy, who said that the amendment of the leader of the opposition was too vague and too uncertain for him to vote for it. As to the legal question raised by Davies, he would state before sitting down what his views were. It was evident to him that some rule should be laid down as to how redistribution should be carried out. He endeavored to find on what lines the bill was drawn. The leader of the opposition held that there was no necessity for a redistribution in Quebec. He (McCarthy) did not agree with those who said that there should be no distribution in that or other province. If ever there was a time that redistribution was necessary it was at present. Dickey discussed the legal point raised by Davies, making an able speech. Haggart also spoke at length in favor of the bill. Dr. Weldon started out by referring to the legal points taken by Davies. He would like to add a word to that which had already been said by Mr. Dickey. He held that Section 51 of the B. N. A. Act applied to readjustment as between province and province, and did not refer to redistribution as far as electoral boundaries were concerned. What he meant by readjustment was that the Province of Nova Scotia or New Brunswick would have so many members in accordance to what they were entitled in ratio to members in Quebec. He applied redistribution to dividing up of that province into electoral districts to which Section 51 did not refer. He was free to confess that the redistribution of 1882 did very little credit to the Parliament that passed it. But whether it was fair or not, the result was that Liberal voters got their full representation in the House. The Bill, therefore, did not do the work that it was expected. The wrong doers, if they were wrong doers, did not succeed on that occasion. It might be better to repeal the act of 1882 and go back to the old basis, but how could he do it? It might be right to pursue such a course as the amendment proposed, but it was not practical politics. By adhering to these constituencies as they exist to-day and providing some general way for future distribution. We put it out of the power of evils which he referred to being done again. House adjourned.

The Presidential Nomination.

MINNEAPOLIS, June 8.

The Republican convention adjourned yesterday till 11 o'clock this morning. It was evident last night that a faction manifested the fact that with only Blaine and Harrison in the race one or the other will be nominated on the first ballot, and that one will probably be Blaine.

General Telegraphic News.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—The House to-day passed the anti-option bill under the suspension of the rules; also bills admitting New Mexico and Arizona to statehood.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., June 6.—A snowstorm of mid-winter severity raged here all day yesterday. Eight inches fell on the level. The storm was general throughout the state. Grass, grain, and all vegetation is practically destroyed.

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 6.—Despatches received here state that a heavy snowstorm raged west of Missouri River in South Dakota last night. At Deadwood there is ten inches of snow on the ground. Traffic is almost suspended. The temperature is below the freezing point.

LONDON, Ont., June 6.—The recent heavy rains have fairly deluged this district and caused great damage to crops and losses to bridges and culverts, drains and roads. In London township the entire structure has been completely washed out and taken away and whole fields of planted potatoes have been washed up and carried into adjoining fields. The total damage will amount to thousands of dollars.

KINGSTON, June 6.—Portsmouth people are terrorized over the numerous burglaries taking place there. Every night during the past week two and three houses have been entered and ransacked and the inmates assaulted. Special constables have been appointed, a law and order league formed, and the city police have been called upon to lend a hand to put down the gang of miscreants.

SUDBURY, Ont., June 6.—J. C. Ritchie, of Akron, Ohio, one of the largest investors in Canadian nickel, arrived here to-day. Speaking of nickel prospects Mr. Ritchie says that the 'recent experiments by the United States Government had convinced all mining men that nickel was the ore of the future and that Sudbury's boom had only begun. In fact Canada would be the great nickel producing country of the future.

TORONTO, June 8.—10 a. m.

Fine weather, not much change in temperature.

The Methodist young ladies of Vancouver are not behind the age in the art of inveigling patrons to their church socials. The Vancouver Telegram relates how, after a decidedly secular musical programme in the Homer Street Methodist Church of that city the other evening, "the company seated themselves at the tables prepared by the ladies, where full justice was done to the following menu: Greased Staff, Slice of Noah's Kid, Laborer's Strength, Fruit of the Vine, Boston's Overthrow, Bachelor's Comfort, Spring's Offering, Skipper's Home, Elevate Feline, Everybody's Friend, Joy of Darwin's Ancestors, Ivory Manipulators, Marble Slab." It is sincerely to be hoped that these young ladies will manage to forget their cooking school education before marriage.
