

W. M. S. Meetings

CAVENDISH W. M. S.

Mrs. Olaf Stevenson was hostess at her home to the Cavendish Auxiliary of the W. M. S. on Wednesday evening, November 12th. With the president in the chair, the meeting was opened by reading in unison hymn 432, "Father I know that all my life is portioned out for me."

In the absence of Mrs. Milton Green, Mrs. John MacNeill acted as secretary and read the minutes which were adopted. Roll call was responded to by members repeating a Scripture verse beginning with the letter "N."

A letter from Mrs. Lorne MacNeill, expressing her appreciation for visits and cards during her stay in the hospital, was read by Mrs. Alfred Moore. Gifts were brought in by the members to be sent to the United Church Port Worker at Halifax. The Community Friendship Secretary reported 12 home calls, five hospital calls and eleven cards sent.

A nominating committee, consisting of Mrs. Ernest MacNeill, Mrs. Olaf Stevenson and Mrs. Sterling Stewart was appointed to bring in a slate of officers at the December meeting which is to meet at the home of Mrs. Ernest MacNeill. The devotional leader will be Mrs. Ira MacCoubrey, lunch committee Mrs. George MacCoubrey and Mrs. George Gough. All books out are to be returned during the year may be listed.

Mrs. Ernest MacNeill conducted the Worship Service, theme, "The Book of Life," the Bible as a means of grace. This beautiful service stressed the importance of reading the Bible—for only as it is read—will it be a means of grace. Behind the words of the book is Jesus, the living Word. Hymn, "Break Thou the Bread of Life," closed the opening worship.

Then the president with the aid of a chart and with the assistance of Mrs. John MacNeill, Mrs. Sterling Stewart, Mrs. Ira MacCoubrey and Mrs. Alexander Skinner presented Chapter V of the Study Book, "Along African Trails," "Education." The chapter described the eagerness of Africans to secure an education and gave the type of school, many of which exist today, because of what Christian Missions have done and are doing along this line.

The meeting closed with prayer for the missionaries, especially Miss Frances Walbridge in her work in the District Vocational Schools in Angola, by Mrs. Ira MacCoubrey and hymn, "O Word of God Incarnate" and benediction.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Milton Green and Mrs. Ira MacCoubrey.

FAIRVIEW BAPTIST W. M. S.

Upwards of fifty members and friends of the Fairview Baptist W. M. S. gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Neill, North Milton on Wednesday evening November 13th for their annual night box opening and sale.

With the president, Mrs. Paige Nunn presiding, the devotional part of the meeting was opened by singing "The Morning Light is Breaking." Scripture reading by Mrs. Irving Laird and prayer led by Miss M. C. Neill was followed by the Lord's Prayer in unison.

The business part consisted of the minutes of last meeting read by the secretary, Mrs. Preston Neill. Roll call was answered by fourteen members passing in their minute boxes and quoting an appropriate verse of Scripture. The correspondence included a letter of thanks for a box of food from Miss Laura Bain, Missionary in India.

The hymn "In Christ there is no East or West" was then sung and the following program carried out: recitation by Marie Nunn, duet by Mrs. William MacQuarrie and Mrs. Irving Neill, reading by Mrs. Charles Horne, duet by Mrs. Amasa Horne and Mrs. Eric Laird, recitations by Marilyn Laird, David Laird and Clayton Nunn. This part of the meeting was brought to a close by singing "Blest be the Tie that Binds."

With Mr. Gordon Andrews of Whetley River as auctioneer and Mrs. Preston Neill as clerk of the sale a table full of bazaar articles was capably auctioned. Total receipts realized from the evening's entertainment amounted to $83.30. Five members of the Society assisted the hostess in serving a delicious lunch after which a free will offering was taken and the enjoyable evening brought to a close.

CAPE TRAVERSE W. M. S.

The monthly meeting of the Cape Traverse Auxiliary of the Women's Missionary Society was held at the home of Mrs. Blanche Harper of North Carleton on Thursday afternoon, November 13th with a large attendance.

The theme for the meeting was "The Book of Life" — "The Bible" Hymn 185, "Let Everlasting Glories Crown" was sung. The leader for the devotional was Mrs. Hedley Lowther, president, who was assisted by members. Scriptures 2nd Timothy, chapter 3, verses 14-17 were read by Mrs. J. W. Howe, and St. John 1, verses 1-18, were read by Mrs. Gordon Harvey. Hymn 187, "Break Thou the Bread of Life" was sung.

The business meeting then opened with the president presiding. Minutes were read and roll call taken by the secretary, Mrs. Boyd Lowther, after which subscriptions were taken for the Missionary Monthly by Mrs. Earle Thompson. "Joy" was the word chosen for roll call for next month.

It was unanimously decided to send "get well" cards to three friends and members. It was decided to buy and dedicate a record to the memory of a very valued member, the late Mrs. Albert Muttart. The selection to be chosen by the family of the late Mrs. Muttart. A minute's silence in memory of Mrs. Muttart was observed and a dedicatory prayer offered by the vice president, Mrs. McCaull.

Hymn 182, "Oh Word of God Incarnate" was sung, and benediction was pronounced by Mrs. Lowther, after which a lovely lunch was served by Mrs. Harper and the ladies present. The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Leigh Lowther in Carleton.

CLYDE RIVER W. M. S.

The November meeting of the Clyde River Presbyterian W. M. S. was held at the home of Mrs. John Beer.

