CITY COUNCIL MEETS TONIGHT. The City Council will meet tonight at 8 o'clock in the City Hall.

CARRIED AWAY—About sixty feet of the outer end of Campbell's Cove Breaker was carried away by the late northerly storm.

AFTER SHEEP AND LAMBS—Mr. P. G. Mahoney of Portland, Me., is in Summerdale having sheep and lambs. On Saturday he shipped 196.

SOURIS RACES—The races at Souris tomorrow promise to be very interesting, and will be well worth attending.

POLICE COURT—This forenoon two persons were summoned for non-payment of dog tax. One of the defendants was fined $1, and the other case was adjourned until tomorrow.

MAINE NEWS—Nine schooners, coal laden, arrived today to C. Lyons, viz.: the Arizona, Morris E., Catherine, Alba, Sea Breeze, Morning Star, Ada C. Spofford, Caribon, Huron.

STILL VERY UNWELL—We regret to hear that Dr. McIntyre, of Souris, is still unwell. Drs. McLeod and Conroy, visited him on Saturday last. It is thought that he will pull through all right.

ARRIVAL—Schooner Nutwood, Captain Bushey, of Souris, arrived here on Friday with a full load of mackerel purchased in the Magdalen Islands by Mr. Frank Conroy for Matthew, McLean & Co.

FOR SOURIS—A special train leaves tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock, local time, for the accommodation of passengers to the Souris races, returning in the evening. Fare for the round trip, only $1.

FACTORY CLOSED—The Goswin Brae cheese factory has been closed for the season. Milk is being taken to it yet, however, twice a week, to be manufactured into cheese for the patrons.

A GOOD YIELD—Mr. John J. Gillis, of Clarendon, informs the Pioneer that he received from the Central Experimental Farm at Ottawa last spring a 3-lb. bag of barley which he sowed on a strip of ground measuring 579 feet by 10 feet, and this fall he harvested 214 lbs. of excellent barley—a return of over twenty to one.

EPWORTH LEAGUE—A branch of the Epworth League was organized at Wadsworth a few evenings ago. Mr. O. B. Wadsworth is president, and the executive committee is composed of R. H. Campbell, Jessie McDonald and Nellie Nicholson. The society has a good membership already, and the prospects are very bright.

W. M. S.—The Women's Missionary Society in connection with the Methodist Church closed its season at Moncton on Friday, and some of the delegates from the Island have returned home. Mrs. Johnson, of Charlottetown, was elected one of the alternates to the general board. Mrs. A. M. Wright was appointed representative for the district of Summerside. The Society will meet at Summerside next year.

PRESENTATION—The medal won by Mr. William Payne, at the shooting gallery, recently, will be formally presented at the gallery tomorrow evening. The medal is of silver with a gold target in the center. In the center of the target is a figure of a man and the medal proper, is a gun, and on the bar of the pin is inverted the winner's name. The medal and an appropriate floral tribute may be seen at E. W. Taylor's jewelry store.

LATE HARVESTING—In the eastern part of the Island there is a considerable quantity of late grain unharvested. Some of it is still uncut, while some hundreds of stooks have been under the weather for the last ten days or more. Owing to the drought in the early part of last summer, the grain did not ripen at the usual time. This, along with the wet weather of the last few weeks, will result in more or less loss to some of our farmers.

LITERARY AND SCIENTIFIC—A number of gentlemen interested in the formation of a Literary and Scientific Society met in the Y. M. C. A. parlour on Saturday evening, and after discussing the benefits that would accrue from a course of lectures bearing upon scientific matters, appointed a committee to prepare a programme for the winter. The committee is composed of Dr. Leaning, Prof. Harcourt, A. E. Morrison, Walter P. Duell and Thos. May.

FROM MONTREAL—The steamer Bonavista, Captain D. C. Fraser, arrived from Montreal at four o'clock this morning with a general cargo and the following passengers: Miss Daisy Brown, Miss Nora Walsworth, George Yonnie, Adam Davidson, Albert Perry, J. Hillard, Alex Fraser, R. J. Elerts, Mrs. Parsons, Miss Parsons, Mrs. Clarette, William Elmes, Mrs. P. McGrath. She also had seven steerage passengers. She left for St. John's via Sydney this afternoon with a cargo of produce, horses, cattle and sheep.

LARGE FURNACE—The funeral of Mr. W. J. Stair, of THE EXAMINER staff, was one of the largest that we have seen in Charlottetown. There were in the procession men of all ranks and classes. But the presence of such a large proportion of young men was a living evidence of the high esteem in which the deceased young journalist was held by his associates. The service was held at St. Peter's Church and at the Southport church church were conducted by the Rev. James Simpson. The pall bearers were A. Leigh, B. F. Messervey, G. R. Buchanan, F. Smith, J. Nicholson and J. Rundle.

THE FUNERAL OF Mrs. James Hughes, took place from King Street to St. Dunstan's Cathedral, thence to Roman Catholic Cemetery this forenoon. There was a large attendance. The deceased was the mother of Messrs. John and Henry Hughes of this city. She was 71 years of age.

