The first early farming done in this section of Prince County was the planting of an acre of Early Laurentian turnips by two enterprising farmers of this district. They manured and fertilized the ground and drilled it up on Friday, April 10th and sowed the seed on April 11th. These live wire farmers, Mr. Walter Bell and Mr. Olga Sorenson of Tryon, have followed this procedure for years and it has paid off well for them. Last year they shipped some eight hundred bushels of turnips to the acre at a dollar a bushel in early August. These turnips are produced for the Boston market.

Since the mild weather set in and the country rinks have closed up, the theatres have been drawing the crowds from this section, and a number of the amusement

German Immigrants Arrive In S'side

Six German immigrants arrived in Summerside last evening at 6 P.M. to begin life in Canada. The six young men will be working on farms in Chelton, Middleton, Kinkora, and Park Corner.

The farmers were on hand to greet the new immigrants, and Charles Hogan of the National Employment Commission welcomed the six immigrants and completed details incidental to their contracts with the farmers.

A number of Summerside citizens in the station when the men arrived admired the very fine luggage owned by the men, as well as fine high topped leather shoes worn by some of the men.

The men appeared to have only a very limited English vocabulary, but seemed determined in their desire to understand the conversation made in English by those present.

Each man will, if mutual satisfaction between both immigrant and farmer prevails, remain under contract with him for a period of one year.

Before separating from each other each man secured the new address of each other, and doubtless their greatest pleasure in their first few weeks on Prince Edward Island will be in visiting each other and carrying on a conversation in their familiar native German language.

The six men are: Walter Seibt who is employed by Roy Campbell, Chelton; Ludwig Meuser, who is employed by Melbourne Wright, Middleton; Heinrich Janke, who is employed by John M. Mulligan, Kinkora; Friedrich Lachner, who is employed by Peter D. McIvor, Kinkora; Friedrich Huettinger, who is employed by James T. Campbell, Park Corner; Josef Wenberger, who is employed by Aden Mulligan, Kinkora.

Security Problem

Capt. George Vanner, 25, of Toronto, who was three days within the Commonwealth tent in Freedom Village, was interviewed Thursday by The Canadian Press in the presence of Lieut. Dan Loomis of Ottawa, aide-de-camp to divisional commander Maj.-Gen. Y. Gauthier, Quebec, both of whom have seen most Commonwealth prisoners.

They said that as far as they could see, the prisoners have all been well treated within the limits of Chinese capabilities. There is no evidence of rough treatment, although there is some vitamin deficiency. As far as death marches are concerned, we must remember the Chinese move all their own troops on foot.

Such is the divergence of accounts that one U. S. censor even told The Canadian Press that the Chinese accorded different treatment to Commonwealth prisoners compared with the Americans. Yet six British prisoners came Wednesday from camp No. 1 at Chong-sung, where 800 American and 600 Commonwealth men are housed, and said all were treated alike.

When a British security officer said he was responsible for the security enforced on all Commonwealth prisoners, consternation was caused by this correspondent's rejoinder that Ottawa instructed that all correspondents have the same access to Canadian prisoners as to U. S. prisoners if medically able to be interviewed.

Little Information Expected The value of evidence to come from a Canadian who will be handed over Friday will be governed by a briefing administered in that before an interview.

If the interview is like Thursday's with the Australians, who sought approval before answering the most innocuous questions, there may be little information despite Ottawa's policy.

This dispatch was written before a date exchange. Until now little union is obvious in the United Nations' interpretations of security directives. Censorship in this theatre is in U. S. hands, and U. S. censors are present to guide all American prisoner interviews. Once an answer is given, a censor doesn't stop questions.

To place matters on an even footing, reporters feel U. S. censors, not British security officers, should similarly officiate at Commonwealth interviews.

Miss Doreen Ellis of Springfield has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Wood at Howlan for a few days.

Miss Frances Arsenault is now employed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alban D. Arsenault.

