

MAKES PROGRESS WITH CHURCH EXTENSION

Work is progressing rapidly on the Trinity United Church extension project, which is being done by the M. F. Schurman Co. Ltd. Approximately 40 feet is to be added to the present church building, with provision in the basement for nine additional Sunday School classrooms, as well as a fireproof furnace room in which a new furnace will be installed. Complete new pews are to be installed in the present church building and when the extension is completed, approximately 250 additional seats will be available to the congregation. The project will cost nearly $100,000. (Guardian Photo)