OUR PROGRAM TO-DAY is an interesting one. We've cleared our front counter for some smart business this week. The opening number

IS A "DRIVE" (Ladies who know what Saturday "Soaps" are need only to be told that "Drive" will be found in the same dictionary that gave them their knowledge of "Soaps.")

The first drive is in Ladies' Warm Woolen Vests—"Health," "Hygiene," "Paragon" and "Every Day."

Don't miss this attraction!

BEER BROS. Will be open tomorrow—4 Cases more London Hats, Gloves and Dress Goods.

Thornton, Oct. 9, 10 a. m. Moderate winds; fine and warm.

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

I. O. O. F.—The third degree will be conferred at St. Lawrence Lodge, to-night at 8 o'clock. Full attendance requested.

H. B. C.—Regular meeting, to-night at 8 o'clock. Full attendance requested.

FOR DRILL—The Charlottetown Engineers will meet for drill to-night, Wednesday night and Friday night at 8 o'clock.

EPWORTH LEAGUE—The annual meeting of the Epworth League will be held this evening at 8 o'clock in the Church parlour.

VALUABLE CATCH—Last Friday the schooner Samuel Drake, Captain Chapman, arrived from the Magdalen Islands with a large and valuable cargo of mackerel for James E. Grant, Esq., of this city. Mr. Robert Kelly, with his own, extensive battery engaged in peeling and packing the cargo on Pownall wharf. This work going on here will run into one of the good times when the well-known firm of Hall & Myrick did business in the city.

HANS BURKED—A lard in connection with the store and warehouse of Matthew, McLean & Co., at Dundas, was burned down yesterday morning. A valuable horse belonging to the firm was burned to death. The building was all right at 8 o'clock, but at 2 o'clock in the morning it was so far under way that nothing could be done to save it or its contents. It was with the greatest difficulty that the adjacent buildings were kept from taking fire. Only that a good supply of water happened to be on hand, they would probably also have been consumed. Cause of fire unknown. There was no insurance.

THAT STRANGE FISH—The fish caught in Summerside harbor last week, and sent by Mr. Richard Hunt to Mr. Lawrence W. Watson, secretary of the Natural History Society, is the sun fish, Orthogoriscus Moe's, an inhabitant of the warm waters of the tropics, and but comparatively rarely found in more northern seas, although it is sometimes met with on the west coast of Ireland. As far as we know this is the first specimen taken on this coast. The body of this creature is round in its vertical contour and compressed laterally. The long dorsal fin projects high above the upper surface of the body, the anal fin being equally prominent. There is no defined "tail," the caudal fin extending along the full width of the body. The head is not unlike that of the Sun fish, but also to the phosphorescent light emanating from it, making it a very beautiful object as it swims near the surface of the water at night time. It is sometimes taken without any special application, but is not much esteemed for food. It has, however, a large quantity of oil in its liver, much valued by sailors as an external application for sprains, rheumatism, etc. Mr. Watson gave the huge specimen to Mr. Frank Stanley to preserve, but Mr. Stanley found the task laborious, his power, the fish adhering almost inseparably to the tender skin.

THE ALVO'S LOSS. No Hope of the Ship Ever During Up. An Island Captain and his Mate on the "L. S."

The steamer Alvo, long overdue at Kingston, Jamaica, from New York, has been given up for lost by the consignees. The steamer Alvo sailed from New York on August 16 for the West Indies, with Gonaves, Hayti, as her first port of arrival. She travelled over what is known as the long course, and would be out six weeks on the round week. Her general course lay about fifty miles from the coast, and she would have originally encountered the recent hurricanes, which first gave rise to fears for her safety, when at the end of a week no report from her was received. She generally made Gonaves in that time. The agents of the line believed for several days that the vessel had gone ashore on some island and would soon be heard from.

We regret to learn that among the many on board the steamer Alvo, which is given up for lost, on a voyage from New York to the West Indies during the month of August and September, were Capt Hector Marchion and his young son, aged 14 years, whom he had taken with him on this which proved to be her last voyage, and which sealed the fate of both father and son. Capt. Marchion was the fourth son of the late Malcolm N. Marchion, of Point Prim, who have each shared a watery grave. For over twelve years, as master of large vessels, Capt. Marchion had borne a high reputation. He was quite a young man, being only forty-two years of age, the last five years of which he resided with his family in New York, where he secured the situation of second officer on the above-mentioned steamer. He was very highly respected by all who knew him, both at home and abroad, and his death, together with that of his son, weighs heavily on the hearts of his wife and two daughters, who now are in New York. Besides a wife and family, Capt. Marchion leaves two sisters and three brothers, as well as a large number of friends and relatives to mourn the loss of a loving brother and kind friend. We deeply sympathize with them all in their sorrow and bereavement.

With Invalids. Yes! with invalids the appetite is capricious and needs coaxing, that is just the reason they improve so rapidly under Scott's Emulsion, which is as palatable as cream.

To-morrow will be the last day for paying water rates. Those who have not yet paid up should do so at once.

Now is the time to buy a mull cheap. One hundred and fifty to choose from. This lot has been imported from London. Not having carried any old furs over, we are in a condition to give you the very best goods obtainable. The above lot will be cleared at 25 per cent discount.—James Paton & Co.
