

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

AUGUST 16, 1889.

Notes and Clippings.

The wheat crop in Europe and India does not mend with the latest advices.

It seems that the Government of Manitoba does not intend to bring in a measure to abolish the separate schools of that Province.

Give our manufacturers a market for their products and they can be trusted to make their way against any competitors.

Rev. Dr. Dewart, editor of the Christian Guardian, Toronto, who has just returned from a trip through the Maritime Provinces, sums up his observations in these terms: "The intelligence and enterprise of the people will compare favorably with any other country in the world."

The Summerside Journal is kind enough to suggest that Charlottetown be the scene of the next Carnival.

Those who went to Halifax report that the number of drunken men seen on the streets during the continuance of the Carnival was small.

Very frankly the press of New York tell the people of that great city that a world's fair there imposes obligations upon them which makes it doubtful if the place is really deserving of a great exhibition.

The gloomy forebodings of San Francisco merchants over the prospect of having their Pacific trade diverted to Canada appears to rest on a substantial basis.

Some passengers give interesting accounts of scenes at the recent battle in Honolulu. The day, it seems, was won by a baseball pitcher, who utilized his skill by throwing dynamite bombs into the bungalow that formed the headquarters of the insurgents.

Everyone is pleased with the Boots and Shoes they buy at the Dominion Boot and Shoe Store.

CLOSE OF THE SESSION.

The Grand Lodge met pursuant to adjournment at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

At the evening session, an address and presentation was made to Past Grand Master D. Graham Whidden of Antigonish, N. S., who is about removing to the Pacific coast—to which a most feeling reply was made.

The installation of officers was proceeded with, assisted by Past Grand Masters Barnes, Christie, Hockin, Whidden, Stewart and Weatherspoon.

Invitations for the next annual session were received from Yarmouth, N. S., and St. John, N. B.

John Harrison, a Halifax boy, was drowned on Nantasket Beach, Boston, while bathing on Sunday. The same day, Charles Ryan, of Halifax, fell into a Boston dock and was drowned.

A number of visiting Oddfellows still remain in the city. Some went to the Seaside Hotel this morning and others are enjoying some of our suburban drives.

Nicholas Flood Davin, M. P., has been heard from. Writing of the "Insolence of Yankee Cruisers," in the Regina Leader, he exclaims: "Oh, for one hour of Palmerston, or, better still, Cromwell! It was timidity that destroyed the Roman empire and invited the barbarian. We ourselves could raise a very large and much more devoted army than the United States, while a few regiments could be sent to us, and the English fleet could sweep American commerce from the seas."

Among the distinguished visitors seated with Governor Macdonald, Chief of the Caledonian Club, on the grand stand, were Gen. Middleton, Commander of the military forces in Canada; Col. Worsley, D. A. G., Dr. Christie, Gilbert Murdoch, Alex. Rankine, Esq., President of the St. Andrew's Society of St. John, N. B. There were also many other prominent citizens of St. John, Halifax and other places.
