

Annual Inspection Of S'ide Sea Cadet Corps On Saturday

Real Admiral Roger E.S. Bidwell, C.B.E., C.D., R.C.N., flag of the Atlantic Coast, carried out the annual inspection of Royal Canadian Sea Cadets Corps on Saturday. The inspection was held at the Memorial Square and in his brief remarks following said "It was a very nice turnout and I thank the officers and cadets for a good job."

On his arrival at the square the inspecting officer and his party were greeted by Lt. Roy Boates, commanding officer of the corps, and a general salute by the corps guard of honor under command of Lt. Eric Sheen, gunnery officer of the corps.

The parade, led by the smart Sea Cadet Band, headed in the direction of Lt. G. Corcoran, formed up at the Corps' headquarters at the High School and proceeded to the Summer Street to the square. Under command of executive officer Lt. Verno Arsenault, Rear Admiral Bidwell was introduced to the many parents and friends of the cadets by Lt. Boates who, in his address, referred to the retirement in September of the inspecting officer and in behalf of the corps he paid tribute to the wonderful assistance of the Rear Admiral had extended to Sea Cadet work.

Following the inspection the Dr. B. MacNeill trophy, donated annually to the most efficient cadet of the year was presented to Cadet Petty Officer Robin Lidstone by the Rear Admiral. Dignitaries present to greet Rear Admiral Bidwell included J. Watson MacNaught, M.P., Mayor W.A. Currie, Mr. Charles Hogan, president of the P.E.I. Division of the Navy League, Squadron Leader Murray Shanks, commanding officer of the No. 53 Summerside Air Cadets and representatives of the various service organizations.

The parade moved off the square led by the band and proceeded down Summer Street where Rear Admiral Bidwell took the salute at the corner of Summer and Fitzroy Streets where the saluting base was erected.

A reception for the inspecting officer followed in the Legion Home at which many dignitaries, press and radio were present.
