BYE ELECTIONS.

Whatever may be the result of the bye-elections to be held on the 14th of December, the public mind will in the meantime be occupied with such questions as: What has the country gained by turning the Conservatives out and putting the Liberals in? Are the public expenditures reduced? Is taxation less? Are we all growing rapidly rich as a result of Free Trade with the world? Are we rejoicing in the extension of promised railways and the construction of breakwaters, piers and other needed public works? In short, are we, as predicted by Sir Louis Davies, "going ahead by leaps and bounds" now that we have a Liberal Government controlled by Quebec and headed by Laurier and Tarte?

Conditions throughout the world, and particularly in Canada, have ever since the Liberals gained power made for prosperity. By means of the C. P. R., and other facilities provided by the Conservatives, we have been enabled to develop our recently discovered gold mines and our immense productive prairie and to take advantage of the rise in the price of wheat. For the prosperity accruing from these sources our thanks are due to the Conservatives, and not to the Liberals. Then, what have the Liberals done? They sent the Petrel among us and reduced, somewhat, the curve on the line of railway at North Wiltshire. But they have neglected the promised Summerside harbor improvements and the promised Belfast Murray Harbor Railway, while they have extended a third line into Montreal, which was not needed, and provided for the construction of a branch railway through the Crow's Nest Pass,—incidentally making the Globe newspaper a wealthy corporation. But, after all, we find it difficult to account for an increase of the public expenditures amounting to nearly $10,000,000 a year,—in the face of Sir Wilfrid's distinct promise that there would be an annual reduction of $3,000,000 or $4,000,000. Evidently the Government is beyond the mark of Sir Wilfrid's pre-election speeches to the extent of $13,000,000 or $14,000,000. Nor can the difference be accounted for by the Ministers' use of palace cars. Then there is the N. P. and high taxation. These are as vigorous as ever—though Sir Louis and his friends promised positively, before the elections, that Protection would be eradicated and taxation materially reduced. On the strength of this promise, the Liberal party obtained many a vote in East Prince and elsewhere; and the question now is, what will the electors do about it? More taxes than ever are being taken out of the pockets of the people,—the prices of almost every article of consumption is as high, in some cases it is much higher, than before. With the exception of Mr. W. C. Hobkirk and a few others who have been fortunate in their struggle for office, we see no one who is getting rich. The position of our farmers, at large, is only a little worse than it was when the Conservatives held office. Our public debt is increasing. The people's expectations have not been realized. The results of Liberal government have been disappointing to the country,—and it may be taken for granted that the country will at the first good opportunity bounce the government and take away from the "Masters of the Administration" their malific power. Whether or not it will be deemed expedient, in the coming bye-elections to give the government a foretaste of its fate at the next general election remains to be seen.

Concerning the Decreasing Exports.

LONDON, Nov. 26.—Right Hon. Charles T. Ritchie, President of the Board of Trade, discussing the subject of British trade before the Croydon Chamber of Commerce this evening, said he regretted to have to confess that the exports for the year ending with October had decreased £2,000,000, chiefly through the alteration in the United States tariff.

"Although," said Mr. Ritchie, "we are gradually making up the leeway, it is impossible to help a feeling of anxiety.

"Although we ought not to be surprised that we are being so rapidly overhauled in exports by other nations, especially by the United States and Germany, it is a regrettable fact that while, since 1891, the exports of the United States have increased 18 per cent, Great Britain's exports have decreased 5 per cent."

It is stated that the Government has made a contract with the Krupps for the construction of a large floating dock for Kian-Chau.

Blanco's Zeal Eulogized.

MADRID, Nov. 26.—In the decree accepting the resignation of Marshal Blanco as Captain-General of Cuba, the Queen Regent eulogizes the "zeal, intelligence, and loyalty" with which he has fulfilled his functions.

—Our fame is spreading. The Boston Herald of the 21st inst., says: "The people of Prince Edward Island, in order to add to their revenue, impose a tax of $15 upon every drummer who sells a bill of goods in that island. The intent is doubtless to make a portion of the outside world bear some of the burdens of the island government, but in practice it is simply taking money from one pocket and putting it in another. If the seller pays the tax, which he evades when possible, he simply increases the price of his goods proportionately. Thus the consumer ultimately pays the tax."

Carlyle Silences a Watchman.

