Prince County Kicks Off Safe Driving Road-e-o

The Prince County teenage driving Road-e-o will be held in Summerside today with drivers from all over Prince County participating.

The Road-e-os, which are sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, have produced some very good contestants who have done well in regional and national competitions. Last year, John Andrew of East Royalty was second in the regional and third in the Dominion. He collected a bonus of $500 worth of Christmas prizes.

The Queens and Kings county Road-e-os will be held in Charlottetown on Saturday May 23. The written test will be held at PWC at 9 a.m. and the practical driving test at Queen Charlotte High School. The Road-e-o has been advertised in high schools all over the province and applications are available at schools, Sean Hebray's Hobby shop or the YMCA.

TRI-SCHOOL SPEAKING AWARDS PRESENTED

Tri-school public speaking and spelling competitions were staged at Miscouche Regional High School Thursday night. Competing were students from Kirkcrae Regional High, Miscouche Regional High and Evangeline Regional High, Abram's Village. Dr. J. A. Dorion, president of the public speaking judges, presented a souvenir centennial pen and congratulates public speaking winner Earl Arsenault of Miscouche. Looking on in it to students, Gerald MacDougall, Virginia MacDonald and Leona Fougere.

Hit And Run Demolishes Vehicle

The Summerside detachment of the RCMP is investigating a hit and run accident which occurred approximately 8:30 last night at Lecky's Hill, a short distance from Summerside on Highway 14.

An unidentified vehicle hit a 1963 model car driven by Ronald Rogers of Charlottetown, causing the Rogers vehicle to overturn a number of times. The driver wasn't injured.

The Rogers vehicle was almost completely demolished.

Community Has Party For Halupas

ALBERTON — Alberton's Hungarian family, the Halupas, were honored Wednesday evening at a open house party in the United Church hall.

The evening was planned by the community to express its joy in the family reunion which took place recently. After more than seven years separation, Mr. and Mrs. Halupa were reunited with their two sons, Josef and Frank, and Mrs. Sabo, Mrs. Halupa's mother.

Several active games in which the children could participate with the adults, were followed by a singing led by Mrs. Gary Black with Miss Anne Leard as pianist.

In an informal address, Rev. Gerald Steele expressed to the Halupa family the warm feeling of friendship and of Christian love that the people of the community have for them. It was symbolized in a gift of money which he presented on behalf of residents of the Alberton area.

Ernest Touseand spoke briefly.

Mr. and Mrs. Halupa both expressed their deep appreciation of this friendly gesture. Refreshments were served by the ladies.

SPECIAL PRIZE was awarded to a special recognition that a "special recognition" award would be made to C.W. Justice, Churchill, who was 102 yesterday. Mr. Justice was born in the town of Cherry Valley area is living with Daniel Lambert and his wife who is Mr. Justice's granddaughter at Churchill. The essay was written by Mrs. Lambert and dictated by Mr. Justice.

The committee felt that it was an unusual honor to have a centenarian competing. The award decided on was $25.

All of the cheques will be mailed out in the near future from the Centennial office, Mrs. Kipping announced.

It is also expected that the centennial manuscripts will be put on display in the archives section of the Fathers of Confederation Memorial complex when it is opened later this year, so they can be read by visitors as well as by Islanders.

J. Lincoln Dewar, chairman of the Centennial committee on agriculture and home, and er which the Essay committee operates, presented a souvenir silver medallion to the judges following the selection of prize winners. The judges were: Mrs. Harold Laird, Kingston; Leo MacDougall, principal of Birchwood High School and Neil A. Matheson, principal and farm editor of the Guardian-Patriot. Other members of the cen-
