Delicate Problem Arising In French Colonial Fight

(By Norman Altstedter)
UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., Oct. 26—(CP)—The non-colonial Western Allies are in a tough spot in the United Nations fight between France and the Arab-Asian countries which demand independence for the French protectorates of Tunisia and Morocco.

That France will walk out of the committee if it takes any action on the issues is expected by many delegates. Some Frenchmen put the problem as bluntly as a choice between the U. N. and the protectorates.

Crowning Ceremony Concludes Industrial Fair Activities

Honours and dollars were bestowed on Mr. J. D. Coffin of Souris when he was heralded and proclaimed "Potato King" of the Province and presented with a suitably engraved silver plate, by the Provincial Department of Agriculture and a cheque for $50 by the Trade and Industry Fair sponsors on Saturday night.

The presentation was made by Hon. C. C. Baker, Minister of Agriculture who congratulated the winner on his achievement in the face of such stiff competition as was provided by "the best potato growers in the world." A cleverly executed crown, depicting the origin of the award, was then placed by Miss Lockhart.

Fun and merriment was rampant among the capacity attendance at this the fourth and final evening of entertainment.

Little Deaf Mute Safe After 18 Hours In Woods

BRACEBRIDGE, Ont., Oct. 26—(CP)—Patsy Temple, five-year-old deaf mute, was found safe Saturday after spending 18 hours alone in rugged bushland.

The little blonde girl, dressed in short coat and overalls, was found at 7 a.m. huddled between two rocks in the bear-infested woods two miles from her home near this summer resort town. She wandered from the farm of Mrs. A. Harbridge, where she lives as a ward of the Children's Aid Society.

Pilot Lands When Motor Quits During Take-off

ROME, Oct. 26—(AP)—Britain's record-smashing Comet jet airliner roared down the runway at Ciampino Airport tonight, lifted a foot or two off the ground and then crunched back to earth in a 120-mile-an-hour belly landing.

All 42 persons aboard escaped injury. All fled from the plane without excitement or panic.

The plane was badly damaged. Its four jets dug into the ground and held the craft back, averting a possible disaster. A drizzle was pelting the field at the time, and the airliner, plowing through mud, stopped less than 10 yards from a heavy fence.

C. H. G. Kent, an official to the British Overseas Airways Corporation, which operates the jet, said the cause of the mishap has not yet been determined. The end of the runway at Ciampino, just outside Rome, was said to have been foggy at the time.

It was the first accident reported for the Comet, the four-engined jet craft whose record-shattering passenger flights have won her acclaim as queen of the air.

Engine Went Dead

Airport officials quoted the pilot, Capt. R. E. Foot, as saying one of his four engines went dead just after his plane became airborne. He decided to land immediately.

One of the plane's wheels was thrown six yards away. The end of the left wing was snapped off, the left side of the rudder was shattered and one of the right wing ailerons was partially stove in.

All the passengers remained in their seats until the stewardess reassured them there was no danger of fire. The stewardess, Margaret Williams of Pontypool, England, was commended by all passengers for "remarkable coolness."

Mrs. Kevin Hayes, wife of a judge of the high court at Khartoum, Sudan, said "magnificent coolness" of the pilot and other crew members probably averted a serious crash.

The Comet completed its first five-stop trip to Johannesburg last May in 16 hours, 35 minutes actual flying time. The return was made in 16 hours, 56 minutes.

This shaved more than one-third off the flying time for four-engine propeller-driven airlines making the London-Johannesburg run.

Red Night Probes May Forecast Heavy Attacks

SEOUL, Oct. 27—(Monday)—(AP)—Chinese Communists jabbed lightly at Allied positions along top blood-soaked Sniper Ridge and Triangle Hill on the Korean central front Sunday night in a possible prelude for new Red attacks on both dominant heights.

Farther east, 450 to 600 North Korean troops stabbed suddenly at Heartbreak Ridge for the first time in several months. Allied defenders hurled the Reds back in an 80-minute clash.

The North Korean communique claimed heavy western front fighting last week at Little Gibraltar Hill, west of Chorwon.

That, of course, is Communist propaganda, the spokesman said. "We haven't got the final figures on the casualties for publication yet, but I am certain they are nowhere near that number."

ian frontier. Allied fighter-bombers pummeled communist front line positions all day long and smashed at a large Red troop concentration on the Haeju peninsula, in Western Korea. Pilots estimated 50 buildings were destroyed.

The U. S. Eighth Army said fighting slowed down along the hotly-contested hill sections north of Kumhwa on the central front Sunday, for the first time in 13 days of heavy action.

However, the Red probes at night usually are indicators of a brewing attack.

Is Seriously Injured In Hunting Accident

The first reported hunting accident of the season Saturday sent Charles McInnis, Cherry Valley, to the City Hospital here with gunshot wounds in the head and chest. He is reported in a serious condition.

