

Strange But True

By F. H. MacArthur
Although Columbus did set sail on his successful voyage of discovery on a Friday, nearly all seafaring men hold to the old superstition that Friday is an unlucky day on which to embark.

During the 17th century the British Admiralty had no end of trouble to order the demoralization of the Friday sailings caused among the Navy personnel.

When James Rusden, of Melbourne, Australia, won 100 pounds in a lottery he decided to spend the money on a holiday to his native town of Marlon in New Zealand.

This sign adorns the wall of a barber shop in Buffalo, N. Y. "On Saturdays Children's haircuts until 12. Only adults clipped in the afternoon."

The first kilts made in Scotland were made from unsewn pieces of tartan, two yards wide and six yards long.

In fond and loving memory of Mrs. Miner MacNevin, who passed away October 25th, 1944.

Perhaps if we could see The splendour of that land, To which our loved ones are called from you and me We'd understand.

Perhaps if we would hear The welcome they receive From old familiar voices, oh so dear, We should not grieve.

Richard-Anderson Wedding

A wedding of local interest took place recently at St. Bernard's Roman Catholic Church, Moncton, N.B., when Gloria Jean Marie Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Anderson of Toronto, Ont., and Melvin Edward Richard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Richard, Humphrey, N. B., and formerly of Charlottetown, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony.

Given in marriage by Henry Bourgeois of Moncton, the bride wore a waltz-length gown of white tulle and lace with a fingertip veil of silk illusion which was caught to a matching Juliet cap with white side feathers.

Her attendant, Miss Marion McGinn of Toronto, wore a similar waltz-length gown of golden yellow organza and carried a nosegay of white, yellow and bronze baby nuns.

The reception was held at the home of the groom's parents. The couple left on a honeymoon to Quebec City and Chateau-Lac-Beauport in the Laurentians.

years in a human being. I saw this dog on my last visit to the Canadian West in 1947. The animal looked real old but was still able to eat its food and bring home the milk cows.

There is a wide-spread belief that twin children possess magical powers over nature, especially the rain and weather.

Though absent you are always near Still missed, still loved and ever dear.

Sadly Missed by Myrtle, Ernest and Eliza.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Mrs. Alex MacDonald, Murray River, who passed away October 26, 1948.

We often sit and think of you, And think of how you died, To think we could not say good-bye Before you closed your eyes.

The pain was hard, the shock severe, We never thought your death so near, And only those who have lost can tell The pain of parting without farewell.

Sadly missed by husband and family.

Murder Victim's Funeral Held

LEVIS, Que. (CP)—As a bugler sounded The Last Post, Marie-Anne Carrier, 21-year-old victim of a lovers' quarrel, was buried Thursday near her father in near-by Lauzon cemetery.

The girl's nude, stabbed body was found last week in a ditch near Iroquois, Ont.

A hushed crowd of more than 4,000 persons lined the narrow streets of nearby Bienville as Miss Carrier's satin-lined, oak casket was borne to the cemetery under a bright, cloudless sky.

The coffin was borne in a black horse and was followed by a landeau of flowers. Walking in the funeral procession were active members of the Army, No. 103 Manning Depot, a Reserve Army unit in which Marie-Anne was a sergeant, and the girl's seven brothers.

who sang prior to the ceremony "Where 'Ere You Walk" and during the signing of the registrar "Entreat Me Not To Leave Thee."

The home of the bride's parents was the setting for a wedding reception where a tiered cake centered the bride's table. Mr. Hansell proposed the bridal toast to which the groom responded.

Leaving on a wedding trip to Jasper the bride wore a grey wool suit with black and white accessories. Gardienas formed her corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholson will take up residence in Cincinnati, Ohio, where the bride and groom will continue with studies at the Cincinnati Bible Seminary.

Mr. Nicholson is a graduate of Alberta Bible College, where he received a degree in Sacred Literature, B.S.L. The bride is a graduate of the Juilliard School of Music, New York, where she received her M.T.C., L.R.S.M.
