

Panthers get the axe — but will they bury the Hatchet?

jock talk

Mickey Place

To begin, we'd like to compliment Dave McCurdy on an excellent sport column in last week's issue. We don't think he was 100% correct but we think he's entitled to a pass mark.

Pantherettes 0 - U.N.B. 0. That's the score by which our girls lost their field hockey match on Saturday...we don't understand it but they put the ball over their end territory more than the U.N.B. girls did so the game went to U.N.B. Considering that they were shut out 4 - 0 in the last match between these two teams our girls did well and we understand are still in the running for a playoff spot.

U.P.E.I. Soccer 1 U.N.B. 3 and last week it was U.P.E.I. 1 - U.N.B. 4. We are happy to report that our soccer team is doing quite well for a team that is just entering league play and we found the game a most interesting one. Our boys give it everything they have and that is all a fan can ask.

ACADIA 52 - U.P.E.I. 7. What can we say? Cherouk, Carson & Co. were just too much for us and Acadia gained sweet revenge for our knocking them out of contention last year. We stayed home and listened to the game and the best we can do in the manner of praise is to report that, in our opinion, Paul Durant & Mike Hennessey were excellent and seem to improve with each game...not so the team on the field. We particularly like Paul's description of an Acadian star..."He's a big bas--sorry" We believe it was a bad day for the Panthers and hope for a strong comeback next week in Halifax and against X here. The best was to describe this game, "Were Acadia ever good...HOLY SMOKE!!!!"

Oktoberfests. We recently were asked "Why OKTOBERFESTS?" Why not a Januaryfest? From our observation the most popular U.P.E.I. sport is bending the elbow (coming just ahead of boy chasing girl and vice versa) we decided to consult encyclopaediae and we'll comment on what we found. Oktoberfests, borrowed from Germany, have become perhaps the largest universally observed ethnic celebrations on the continent. Tradition tells us that it all started in 1810 when the Crown Prince of Bavaria married (and watch the spelling Laura) the Princess Therese of Saxe-Hildburghausen. The ensuing celebrations featured all kinds of sports but always ended up in a terrific beer-bash. These were so well enjoyed that, every October, the party continued...by the time the royal couple celebrated their silver anniversary it was bigger than anything the country had ever seen. Since Oktoberfests hit Canada several years ago its growth has been phenomenal...at first it was a German community affair but it was adopted on most college campuses as a good excuse for what the Germans call Gemutlichkeit --- the warmth and cheer of fellowship, hospitality and conviviality. Into this ready made opportunity we hope that U.P.E.I. students will enjoy the forthcoming Fall Festival and raise their glasses to celebrate, however remotely, in the hope that the Crown Prince and his Princess had long and happy lives. Prosit.
