WE are glad to learn that notwithstanding the opposition of several of the City Councillors, the Fire Brigade of this city will attend the grand Centennial celebration at St. John, N. B., on 18th inst. It will be remembered that after receiving the invitation to attend from the St. John firemen, Chief Large, on behalf of the men, asked the Council for a small grant to help pay their expenses over and back. The Council, after much wrangling, agreed to do this by a majority of one, but Chief Large wisely refused to take one cent, unless the vote was made unanimous. The matter was happily brought to the notice of Mr. Brecken, M. P., at Ottawa, who procured for the men free passes over the Intercolonial and back. We think that the action of the Council in this respect was far from creditable, as the firemen have to work so hard, have to risk their lives on all occasions, for which they receive but little or no compensation. The firemen leave for St. John to-morrow.

THE Diamond Bookstore is now stocked with the choicest lot of Stationery ever imported here. The prices will be found very low. Give a call.

WE have received to-day a nicely bound little book, written by the Rev. John Harris, Bible Christian Minister of this city, entitled "The Life of the Rev. Francis Metherall, and his labors in Prince Edward Island." Mr. Harris has done well in giving to the public the life of such a man as Mr. Metherall, whose broad Christian principles endeared him so much to all with whom he came in contact. After giving a brief description of the condition of the Island previous to Mr. Metherall's arrival, and the difficulties and trials he had to encounter, Mr. Harris enters more minutely into the work and labors of Mr. Metherall himself. The book does not flag the least in interest from beginning to end, and those who desire to acquaint themselves with the earlier history of the Bible Christian Church in this province will read it with profit. The price is only 35 cents. It is for sale at Harvies' Bookstore, or it can be procured from Mr. Harris himself who will mail it to any address on receipt of price.

DIED.

Suddenly, at Clifton, New London, on 7th inst., Mr. Alexander McIntyre, aged 75 years. Mr. McIntyre was one of the oldest residents in that locality, and as a man and a neighbor was much respected by all who knew him for his many sterling qualities.

At Gaspereaux, of erysipelas, April 21st, Angus McKenzie, Esq., in the 73rd year of his age, leaving a large family to mourn the loss of an affectionate husband and kind father. He bore his illness with Christian fortitude till death relieved him of his suffering. His remains were followed to their last resting place, Sturgeon, by a large concourse of sorrowing friends of all denominations, where High Mass was celebrated in St. Paul's Church, by the Rev. J. C. McDonald, P. P. R. I. P.

Some 7,000 people assembled at the Madison Square Garden, on the night of the 14th, to witness the glove contest between Sullivan, champion of America, and Mitchell, introduced as the champion of England. After three rounds Sullivan was declared the winner. The contest was a good one and Mitchell showed good pluck, but was evidently too light for his opponent. The gate receipts amounted to about $10,000; sixty per cent. of which went to the winner and forty per cent. to the loser.

THE
OF THE WORLD.
Mrs. S. A. Allen's
WORLD'S Hair Restorer
IS PERFECTION!

Public Benefactress. Mrs. S. A. ALLEN has justly earned this title, and thousands are this day rejoicing over a fine head of hair produced by her unequaled preparation for restoring, invigorating, and beautifying the Hair. Her World's Hair Restorer quickly cleanses the scalp, removing Dandruff, and arrests the fall; the hair, if gray, is changed to its natural color, giving it the same vitality and luxurious quantity as in youth.

COMPLIMENTARY. "My hair is now restored to its youthful color; I have not a gray hair left. I am satisfied that the preparation is not a dye, but acts on the secretions. My hair ceases to fall, which is certainly an advantage to me, who was in danger of becoming bald." This is the testimony of all who use Mrs. S. A. ALLEN'S WORLD'S HAIR RESTORER.

"One Bottle did it." That is the expression of many who have had their gray hair restored to its natural color, and their bald spot covered with hair, after using one bottle of MRS. S. A. ALLEN'S WORLD'S HAIR RESTORER. It is not a dye.
