LIFE NOT WORTH LIVING?
Then wake up the liver!
You know that sour, sunk, constipated feeling? It may be caused by the liver. If your liver doesn't pour out up to two pints of bile a day your food may not digest properly, and you feel that life's just not worth living. That's when the liver needs mild gentle Carter's Little Liver Pills. These vegetable pills help stimulate the flow of liver bile. Soon your digestion starts functioning properly and you feel that happy days are here again! Don't ever stay sunk. Always keep Carter's Little Liver Pills on hand.

P.E.I. Baptist Churches Met In Charlottetown Yesterday

Delegates representing Baptist Churches from all sections of the province met in the Charlottetown United Baptist Church in morning, afternoon and evening sessions for their spring district meetings.
Rev. H. L. Mitton, Moderator of the Baptist Association, was in charge of the sessions and who as Pastor of the Charlottetown Baptist Church welcomed the delegates. He told the gathering that it was a coincidence that this day saw the start of the new church edifice in that demolition of the Turner house had begun, to make way for the new church.
The morning session opened with a devotional service conducted by Rev. D. I. McClare. Reports of the work in the churches were very encouraging showing the exceptional growth that has already taken place during the year in spiritual as well as in material ways.

MINISTERS LEAVING
Rev. Keith Hobson spoke of the three pastors retiring from this association to accept calls from other fields elsewhere in the Maritimes. Those leaving are Rev. D. I. McClare of East Point, Rev. O. D. Cochrane of North River and Rev. Roland Hill of Montague.
He paid tribute to the fine work of these three men and brother, Father MacNeill.

This scholarship will be known as the Reverend J.D. MacNeill Memorial Scholarship and will be awarded to a student of North Rustico Parish. During the last six years two of our students benefited from valuable bursaries awarded by the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire, each valued at $400.00 a year for a four-year university course.
"The INCO Scholarship provided by the International Nickel Company of Canada, announcement of which was made in last year's report, was awarded for a second time to an Engineering student."
"There was also the individual scholarships which were announced in previous years and which are included in the list of today's awards, as well as the scholarships provided by the Connolly Estate, the St. Andrew's Society and the Saint Thomas Aquinas Society.

While we are very grateful for the benefits that have come to our students from these sources, we join our fellow Canadians who point out the need for further financial assistance through the establishment of more bursaries and scholarships so that no student who is qualified by a university education because of the lack of funds.
SUMMER SCHOOL
This year we shall for the first time conduct a summer school in which credit courses for a degree will be offered. Prince Edward Island teachers who wish to do academic work towards a bachelor's degree, students who attend St. Dunstan's during the regular school year, and any others who may satisfy the admission requirement may register for these courses. The number of applications which already have been received seems to amply justify our initiating this program. The summer session will begin on June 30 and end on August 8.
Through the whole-hearted devotion of every member of the staff to their various duties, the year which today we bring to a close was a successful one. The work done by the students was, in general, satisfactory. We appreciate the cooperation received from the student body, and in particular from the various student organizations on the campus, in the carrying out of the different student activities, and we commend them for the efficient manner in which they fulfilled these duties.

SCHOLARSHIPS
We are pleased to announce that the scholarships provided by the will of the late Barbara I. MacAulay of Boston for students of St. Peter's Parish, St. Peter's Bay, will be available next year and will be awarded on the conditions set forth in her will. We gratefully acknowledge the establishing during the past year of a scholarship by Mr. Charles MacNeill in memory of his late

RECEIVES B.A.
Among those receiving their Bachelor of Arts degree at the Mt. Allison University convocation on Tuesday, May 13 was Gordon Daniel MacBeth, son of Forest Hill. Mr. MacBeth won a special prize for leading his class in Hebrew. After the closing exercises he left for Crook River, Saskatchewan, where he will work on a United Church mission field for the summer after which he plans to continue his studies at Pine Hill Divinity College, Halifax.

complete research work for the doctorate. The Rev. Charles MacDonald, who received a degree in Engineering from Nova Scotia Technical College this month, will replace Mr. Callaghan next year in the Engineering Department.
Mr. George LaBelle, who holds a science degree in Agriculture from MacDonald College, joined the staff of the Extension Department last August and has been working as an Agriculture field man among the farmers of the Province.
Mr. Gerald Arsenault, who graduated from St. Dunstan's four years ago and has done graduate work in mathematics at the University of Notre Dame, joined the faculty last September as instructor in mathematics. In September, Miss Frances MacMillan, who has had considerable experience in library work in the Province, replaced Reverend Allan F. MacDonald as librarian. Father MacDonald is at present doing graduate study at the Catholic University of America.

Each of these men and women wished them every success in their new undertakings. The morning session closed with prayer by Rev. Roland Hill. The afternoon meeting convened at 2 p.m. with Mr. Edward MacPhail reporting on "The Baptist Federation Council". The meeting divided at 2:30 at which time the Women's Missionary Society met in the main sanctuary of the church. Mrs. Inez Dixon the President was in the chair.
The special speaker was Miss Laura Bain, return missionary from India, who spoke on the "Present Day Challenge on Our Overseas Mission Fields and What Shall Be Our Response".
At the same time the men of the district met under the chairmanship of Ralph Adams. The special speaker was the Rev. Roland Hill of Montague, who pledge and also, we hope, in the greater good to which you may direct that knowledge. You may continue your studies for other degrees, but we remind you that the investment which has been made in your education places upon you responsibilities—to give that superior quality of leadership that will be expected of you.

"While not everyone is called to be a great leader, we have confidence that all of you will, according to your ability, show some qualities of leadership and give to society whatever measure of it you can contribute. We pray that God may be always near to help you in achieving this noble destiny to which you are called and that you may be a powerful force toward good in the world into which you enter today."
"It was to have been your privilege to hear an address delivered to you today by Dr. Charles De Koninck, graduate of the University of Louvain, professor, and for many years dean, of the faculty of philosophy of Laval University. Dr. De Koninck, kindly consented several months ago to give our 1958 Baccalaureate address, and we were delighted to welcome the renowned philosopher to our Campus last Saturday evening. Unfortunately, since his arrival, Dr. De Koninck has been indisposed, and, for reasons of health, has been advised by his doctor not to attempt to deliver the address to the graduates.
"Dr. De Koninck deeply regrets his inability to be with us, but he has been cheered by the fact that the University of Laval has most generously supplied an alternate speaker for the occasion. We are deeply grateful to the Rector of Laval University for his interest, and to Dr. Richard A. Pattee for accepting, on such short notice, the urgent invitation to take Dr. De Koninck's place on our platform today.
"Dr. Pattee is a former student of the University of Louvain and holds his doctorate from the University of Coimbra. He has had a wide teaching and lecturing experience not only in North America, but also in Europe and Africa. He is today a professor in the Faculty of Letters of Laval University.
"In view of the pleasant relations with your University in the past, Dr. Pattee, we feel
