NEW YORK

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market rallied vigorously Tuesday for the second time in 12 sessions, emerging with a substantial gain after a hectic up-and-down session. Trading was heavy.
Volume was 11,210,000 shares compared with 10,890,000 Monday. Both were the biggest since a 10,000,000-share-day May 1.
The Dow Jones Industrial average ended with a gain of 8.69 at 775.72.
The thinking by analysts was that now the market could mount a rally, possibly going to the 820-825 line in the Dow Industrials, although upward progress might be irregular.
Afterwards, the opinion was that it would have to test Monday's low of 767.03.
Heavily traded, Fairchild Camera surged 19 points to 184, Polaroid 15 1/2 to 153 and Itek 10 1/2 to 87. Less active than these, Motorola surged ahead 15 1/2 to 163 1/2 and Texas Instruments 10 1/2 to 119 1/2.
KEY STOCKS GAINED
Key stocks across the board made gains of fractions to 1 or 2 points.
Of 1,432 issues traded, 710 rose and 496 fell. Works for the year-totalled 521. There were no highs.
The Associated Press average of 60 stocks rose 2 1/2 to 277.1.
McIntyre Petroleum and Dome Mines lost 3 1/2 and 2 1/4 among Canadian stocks. Other losses included Hudson Bay, Distillers Seagrams, and Canadian Pacific. Alcan gained 1 1/2 and International Nickel 1.
On the American exchange some stocks made big jumps. Scurry Rainbow gained 1 1/4, Brazilian Light and Power 1 1/4 and Fargio Oil 1-16. Canadian Javelin lost 1/4 and Molobdenite Canada 1-16.

MONTREAL

MONTREAL (CP)—The market closed irregularly higher on volume unequalled this month on the Montreal Stock Exchange.
Montreal markets combined volume was 204,300 industrial shares, highest since July and the first time the market has passed 200,000 in over a month. Volume for mines and oils was 697,300. Monday the figures were 169,300 and 1,102,000.

Though advances were shaded by declines, 102 to 53 on the composite index, the composite index was higher.
A surge of activity carried Brinco 1/4 higher to 5 1/4. It traded 65,899 shares as speculators banked on the prospect of an early solution to the Churchill Falls project tie-up.
Quebec Premier Johnson insisted, however, that rumors of an early agreement were unfounded.
ALCAN WAS ACTIVE
Alcan was the second most active security issue in transactions of 13,590 shares, closing 1 1/4 points stronger at 29 1/4. Other winners of a point were Moore Corp. at 78 1/2 and Royal Bank at 68.

Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce ended 1/4 higher at 56 1/4. Canada Cement and Maritime Telephone were 1/2 stronger at 39 1/2 and 23 1/2. Up 1/2 were Calgary Power, International Nickel and TransCanada Frise Paper Line, at 22 1/4, 84 and 27.

Fraser Paper dipped 1 1/4 points to 22 and Falconbridge Nickel 1 1/4 points to 88. Both B.C. Forest lost a point at 20 1/2 and Shell 1/4 at 19 1/4. Consolidated Paper and Du Pont closed 1/2 down at 35 1/4 and 38 1/2.
Among speculators on the Canadian Stock Exchange, Carbe was volume leader on 97,300 shares, finishing two cents easier at 37 1/2 cents. Penbec lowered 1/2 cent to 28 cents on 66,000.
On index, banks gained 1.02 at -108.87 and utilities 0.48 at 130.84; industrials lost 0.13 at 143.64 and papers 1.42 at 107.55.
The composite index firmed 0.10 at 137.93.

TORONTO

TORONTO (CP)—Industrial ground out their second gain of the last 12 sessions Tuesday on the Toronto Stock Exchange, but it was tough sledding all the way.

The day started on a strong note with industrials moving well ahead behind the strong leadership of the New York market where a vigorous rally was under way. But the rally was under way. But the rally faded and Toronto's market promptly declined. However, with New York closing strong, the industrial index here finished the day with a gain of 43 at 145.32.

Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce paced the advance with a gain of 1 1/2 at 57 while Alcan—an erratic trader all day—and Moore Corp. were up 1 1/4 each to 29 1/2 and 79. Consumers' Gas, which announced a dividend increase Monday, tacked on 1/4 at 14 1/4 and Bell Telephone 1/4 to 49 1/2.

CPR, involved in the country-wide rail strike, was ahead 1/2 to 55 1/2.
However, analysts aren't convinced the gain signals an end to the seven-month decline.
NEED HEAVY BUYING
'We'll need some heavy buying and then a period of relative inactivity before the bear market is over,' one said.
He also said it was worth noting that declines on the exchange outnumbered gains 135 to 62 despite the index advance.
