MR. AND MRS. WILSON VALENTINE RUDDERHAM

Kensington United Church Setting Of Pretty Wedding

Kensington United Church was the beautiful setting for the afternoon wedding on Saturday, August 15th, when Katherine Eileen, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Erskine MacMurdo, Kelvin Grove, became the bride of Wilson Valentine Rudderham son of Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Rudderham, Sydney, N.S.

The church was attractively decorated with vases of cut flowers and the guest pews were marked with white satin bows and ferns.

Rev. L.M. Murray, assisted by Rev. A.E. Kingsbury, Stellarton, N.S., performed the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Russell MacKay, church organist, played the wedding music and Mr. Roscoe Walker sang "The Lord's Prayer" before the ceremony and "O Perfect Love" during the signing of the register.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in her floor length gown of net over taffeta with lace inserts. The bodice was fastened with small covered buttons at the back, had short sleeves and a flattering neckline. Her elbow length veil of tulle illusion fell from a cap of pleated tulle trimmed with rhinestones and pearl sequins. She carried a cascade bouquet of red sweetheart roses and stephanotis.

Miss Jean MacMurdo, sister of the bride, was her only attendant and wore a street length gown of pale green organza over taffeta with matching headpiece and mitts. She carried a cascade bouquet of yellow sweetheart roses and stephanotis.

Mr. Ian Harnacker, cousin of the groom, was best man and the ushers were: Mr. Allison MacMurdo and Mr. Elwood Paynter. Mrs. MacMurdo chose for her daughter's wedding a sheath dress of flowered ice-blue terylene with white accessories and wore a corsage of white carnations. Mrs. Rudderham, mother of the groom, wore a sheath dress of navy blue lace with navy and white accessories and her corsage was pink feathered carnations.

After the ceremony, a reception was held for fifty guests at the Summerlea Restaurant where the bride's table was decorated with mauve and white mums and ferns and centered with a three-tiered wedding cake tastefully decorated and topped with a miniature bride and groom. The cake was cut in the traditional manner.

Miss Flora Woolner and Miss Cordella Rudderham circulated the guest book.

For the honeymoon trip, to points of interest on the mainland, the bride wore a blue flowered silk ensemble with blue and white accessories and a small, white feather hat.

Out of town guests included: Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Rudderham, Miss Cordella Rudderham, Mr. and Mrs. Emmerson Rudderham, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rudderham, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Doucet, from Sydney, N.S.; Rev. A.E. and Mrs. Kingsbury, Stellarton, N.S.; and Mr. Ian Harnacker of Rome, N.Y.

Telegrams were received from Mr. Forrest Hamilton, Vars, Ontario; and Mr. and Mrs. Gyles Toles, Ottawa, Ont.

L.A.C. and Mrs. Rudderham will reside in Quebec City where the groom has been posted. Prior to her wedding the bride was tendered a shower by her fellow employees of Bell Telephone, Ottawa, and was also the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts by relatives and friends of Kelvin Grove and vicinity.
