DEATH NOTICE

MRS. A. MacDONALD
"Even in the midst of life we are in the midst of death."
A large circle of friends were deeply shocked and saddened to learn of the death of Mrs. Alex Macdonald, who passed away in the early morning of March 29th, 1959.

She had enjoyed her usual health until February 16th when she had the sad misfortune of falling and breaking her hip. She was immediately taken to the Prince Edward Island Hospital where everything possible was done by skilled doctors and nurses, but God willed otherwise and on the above date she passed peacefully on, to be forever with the Lord.

The late Bertha Jane Macdonald was born in Nine Mile Creek on June 12th, 1890, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Macdonald. In 1912 she became the wife of Alexander Macdonald of Nine Mile Creek and here they spent the following eleven years. The next thirty years they spent in Arlington, Massachusetts. Then six years ago they decided to return to their native province where they purchased a home in Parkdale.

Bertha, as she was familiarly known, had an unusual capacity for making friends. She will be greatly missed in her home that was known by everyone young and old for its hospitality. It can truly be said of her that she enjoyed practicing the old saying that "it is better to give than to receive". She was also deeply interested in the activities of the church and community and since her return home she had been a faithful attendant at Zion re-sbyterian Church, Charlottetown.

Besides her sorrowing husband she also leaves to mourn the loss of a kind and devoted mother and grandmother, one daughter: Clara, Mrs. Richard MacPhee, New Haven; two grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

The passing of the late Mrs. Macdonald also marks the first break in a devoted family of six sisters and three brothers, namely: Margaret, Mrs. L.E. MacKinnon, George Cove, Hugh, New Haven; Gavin, Horning's Mills, Ontario; Julia, Mrs. Neil Darrah Canoe Cove; Helen, Mrs. Roderick MacNeil, Parkdale, Charlottetown; Mrs. William Lohnes, Somerville, Mass.; Robert, Nine Mile Creek and Florence, Mrs. John B. Macdonald, Nine Mile Creek.

Her funeral, which was very largely attended, was held on March 30th, a short service being held at the home of her daughter followed by service in Canoe Cove Presbyterian Church. Her Pastor, Rev. Donald Campbell, of Zion Presbyterian Church, brought a very inspiring message of comfort and hope to the bereaved family. He was assisted by Rev. George Killen and Rev. Donald Nicholson.

The hymns sung were "The Lord is My Shepherd," and "O, God of Bethel." "Shall We Meet Beyond the River" was beautifully rendered as a duet by Rev. Donald Nicholson and Mrs. Mervin MacPhee.

The pallbearers were six nephews of the deceased: Bill MacKinnon, Bobby Macdonald, Jack Macdonald, Mack Macdonald, Angus Macdonald and Roert Macdonald. The remains were tenderly laid to rest in the Church cemetery.

Following are the floral tributes:
Pillow
Husband, Calra and Richie
Brooks Clever, Mrs. E. Mac-

IN MEMORIAM
QUINN — In fond and loving memory of my dear mother, Mrs. Frank Quinn, who departed this life April 30, 1958.
Sady missed by her son Augustus.

CARDS OF THANKS

Mr. Alexander Macdonald and family wish to thank all their thoughtful friends and neighbours for the many acts of kindness shown them during their recent bereavement. Also sincere thanks to all who sent flowers, cards and messages of sympathy.

DEATH NOTICE

GEORGE F. MacNEILL
The death occurred at the P. E. Island Hospital on March 1, 1959 after a short illness of George F. MacNeill formerly of Milton in his eightieth year.
He was the son of the late Neil MacNeill and Philippa Tinney. Although stricken with an arthritic condition for several years he was apparently in his usual health until a few days previous to his death when he entered the hospital but despite the best medical care he was suddenly called to his eternal home. His passing therefore came as a great shock to his immediate family.

The late Mr. MacNeill spent most of his life farming at Milton where he had many close friends who will long remember him.

He was honest, charitable, kind hearted and ever ready to assist anyone who called upon him. George, as he was familiarly known to his countless friends and acquaintances was a very interesting conversationalist, and many people young and old will recall many pleasant hours spent with him.

He will be sadly missed by his family of three daughters namely Norma, (Mrs. Heber Campbell), Phyllis (Mrs. Vincent Cosgrove), Montreal and Irene, (Mrs. Earle Dysart), Moncton also one son Earle of Montreal and twelve grandchildren to whom he was greatly attached.

His wife the former Myrtle Hiclox predeceased him in 1925 also a brother Wallace and sister Annie in 1945.

The funeral was largely attended on March 3 despite the inclement weather from the residence of his daughter Mrs. Heber Campbell, Kingston to Brookfield Presbyterian Church where the service was conducted by Rev. George Killen who brought a comforting message to the bereaved, assisted by Mr. Bhe, Student Minister.

The hymns sung were "The Lord is My Shepherd" and "Jesus Lover of my Soul".

The pallbearers were Andrew E. Dollar, Herbert Dollar, Russell Moore, Emmerson Kent, Edgar Newson, Merrill Green.
Beautiful floral tributes bore silent testimony of the esteem in which the deceased was held. Interment was in Brookfield Cemetery.

Following are the floral tributes:—
Pillow — The family
Wreath — Margaret Campbell, Toronto
Spray — Grandchildren and nephews
SPRAYS
Mrs. Dan Docherty and family Belle and Everett Plets
Mrs. Elmer MacNeill Jean and Earle Docherty, To onto

BOAR EPIDEMIC

WARSAW (AP) — A mysterious epidemic has wiped out more than 1,400 wild boars in a year in the forests of Bydgoszcz province. Officials said the warm spring weather had spread the epidemic, killing 500 domestic pigs in villages in three weeks.

RECORD QUAKE

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — An earthquake classified as very strong was recorded by the Spring Hill College seismo graph Tuesday. Father Louis J. Eisele said the tremor was centred about 1,400 miles southeast of Mobile, either near the Costa Rican-Nicaragua border or offshore in the Caribbean.