Miss Shirley Richard came from O'Leary on Friday night, April 17th, to spend the week end with her cousin, Grace Arsenault.

Mr. and Mrs. Felix Arsenault of Woodstock spent Thursday evening, April 16th, as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alban D. Arsenault.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Gallant and son Alban motored to Fortune Cove on Thursday night, April 16th.

Mrs. Eddie Gallant and family spent Friday, April 17th, at her old home in Plusville.

Miss Freda MacMillan, who recently visited at the home of her sister, Mrs. Clayton Carruthers at Howlan, has now returned to her home in West Cape.

The teacher, Mrs. Ruby Thompson, went to her home in Plusville by train on Friday, April 17th, where she spent the week end.

Friends and relatives of Mrs. Prosper Gallant of Duvar were surprised to hear of her sudden illness on Sunday, April 12th after attending mass at St. Anthony's. Her friends hope that she will soon be well again.

Urges Gov't

Continued from page 1 time, this was not the solution to the problem. The Nova Scotia apple industry was in the "most vulnerable" position. The Annapolis Valley industry had been revolutionized, partly through government help and partly through efforts of growers. It had a geographic advantage but it needed a steady export market.

No Apples To Britain Mr. Nowlan said that last year not a single box of Nova Scotia apples had been sold to Britain. Trade Minister Howe interrupted to say that 706,000 bushels of Canadian apples were sold to Britain last year. He presumed that if no Nova Scotia apples had been sold in that market that the American price was better.

Mr. Nowlan said it had happened the U. S. crop last year had been small but that exports from the Annapolis Valley were still dwindling.

Mr. Nowlan also asked Mr. Howe to tell the House later of what "concrete steps" had resulted from his South American visit. Trade with South America, he said, has never been as satisfactory as it might be.

Work Of Divorce

Continued from page 1 The committee renewed the recommendation it has made at each session since 1950 that it "regrets that Parliament has not seen fit to solve the problem of parliamentary divorce by setting up suitable courts or tribunals before which the numerous cases from Quebec and Newfoundland could be heard."

"It is to be hoped that something will be done in that regard in the near future."

As in previous years, wives outnumbered husbands in applying for divorces by 186 to 96. Last year the figures were 224 and 80, respectively.

Divorce Figures In general divorce declined in Canada from 1947 to 1951 but last year six of the 10 provinces showed increases.

Divorces in British Columbia increased last year to 1,532 from 1,339; Alberta to 630 from 589; Quebec to 309 from 290; Nova Brunswick to 200 from 156; Nova Scotia to 188 from 187.

Manitoba with the fourth highest divorce rate showed a decline last year to 338 from 361; Saskatchewan dropped to 223 from 226; Prince Edward Island with the ninth highest rate dropped to 116 from 101, and Newfoundland with the lowest rate dropped to three from four.

"DENVER AND RIO GRANDE" OPENS TODAY AT CAPITOL, SUMMERSIDE

An explosive chapter in the history of pioneer railroading, which has been revamped in the interests of drama, filmed in vivid Technicolor and performed by a highly competent cast, will be on view at the Capitol Theatre today and tomorrow when Paramount's "Denver & Rio Grande" begins its run.

With Edmond O'Brien, Sterling Hayden, Dean Jagger, Laura Elliot and Lyle Bettger starred, this fast-moving thriller mixes sweeping spectacle and violent action as it spotlights the desperate struggle between two railroads fighting for the single right of way from Denver to the West.

The time is the 1870's and the two competing companies are the D&R.G. of the title and the Canyon City and San Juan line. Though the former road has a clear-cut right to the dangerous pass through the Royal Gorge, the hired cut-throats of the Canyon City try intimidation, vandalism and then wholesale murder to block the D&R.G.'s way.

The bitter conflict, the resulting train wrecks and the surprising final outcome are played against the individual drama of courageous men and women risking their lives to forge a railroad across the Rockies.