After several visits in Scotland during the summer of 1898, Carlyle went home again to Scotsbrig, writes Charles T. Copeland in The Atlantic. On his return thence he spent a few days in Manchester with Mrs. Hanning. "He had been put to sleep in an old bed, which he remembered in his father's house." "I was just closing my senses in sweet oblivion," wrote he, "when the watchman, with a voice like the deepest groan of the highland bagpipe or what an ostrich corneraik might utter, groaned out 'Groo-o-o-o!' close under me and set me all in a gallop again. 'Groo-o-o-o!' for there was no articulate announcement at all in it, that I could gather. 'Groo-o-o-o!' repeated again and again at various distances, dying out and then growing loud again for an hour or more.

"I grew impatient, bolted out of bed, flung up the window. 'Groo-o-o-o!' There he was, advancing, lantern in hand, a few yards off me. 'Can't you give up that noise?' I hastily addressed him. 'You are keeping a person awake. What good is it to go howling and groaning all night and deprive people of their sleep?' He ceased from that time—at least I heard no more of him. No watchman, I think, has been more astonished for some time back."

English Children and Negroes.

The negro is not so well known as one might expect, considering that geography is widely and often excellently taught in our primary schools. The ideas most frequently expressed concerning him are that he is black and a foreigner.

Here are some of the definitions: "A black man who lives in India." "A dark man who comes from America." "A negro is a slave we read of them in 'Uncle Tom's Cabin.'" "A gentleman who lives in a foreign country."

The country children are even more lively in their descriptions than the town children: "A negro is a foreign man with black skin all over him with thick lips and curly black hair he goes naked."

"A negro is a man and they live in a very hot country and they have little huts to live in." "A negro is a black man who acts in a circus."

"A negro is a man whose skin is always black, they are strong and they live in huts, and do not wear clothes and they shoot with a bow." "A negro is a man what eats missionaries." The Sunday school missionary stories and the traveling circus color the village children's ideas on negroes.—National Review.

Glycerin and Foreordination.

A glycerin man in conversation with a reporter the other day said that the majority of those who are engaged in the business of shooting wells believe in foreordination. "I think that a man will not die till his time comes," he said. "A man is liable to die at any calling, no matter how safe it may be considered. He will pass through all kinds of dangers and never sustain the slightest injury. Then he is knocked out of existence when he least expects it.

"Glycerin men have to be quite nery, but there is not one of them who does not feel that he is in no great danger. They think they will live out their allotted time and will not be blown up until the predestined event is due. We are handling death every day and know it, but by the exercise of caution and common sense there are but few of us comparatively that are killed. The railroad men are much more liable to accidental death than glycerin men are."—Bradford (Pa.) Era.

Cheerful Antipodean Truth Teller.

An ex-sea captain, now living in Sydney, many years ago was in charge of a ship carrying some convicts. The convicts mutinied, murdered the crew and ordered the captain to navigate them to the islands, and, being a prudent man, he did so. When satisfied as to their course, the convicts deliberated, decided that he had behaved himself well and put him ashore on the first large island they came to. He was a musician and took his violin with him. A threatening crowd of savages greeted his arrival, but Orpheus played to them till they thought him a god, brought him unlimited pigs and yams and bowed in adoration. Finally he married the chief's daughter, succeeded him and ruled the island for years, till a ship called in and he sailed away.—Sydney Bulletin.

is cut and tailored in the best style, sewn with linen thread and gives your boy just that appearance you would most desire.

It is a mistake to associate style with high prices. It does not cost any more to cut a garment to fit than to cut it badly.

It is sold by all up-to-date dealers and has a Shorey's Guarantee Card in one of the pockets of each garment which means Satisfaction or your money back. See that you get Shorey's make and take no other.

Warning... $100 REWARD

It has come to our knowledge that certain persons, for the purpose of helping off their unsaleable stock of clothing, have taken our guarantee cards from the pockets of garments of our make and have put them in the pockets of other goods of inferior make, thus leading the purchaser to believe he was getting Shorey's clothing and thereby damaging our reputation.

We therefore wish to give notice to our customers and the public, that we will prosecute, to the full rigour of the law, any one whom we can prove to have done this, and we will pay a reward of $100.00 to the person who will give us sufficient evidence to convict any dealer of this offence.