The president, Mrs. James Beer, presided. Call to Worship was taken from the 20th Psalm, followed with prayer by the president. Theme for the evening was "The Lord will give strength unto His people: The Lord will bless His people with peace." The opening hymn selection was 108 and scripture reading was taken from the 29th Psalm, with each one reading a portion. Prayer was offered by Mrs. Nicholson and hymn 321 then sung. Roll call was answered with a verse of scripture by 16 members. Readings were given by Mrs. Nicholson, Mrs. Louis McLean and Mrs. Keith Young.

Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. A letter was read concerning the Maritime Home for Girls. It was moved and seconded that a contribution of money be sent to help this worthy cause. It was also agreed to re-member Miss Mary McKenzie with a donation for the service which she gave during the visit of Zion W. M. S.

The treasurer gave a very encouraging report on the "Harvest in Thank-offering." The collection taken at this service amounted to $230.00 with some contributions still to come in. A card of Thanks was acknowledged for flowers sent to a recently bereaved family.

The meeting closed by singing hymn 643, and repeating the Mizpah Benediction. Lunch was served and a social hour enjoyed. The next place of meeting was undecided.

CAPE TRAVERSE W. M. S.

The monthly meeting of the Auxiliary of the Women's Missionary Society of the Cape Traverse United Church was held at the home of Mrs. John Haslam of Carleton with president Mrs. Hedley Lowther in the chair.

The theme, "The Season of Birth and Re-Birth" was carried out. A poem was read by the president, Hymn 51, "O Little Town of Bethlehem" was sung, followed by prayer by Mrs. Lowther. Scripture readings St. Luke 2, 8-20 were read by Mrs. Sawyer, and St. Matthew 2, 1-12 by Mrs. Vernon Muttart. Hymn 50, "As With Gladness Men of Old" was then sung and scripture Philipians 2, 5-11 was read by Miss Nora Wright. A season of prayer was then indulged in led by Mrs. Lowther and joined in unison by the members. Hymn 68, "Thou Didst Leave Thy Throne" was sung, followed by the offering which was dedicated by singing "Christians Lo, the Star Appeareth."

The business period then opened with minutes and roll call by the secretary, Mrs. Boyd Lowther. Roll call is to be answered next month with the word "New". Correspondence was then read. Sick calls and cards sent were taken by Mrs. Haslam in absence of Mrs. Hedley Muttart.

A report of the nominating committee was then brought in by Mrs. Ralph McCaull, the chairman, and revealed the same slate of officers for the ensuing year with one exception, that Mrs. Nathan Bell is to be in charge of papers and cards being sent to Trinidad instead of Mrs. Morley Muttart.

A letter was then read by Mrs. Allison Harper regarding prayers for a special missionary which is being suggested. Miss Margaret McHaattie is being added to the list.

The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Hedley Lowther on January 6. A letter was then read by Mrs. Ralph McCaull regarding an appeal for funds for the Maritime Home for Girls in Truro which is inter-denominational, and it was decided to pass the letter on to the president of the Canadian Ladies Aid for their support. A bill of $21.4 was ordered paid for postage for cards and papers sent to Trinidad.

Hymn 602, "We Would See Jesus" was then sung, after which the benediction was pronounced and lunch served by hostess and committee.

CAVENDISH W. M. S.

The annual meeting of the Cavendish Auxiliary of the W. M. S. was held at the home of Mrs. Ernest MacNeill on Wednesday evening, December 10th.

With the president in the chair, the meeting was opened by the Lord's Prayer in unison. Minutes of the November meeting were read and adopted.

Ten members and four visitors responded to roll call by repeating a Scripture verse beginning with "D." A letter was read from Mrs. John Scott, Presbyterian Christian Stewardship secretary, allocating a missionary for special prayer, the one for this society being Mr. Lachlan MacLean.

The treasurer reported that the allocation had been met and exceeded and the balance due the Cavendish section for the United Church Training School had also been attained. The Community Friendship secretary reported 37 home calls, nine hospital calls, and 18 cards sent. The supply secretary reported that a box was ready to be sent to the port worker in Halifax.

The January meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Reginald Simpson when Mrs. Alvah MacNeill will be devotional leader. Roll call will be answered by a New Year message or resolution, and Mrs. Geo. Gough is to offer prayer for the missionary. The lunch committee will be Mrs. W. A. Graham and Mrs. Sterling Stewart.

The minutes of the last annual meeting were read and the nominating committee moved and seconded that this year's slate of officers be re-elected, with Mrs. Sterling Stewart appointed to the office of Community Friendship Secretary.

The president then conducted the beautiful Christmas service as given in the Missionary Monthly — "Christmas the Season of Birth and Re-Birth", assisted by Mrs. Geo. MacCoubrey, Mrs. Sterling Stewart, Mrs. Olaf Stevenson and Mrs. Alfred Moore who read Scripture passages pertaining to the coming of the Christ Child. Suitable hymns were sung with Mrs. Ralph Burdette at the piano, and she also very pleasingly sang "All My Heart This Night Rejoices".

The meeting was closed by repeating verse 4 of "O Little Town of Bethlehem". Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Geo. MacCoubrey and Mrs. Geo. Gough.

ALBERTON W. M. S.

Fifteen members of the Alberton Auxiliary of the W. M. S. met for their Christmas meeting in the United Church Hall on Tuesday afternoon, December 8th. Garland of evergreen clusters of red berries and candles formed a fitting background for the Christmas meeting.