With a companion, Mr. William Praught, Cherry Valley, Mr. McInnis was hunting for ducks a short distance from the turn at Cherry Valley when his fellow hunter discharged his shotgun at a distance variously estimated at from 40 to 75 yards. It was reported that Mr. McInnis received approximately 50 pellets in his head and body.

He was reported as considerably improved yesterday but his condition is expected to be critical for some days. Mr. McInnis is a teller in the Bank of Montreal here. He joined the Bank staff approximately a year ago.

Mr. Dupasquiere Re-Elected By Shorthorn Breeders Ass'n

For the fourth consecutive year, Mr. John Dupasquiere of Forest Hill was elected President of the Shorthorn Breeders Association at their annual meeting, which took place in the recreation room at City Hall on Saturday night. Mr. A. H. Mutch, Earnsccliffe was also signally honoured by being elected Secretary for the fourth time.

A resolution was unanimously adopted calling upon the Provincial Department of Agriculture to reduce the number of cows to be ranged by a one-year old bull, from 60 to 40, in order to qualify for the bonus granted by the Department. The conclusion was reached after considerable discussion without a dissenting voice, that such a change would be of great benefit to the cattle industry in many areas.

The President's address expressed regret at the recession caused by the foot-and-mouth disease epidemic, and its effect on the American market. He was confident that the embargo against Canadian cattle would be lifted shortly after the presidential election.

Winnipeg Mayor Is Re-elected

WINNIPEG, Oct. 26—(CP)—Mayor Garnet Coulter Saturday was officially declared re-elected for his sixth two-year term on completion of counting of ballots from Wednesday's civic election.

Final standing was: Coulter 45,015; Stephen Juba 33,443. Donovan Swallows was eliminated on the first count and the lengthy count resulted from transfer of his second-choice ballots in the city's transferable vote system.

Mr. Juba gave the Mayor an expected close run. He advocated mixed drinking in Winnipeg where beer parlors are only for men.

He said he might seek a recount of ballots in one of the city's three wards.

U. N. Delegates Await Reply To Peace Appeal

(By Norman Altstedter)
UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., Oct. 26—(CP)—United Nations delegates today waited the Russian reply to an appeal by 21 countries for a Korean armistice. The reply could be the key to the deadlocked truce talks.

The hope is that Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky of Russia will speak Monday before the General Assembly's political committee. But he had given no indication up to tonight when he will reply to the address Friday by State Secretary Dean Acheson of the United States in which he presented the appeal co-sponsored by 21 countries including Canada. Acheson had urged Russia as the organizer and controller of the North Korean aggression. It is Vishinsky's job to try to answer the charges—an answer which delegates believe could start resumption of the truce talks in Panmunjom.

Demand Turned Down

Saturday, the assembly, for the third straight year, turned down the Russian demand to unseat the Nationalist Chinese delegation and replace them with representatives of Communist China. The vote was 42 to 9 with nine abstentions to adopt the credentials committee report which banned further discussion at this session about the Chinese U. N. Seat. Burma, India, Israel and Sweden joined the Soviet bloc in opposing this move.

Colombia, Lebanon and Denmark were elected Saturday to the Security Council replacing Turkey, the Netherlands and Brazil for two-year terms. The Big Five powers are permanent members of the council and six countries are non-permanent members.

Five countries were elected quickly to fill six seats also becoming vacant Jan. 1 in the economic and social council—Australia, United States, India, Turkey and Venezuela. Canada goes off the council after two successive two-year terms.

U. S. sources disclosed Saturday that Russia has turned a deaf ear to behind-the-scenes U. S. pleas during the last eight months for a Korean armistice.

U. S. delegates at the U. N. had talked informally to Russian spokesmen "at least two or three times" to try to get some clue to their thinking on a Korean armistice, U. S. spokesmen said. But there had been no results.

On the final count, Mr. Hansford had 4,327 votes compared with 3,757 for Mr. MacLean and 2,611 for veteran Councillor Paul Marton. About 56 per cent of the electorate voted.

Revolt Feared In Kenya As Natives Flee To Jungle drive the white man out of this British colony.

In an effort to head off the movement police set up posts in the Aberdare foothills and warned the gathering tribesmen against rash action.

A government spokesman said at least 1,000 Kikuyu tribesmen have gone to the 13,500-foot mountains of Western Kenya in the last 24 hours alone and the exodus is continuing.

The mountains between Mt. Kenya and the Great Rift Valley are trackless and inaccessible to all but men on foot. Aerial observers said the tribesmen are hacking their way through virgin jungle.

Marching in little groups, the Africans drove goats and other livestock before them from the reserves. Officials reported they bought up abnormal supplies of food before departing.

British administrators found reserves emptying when they began a week-end campaign to explain the emergency measures invoked last week. They assured the gatherings that troops and police had been sent to protect them, not to kill or arrest Africans.

Latest reports said the natives still are nervous and suspicious of British motives.
