IN MEMORIAM MRS. DONALD MACLEAN. God called Home on May 29 Mrs. Donald M. MacLean in her 78th year. Her affliction was such as to cause great suffering at times, all of which she bore with great Christian patience. Her whole life was one of serving her Master. She was a member of Wood Islands Presbyterian Church but owing to her illness was unable for some time to attend. She was visited during her illness by Rev. E. S. Hales who read comforting passages, and his words of inspiration were at all times a great comfort to her. She was a daughter of the late John Neil MacLeod and his wife, formerly Miss Mary Gunn, of Mt. Vernon, and was one of a family of nine, six sisters and two brothers, of which two sisters survive. Her husband D. M. MacLean predeceased her three months previous; also in 1913, an infant son Malcolm G.

She leaves to mourn her passing one daughter, Mrs. A. B. Gillis, Belle River, who tenderly cared for her through her illness; a son John Angus; two sisters, Miss Florence MacLeod of Mt. Vernon, P. E. I., and Mrs. Elizabeth Wilson of Cohasset, Mass.; also seven grandchildren: Mrs. Bruce Stewart, Wood Islands; Lloyd Gillis, Belle River; Margaret, Christina, Donald, Joan and Charles MacLean, Wood Islands; also two great grandchildren, Shirley and Raymond Stewart of Wood Islands. Her funeral service, conducted at her late home by the Rev. E. S. Hales on June 1, was largely attended. Rev. Mr. Hales spoke words of comfort and inspiration to those bereaved. Hymns sung were "The Lord's My Shepherd", "There is No Night in Heaven", and "How Bright These Glorious Spirits Shine".

Pall bearers were Messrs. John MacLennan, J. Angus MacLean, M.P., Donald Crawford, George MacLean, James MacLean, and Neil MacLean. Many people joined in the committal service at Wood Island cemetery conducted by Rev. E. S. Hales, and all that remained mortal of a kind and loving mother were tenderly laid to rest. Thus do we walk with her and keep unbroken. The bond which nature gives, though unspoken, May reach her where she lies.

Long River Church Marks Anniversary. The 25th anniversary of the dedication of Long River United Church was celebrated on Nov. 1, with a congregation composed of members and friends from other churches filling the building to capacity. Special selections were rendered and appropriate hymns were led by the New London United Church choir, directed by Mrs. Ray MacLeod. The minister, Rev. S. H. Haslam, B.D., who conducted the service and delivered the address, called the building of the church "a Venture of Faith", for he said the usual doubts and questionings were there, and only vision and faith could undertake the task, but now it justifies its existence. He likened the church before union to brooks about the country side, doing a good job but not ad-

QUADS BORN. CORDOBA, Spain, (AP)—Quadruplets were born Saturday to 37-year-old Francisca Espejo Berjillo, a mechanic's wife, in the nearby village of Cabra. The mother and children—three boys and a girl—are reported in good condition. KING CAME TO LUNCH. OSWEGO, Ill., (CP)—King Paul of Greece, currently on a goodwill tour of the United States, satisfied a desire to see a "typical mid-west farm" Saturday. He visited a 336-acre hog and dairy farm in this northern Illinois community and joined the Smiths at a dinner of fried chicken and apple pie. "We need a river and the United Church, with the co-operating bodies that make it up supply the power and do the job that could never have been done without union." Two anthems rendered by the visiting choir were "Take Jesus With You" (Alfred Judson) and "Let Us Go Into the House of the Lord" (Adam Gebel). A happy feature of the service was a message of greeting from a former minister of the church, Rev. Dr. E. J. O. Fraser, now a missionary in Korea in which he spoke of his feeling for Long River Church as "a place where one can meet with God." Despite the lateness of the season, baskets and vases of lovely garden flowers added to the beauty of the church. Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McHugh.

Mr. Rand Smith, choir director and soloist sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer". Mr. Gordon MacLeod, brother of the bride, escorted her and gave her in marriage. Her gown of imported chantilly lace and satin was patterned with a fitted bodice, lace bertha, illusion neckline, appliqued with seed pearls and sequins, with long sleeves tapering to points over the hands, and a voluminous satin skirt terminating into a full cathedral train. A tiered veil of French silk net cascaded from a lace crown, encrusted with seed pearls and sequins. The bride's only ornament was a necklace set with pearls and olivines, which had been worn by her mother on her wedding day. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and stephanotis centred with a white orchid. Mrs. Roy Willis of Saint John, N. B., matron of honor, was in a red antique shantung silk gown of ballerina length, with halter neckline of applique lace and matching bolero. She carried a cascade bouquet of bronze and gold chrysanthemums, and wore a matching coronet in her hair. The bridesmaids were Miss Patricia Gardner of Bartlett, N.H., and Miss Marianne Beer of Boston, Mass. Their ballerina length gowns of blue antique silk shantung were designed with halter necklines, with lace applique and bolero. Yellow and rust chrysanthemums and half-dresses. Mr. Herion was his son's best man. The ushers were Richard Walker of Winston-Salem, N. C., and Boston, and Jake Walters of Mt. Pleasant, N.C. A reception was held in the church parlor, where the bride and groom were assisted in receiving by the bride's mother in plum shade crepe with matching accessories and the groom's mother in smoke blue satin with black accessories and a purple orchid in corsage. The bride is a graduate of Sydney Academy, Sydney, N.S., and the V.G. Hospital-School of Nursing, Halifax, N.S., where she served on the staff for two years. During the past 18 months she has been a member of the nursing staff of the New England Baptist Hospital, Boston, Mass. The groom is a graduate of Mt. Pleasant High School, N. C. Autumn. How enchantingly the woodland calls in Autumn, We were over yesterday across the bridge, And walked among those lovely slopes and hills sides, Perhaps you too have seen the glorious ridge. We stood in awe amid, the wondrous splendor Nature dressed up in her brightest array. Coaxing each leaf from green to regal purple, And splashing with gold and crimson so gay. O autumn leaves so vivid and alluring Gladden the land with color while you may, Soon your hour will be over and because you are mortal On the winds wings you shall then fly away. —Mrs. W. D. MacEwen.
