Libera Speaker Sees Farm Loss

Strongly opposing the suggestion in the Speech from the Throne that the farming industry had given a favorable return last year, George Ferguson (L) St. Johns, yesterday told the Legislature farm income here was down $28,000 from 1961 as he rose in the House to take part in the draft address debate.

Mr. Ferguson insisted farmers would not agree with the Speech statement and said "since this government took over the farmer is going further behind each year."

He asked assurance that no waste would be dumped into the Montague River from the proposed new processing plant, and said he questioned the value to the farmer of these plants. While they could be good for the overall economy, he stated, more protection was needed for the growers. "These plants are established at government expense," he said, "and the government should make every effort to protect the farmer."

PICKERSGILL PRAISED

Critical of the setting up of the Atlantic Development Board, he feared it might become just another "investigating board" which would simply file reports. What is needed, the speaker said, is a plan for capital projects for the Atlantic region. He thanked J. W. Pickersgill, Liberal M.P. from Bonaville-Wellington, for calling attention of Parliament to the fact that the proposed causeway across the Northumberland Strait should not be listed as second on the Development Board's list behind the Chincotee Canal project.

He said the subject was not

ROBINS ARRIVE

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Weatherlie, Valleyfield, feel quite confident that spring has arrived. On Monday they were pleasantly surprised with a visit to their lawn of a number of robins. Two other calls were received at the Montague office of The Guardian Patriot, Tuesday telling of the arrival of robins to Montague.

Bank Managers Honored At Spial

The annual curling bospital of the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce held at Amherst, over the past weekend, was the occasion for a special presentation to the Island managers on their approaching retirement.

Harold M. Smith, manager of the Montague Branch and Sinclair D. Reid, Summersville Branch were each presented with appropriate gifts from their friends in the Atlantic region.

Acadia Professor Preached Sermon

MONTAGUE — M.R. Cherry, professor of Systematic Theology at the School of Theology, Acadia University, Wolfville, N.S., was guest speaker at the services of the Churches of the United Baptist pastorate Sunday.

While in Montague he was the guest of Rev. A.G.J. Steeves and Mrs. Steeves. Prof. Cherry also spoke at Dundas Sunday evening. He was one of several professors of the school of theology visiting the Island churches over the weekend. Others were: Dr. E.M. Whittam, dean of theology; Prof. Charles Taylor, teacher of pastoral clinical theology; and Dr. Earl Merrick, former missionary in Bolivia.

Bridge Club Holds Session

Lt. Col. W.J. MacDonald teamed up with Mrs. Frank MacMillan to capture the mixed pairs championship at Monday night's session of the Charlottetown Duplicate Bridge Club.

The annual tournament had 23 teams in competition for the trophy and competition was very close for the top position.

Dr. Doug MacDonald and Mrs. Benjamin Rogers took second place and Dr. Leo Killam and Mrs. Robert King were third, a shade better than Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Sem, in fourth place.

Following are the top 12 teams, with percentage totals:
