

Large Congregations At S'ide Easter Services

Large congregations were in attendance yesterday in the Summerside churches. The service in Trinity United Church was conducted by Rev. C. Daniel Matheson. His theme in the morning being "The Meaning Of Easter," and in the evening "The First Easter." The music was under the direction of the organist. The anthems were "Christ, The Lord Is Risen," by Henry Wilson and "The Sun Shall Be No More" by H. H. Woodward, with Mrs. L. M. Callbeck taking the solo part.

In the Presbyterian Church Rev. J. Donald MacKay's sermon in the morning was "Death Conquers" and in the evening "Risen." Mr. James Peach was the organist and Mr. Thomas Hall directed the junior choir in "See The Conquering Hero," "Rejoice You Pure In Heart," "Thy Kingdom Come," "A King In His Glory" and a girls' sextet in "Joyful Excitement" and "In Joseph's Lovely Garden." The senior choir sang "Hallelujah, Christ Is Risen" and the "Hallelujah Chorus."

At the morning service in the church of the Nazarene a rally day program was conducted by the Sunday school pupils with the minister Rev. D. R. Morrison presiding. The theme was "The Lamb Of God" and a small live lamb was used as an illustration. The theme of the evening service was "The Second Coming Of Christ" and a male quartet sang "Is My Name Written There?" Mrs. D. R. Morrison was pianist.

The Junior Choir at the Church of Christ conducted the Passion Week story in word and song, with the minister, Rev. W. O. Weale presiding. Mrs. Winslow Morrison was organist. Mr. Howard Gay gave the scripture narrations. These were interspersed with musical selections and a trumpet solo "The Holy City" by Mr. Weale. The anthems were "Hallelujah, Christ Is Risen" and "Resurrection Gladness." The theme of the evening service was "Resurrection." "The Holy City" was rendered as a trumpet solo by Mr. Weale and "Christ Arose" as a

Walker-Morrison Wedding
Baskets of spring flowers and bouquets of cherry blossoms in the United Baptist Church, Summerside, created a beautiful floral setting on Saturday morning at 11 o'clock for the wedding of Anne Shirley Morrison and David Sydney Walker. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Ernest Morrison and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Walker, New Annapolis. Rev. K. R. Hobson performed the double ring ceremony. Mr. J. H. Leuty was in charge of the wedding music and accompanied Miss Audrey Woodside as she sang "O Perfect Love" prior to the ceremony and "I'll Walk Beside You" during the signing of the register. The youthful bride, given in marriage by her father, was charming in her wedding gown of white nylon net over satin, featuring a strapless bodice, topped with a chantilly lace, buttoned with tiny self-covered buttons, three-quarter length sleeves and peler pan collar outlined with seed pearls and sequins. The full floor-length skirt featured a deeply scalloped overskirt with appliqued bowknots of lace and sequins. The shoulder-length veil was held in place with a matching lace hair comb and with blue and pink forget-me-nots. She carried a cascade bouquet of Better Time roses. Miss Joan Walker, sister of the groom was bridesmaid. She was gowned in yellow nylon net over taffeta with matching head-dress and she carried a nosegay of mauve mums.

Mr. Wendell Morrison, brother of the bride was groomsmen. Messrs Cedric Ballem and Edward MacInnis ushered the guests to their places which were marked with a miniature nosegay of daffodils. Mrs. Morrison chose for her daughter's wedding a two-piece dress of blue and white gabardine with navy accessories and a corsage of Talisman roses. The groom's attire was a tuxedo with white accessories and a corsage of Better Time roses. A reception for fifty guests was held at Mulberry Lodge, where the bride's table, centred with a three-tier wedding cake, was encircled with spring flowers and lighted tapers. For a honeymoon trip to Nova Scotia, the bride changed to a two-piece dress of white and blue corded taffeta with white and black accessories and a corsage of Pink Delight roses. On return they will reside in New Annapolis.
