Gov't Cold Storage Plant Busy Place At This Season

One of the busiest places in the city is the Government operated cold storage plant on Escher Street with all its rooms practically jammed with frozen foods of various descriptions.

Several of the storage rooms whose temperatures range to below zero are filled to capacity with cheese. Approximately 275,000 pounds of Island Cheddar are in the plant at present.

Another item in quantity is frozen herring to be used as bait. There were 271,000 pounds put in storage in May, almost completely filling one of the large storage rooms.

Responding to farewell messages from the members of the Home League and the congregation, Major and Mrs. Hutchinson said that they had been "showered with the kindness and hospitality of the Island people, both inside and outside of the Army" and are taking with them many fond and cherished memories.

Entering their twenty-fifth year of service in the Army, Major and Mrs. Hutchinson have spent all but two years in the Maritimes, and came here from No. 1 Corps in Halifax. During their stay, they conducted many services in churches throughout the province, and will be remembered for their frequent visits to the local institutions, where their concerts and their presence delighted the inmates, particularly the children in the orphanage.

Major and Mrs. Hutchinson are well-known duettists and will sing at both of the final services on Sunday. The Major was the teacher for two years at the Music Camp held at New Glasgow, Nova Scotia, and several youthful students from the local corps were among his pupils there.

To their new post in Ottawa they take the best wishes for future success from a host of friends who were helped by their presence and their messages.

Salvation Army Leaders Given Farewell Supper

Major and Mrs. Ernest Hutchinson, (above), who are leaving early next week after a stay of almost three years in Charlottetown, were the principal guests at a farewell turkey supper given in their honor by the members of the Home League at the Salvation Army Citadel last night.

Responding to farewell messages from the members of the Home League and the congregation, Major and Mrs. Hutchinson said that they had been "showered with the kindness and hospitality of the Island people, both inside and outside of the Army" and are taking with them many fond and cherished memories.

Lovely Dahlia Blooms At Experimental Farm

Flower lovers and lovers of dahlias in particular, can view one of the most arresting dahlia patches in eastern Canada or the United States in the 95 acre yard long Dahlia patch at the Dominion Experimental Farm here.

This flower bed which is being built up year by year, presents a pretty picture with its dahlias of every describable color, size and height sitting on the stems of the well spaced and cared for plants. Starting at the end of the patch nearest the main road, the first striking flower to greet the eye is the Black Monarch with its huge black face. Close by is another huge flower, a setting star, orange red in color and near it are Lavender Perfection dahlias.

Along the line are numerous Governor Helt's an orange colored cactus type plant; Silver Meteors, Irene Dunne's and Monarchs of the East. These latter dahlias have huge yellow blooms on large stems and are one of the most showy dahlias in the collection.

These are only a few of the more striking flowers. Ranking with them in beauty are the Premier Winsome's a large delicate pink dahlia; the Faithful's a white cactus type; the Grand Masterpiece's, which are informal decorative and are amber gold in color with violet shadings.

Then there are the Model 999's. Continued on page 8

Medical Tests For P.W.C. Students

Prince of Wales students who registered for First Year and Teacher Training were given a medical examination at the beginning of the term.

This was a co-operative effort by the Departments of Health and Education. Examinations were carried out by the Department of Health and Welfare with assistance from private physicians and the Tuberculosis League.

These 266 students received haemoglobin test, urinalysis, chest x-ray, dental examination and vision test followed by a medical examination by the physician.

Students with defects or other problems are referred to the family physician for treatment. It is hoped that this timely attention to students' health will contribute to their success.

It has long been recognized that basic good health and scholastic success usually go hand in hand.
