MISS MARY A. JENKINS

There passed away at the Livingston and MacArthur Nursing Home on April 16th, 1963, Miss Mary A. Jenkins at the advanced age of 100 years. Although advanced in years her mind and memory were clear to the last.

She was the daughter of John and Harriet Lane Jenkins of Vernon River, born October 10th, 1862, she spent some time in the United States, and while there joined the Tremont Temple Baptist Church of which she was a valued member. In later years she returned to this province and spent some time with her sister Mrs. Locke Jones at Pownal, and later moved to Charlottetown.

"Aunt Mary" as she was affectionately known to everyone, was of fine Christian character, loved and respected by all who knew her. She leaves to mourn two half-sisters Mrs. Nellie Dalrymple and Mrs. Hilda Gould at Freeport, Maine. Three nieces and one nephew reside here Mrs. Cyril Kenny, Summerside, Mrs. Harry Lapthorne, Mrs. Margaret Yeo and Frank Jones of Charlottetown.

Her funeral was held on April 18 from the MacLean Funeral Home and was conducted by Rev. Malcolm F. Harlow of the First Baptist Church who had frequent visits with her. The hymn "Abide With Me" was sung and a solo "Beyond The Sunset", by Eric MacGregor.

Pallbearers were cousins of the deceased Wellington MacNeill, Richard Jenkins, Lodge Lane, Almon Boswall, Almon Wood, and Wilfred Furness.

Flower bearers were nephews, Edgar Jones, Arthur Jones, Arnold Yeo, Harry Lapthorne, Lloyd Osborn.

Her remains were laid to rest in Pownal Cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS

We would like to express our deep appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Livingston, Miss MacArthur and all the nurses at the nursing home for their kindness and devotion to duty while Aunt Mary was a patient there. Also Dr. H.H. Pierce, Dr. and Mrs. Lantz, Rev. Malcolm F. Harlow, Eric MacGregor and management and staff of MacLean Funeral Home, and all kind friends and relatives who sent flowers and helped in other ways.

Frank and Marie Jones.

BRIDGET ANNE LONG

God's Garden must be beautiful,
He picks only the fairest flowers.

As the New Year of 1961 was born, there was born to Mr. and Mrs. Philip Long, Tracadie Cross, a little baby girl. She was christened Bridget Anne and was the youngest of a family of eight girls and two boys. The joy of her birth was dimmed when it was learned that she was suffering from an incurable heart ailment.

On the evening of April 8th, 1963, Bridget Anne had fulfilled her short mission on this earth, and the Angels silently came and took her sure soul back to God, thus ending the undying care and devotion of those who so dearly loved this sweet baby girl.

Bridget Anne received the Sacrament of Confirmation on March 4th, 1962.

She leaves to cherish happy memories, her parents, two brothers Gerard and Johnnie, and seven sisters, Irene, Teresa, Carol, Elaine, Paula, Bernadette and Phyllis.

Her remains were transferred from the Charlottetown Funeral Home on Tuesday, April 9th, to the home of her parents, from where the funeral was held on Wednesday, April 10th, to St. Bonaventure Church, where the service was conducted by Rev. K.C. MacMillan.

Pallbearers were, Frederick Power, Robert Mannis, Maurice McQuaid and Brendon Fitzgerald.

Interment was in the church cemetery.
