FIREMEN CALLED
Summerside firemen responded at about nine o'clock Wednesday morning to an alarm from the Central Grocery on Central Street. The fire, which apparently started from a spark from an incinerator at the rear of the building, was in a warehouse attached to the rear of the main store. Considerable damage was done to this outer building and to some of its contents. The main store was not damaged.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY
Funeral services for the late Ralph Richard Williams, who was the victim of a traffic accident on Tuesday, were held yesterday afternoon with a service at the home followed by service at St. Mary's Anglican Church. Burial was in the People's Cemetery. The pastor, Ven. Archdeacon G. R. Harrison officiated both at the services and at the grave. Pall bearers were six little school children of the deceased.

Prominent S'side Business Man 88 Yesterday
Mr. M. F. Schurman, president of M. F. Schurman Co. Ltd., of Summerside yesterday celebrated his 88th birthday. Mr. Schurman still retains his mental and physical vigor and continues to take an active part in the affairs of his firm which this year will observe its 55th anniversary. On Monday he went to Charlottetown for the completion of the construction branch of the firm.

S'side Flying Club Away To Good Start
Two planes were kept busy most of yesterday by the recently organized Summerside Flying Club. It got away to a good start. Although it rained most of the day, visibility was good and eight flights were made by members who took advantage of the holiday. Moncton Flying Club had planned to send a number of planes to participate in the first day's programme but the weather over New Brunswick prevented them from coming.

Well Known Summerside Man Passes
Mr. Preston Ellis, a highly esteemed resident of Summerside East passed away suddenly on Tuesday afternoon from a heart attack. He was 74 years of age. The late Mr. Ellis was born at East Blenheim, and for a number of years conducted a farm at Tyne Valley, coming to Summerside about 14 years ago, where he has since conducted a tourist cabin business near Read's Corner. He was greatly interested in the history of the Ellis family in this Province.

Non-Stop Flight From Vancouver To Summerside
A Lancaster Aircraft that had made a non-stop flight from the R. C. A. F. base at Sea Island near Vancouver, B. C. to Summerside took off again yesterday on return. The plane touched down at Summerside at 10:30 A.M. Atlantic Standard Time after 11 1/2 hours in the air.

DRIVER EXONERATED IN SUMMERSIDE FATALITY
A coroner's jury sitting at Summerside on Wednesday evening found that the death of six-year-old Ralph Richard Williams was caused by being run over by a truck and that it was accidental. The boy who was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Williams, Granville Street, was instantly killed on Tuesday morning about 8:40 on Green Street when struck by a truck driven by Mr. John Small. The jury also found that no blame is attached to the driver.

JURY MAKES RECOMMENDATIONS
A coroner's jury investigating the death of six-year-old Ralph Richard Williams who was run over while on his way to school in Summerside on Tuesday morning brought in four recommendations on Wednesday evening in regard to measures that might be taken by the town and school authorities to prevent such accidents in the future.

1. No parking of cars within school areas, high school and St. Mary's Convent.
2. Speed limit within school areas to be set at five miles an hour.
3. 'Slow' signs to be placed at appropriate points within the school areas.
4. Sidewalks to be placed on Green Street between Granville Street and Spring and on Beaver Street between Central and Summer Streets so that pedestrians will not be forced to walk on the roadway and that every effort be made by teachers and the safety patrol to instruct children to walk on the sidewalks.

The six boys who were invested with their badges were: Tommy MacKenzie, Summerside; James Compton, St. Eleanor's; Robert St. John, Summerside; Leonard Compton, St. Eleanor's; Lawrence Gallant, Summerside; Lloyd Simmons, St. Eleanor's.

Many Attend Opening Of Tyne Valley Health Centre By Hon. Mr. Darby

In spite of rainy weather, a large number of people gathered at Tyne Valley yesterday afternoon for the formal opening of the Stewart Memorial Health Centre by Attorney-General W. E. Darby. Named in honor of the late Dr. J. A. Stewart, this seven-bed hospital will serve 22 school districts whose people joined together to raise the money for its erection.

Mr. Darby said that he was happy to be present and participate in the opening of the Stewart Memorial Health Centre. He brought the regrets of the Minister of Health, the Hon. A. W. Matheson, who could not be present as he is out of the province. Mr. Darby said that the institution was made possible through the joint efforts of all the people of the various areas that it will serve and they can be proud of it.

Talk On Missions At Summerside

Rev. J. Donald MacKay, guest speaker at the W. M. S. Birthday Social of the Summerside Presbyterian Church, gave an inspiring talk on Missions on Tuesday evening in the Hall, remarking that the fundamental purpose of missionary work was to reveal the Gospel of Jesus Christ to all.

Mrs. Donald Baker, who presided, stated that the W. M. S. had been organized in Summerside by Miss Zilla Muirhead approximately sixty-five years ago. The opening hymn, 'Jesus Shall Reign', with Mrs. Cleve Whalen, accompanist, was followed by the scripture lesson taken from Mark 16 and Acts 16, read by Mrs. Wm. E. Forbes, and prayer by Miss Constance Erman. A vocal duet was rendered by Mrs. Mark Gaudet, Jr. and Mrs. Robert Ross, after which the offering was received by Mrs. C. C. Hickey and Mrs. Ronald Jeffrey.

Mrs. J. W. MacKenzie on behalf of the Society presented the Minister with a Life Membership in memory of his mother. The closing hymn, 'Where Cross The Crowded Ways Of Life', was followed by the benediction.

A social hour followed with delicious refreshments including a beautifully decorated birthday cake served by the Senior W. M. S., assisted by members of the Evening Circle. A humorous reading by Mrs. J. S. Perry was much enjoyed.

without continued support. The dedication prayers were said by the Rev. R. H. Baxter, who also asked for a moment's silence in memory of Dr. Stewart.

Mrs. Reginald Birch spoke on behalf of the Women's Institutes and said that the task had been a difficult one, with patience, devotion and hard work needed. She asked that all remain united to keep the center an institution for blessing and to work together for the good of all.

Mrs. J. A. Stewart also spoke and said that the new hospital is a most fitting monument to the memory of her husband. She hoped that it would be prosperous, go on, and be a joy to all.

Mr. Donald MacLean, secretary-treasurer of the board thanks all who had helped to make the project a success. It was noted that some of the furniture of the late Dr. Stewart, including his desk and chair, are now in the new hospital, having been presented by Mrs. Stewart.

The dimensions of the building are 68 by 34 feet and it is of frame construction. It is a bungalow type with main floor and basement floor. It is furnished with the most modern type of hospital equipment and all the rooms are decorated in pastel shades.

After the ceremony the king talked with Baden Powell and suggested that Scouts who passed special tests of efficiency should be named 'King Scouts.'

His Worship Henry W. Wedge in addressing the gathering said that he was aware that great preparation had been made for this rally. 'It is unfortunate,' he said, 'that the weather prevented the rally being held outdoors but you are to be congratulated on the fine programme held here tonight.'

He congratulated them on having their leader Mr. Eric Tanton, who, he felt, deserved much credit for the work he is doing. Mayor Wedge expressed the hope that some time in the future there would be a community centre in Summerside where such organizations as the Scouts and the Girl Guides would be housed. He paid high tribute to the Summerside Y's Men's Club which is the sponsoring body for the Scouts in Summerside and he wished the
