Decision Reserved On Move By Maritime Radio Station

OTTAWA (CP) — An application by six privately-owned radio stations for permission to set up a radio network in the Maritime provinces came before the Board of Broadcast Governors Wednesday.

T. H. Tonner of Moncton, acting co-ordinator for the group, said the stations believe "that by combining our resources we can make a much greater contribution to the communities we serve and to broadcasting as a whole."

The board reserved decision on its recommendation to the transport department.

The six stations are CHNS Halifax, CJCB Sydney, N.S., CFBC Saint John, N.B., CFNB Fredericton, CKOW Moncton and CFCY Charlottetown.

PROPOSAL WELCOMED Robert E. Keddy, the CBC's assistant controller of management planning, told the board the CBC welcomes the proposal.

The application is the first to be made to the board for a permanent regional network of privately-owned radio stations. Such networks were authorized under the new Broadcasting Act passed by parliament last year. Previously such networks could be
