IN MEMORIAM

ARSENAULT—In fond and loving memory of Arthur Arsenault who passed away Sept. 5, 1953. Always remembered by wife.

HARDING—In loving memory of our mother, Mrs. Josephine Harding, who passed away, Sept. 5, 1956.

We little knew when we awoke that morn,
The sorrows the day would bring,
The call was sudden, the shock severe
To part with one we loved so dear

Sometimes it's hard to understand
Why some things have to be,
But in His wisdom God has planned
Beyond our power to see.

God gave us strength to fight it
And courage to bear the blow;
But what it means to lose you,
Dear,

No one will ever know,
Lovingly remembered by daughter
Lilla and Anna, and family.

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to take this opportunity to thank my friends and neighbors of Dunstaffray who tendered me a weiner fry at Dalvey, and presented me with a painting. It shall always be treasured with deep sincerity
Florence and Sol Galant.

Nine Nominated For By-Election

MONTREAL (CP)—The Liberals and the Union Nationale party nominated four candidates each and the CCF one Wednesday to set the stage for by-elections in four Quebec provincial constituencies Sept. 18.

The by-elections will be the first test of party strength since the 1956 general election when Premier Duplessis' Union Nationale party was returned to office with an overwhelming majority.

The seats at stake are Compton, Chateaugay, Megantic and Vaudreuil-Soulanges, left vacant by the deaths of legislative assembly members — one Liberal and three UN.

The Compton by-election will be a fight between Liberal Paul Paquin and Claude-Gilles Gosselin, Union Nationale. The death of Dr. Fabien Gagnon, Liberal, created the vacancy.

Joseph-Andre-Antoine Bourdon, Liberal, and Joseph - Maurice-Henri Laberge, Union Nationale, will fight it out for the Chateaugay seat which was held by Arthur Laberge, Union Nationale.

Nominated in Megantic were Joseph-Emile Fortin, Union Nationale, Pierre-Joseph-Emile Mahoux, Liberal. The late Hon. Tancred Labbe, minister without portfolio, had held it.

The CCF party named Antoine Giguere to contest Vaudreuil-Soulanges against Liberal Paul Gerin-Lajoie and Loyola Schmidt. The death of Joseph - Edouard Jennotte, Union Nationale, created the vacancy.
