Emphasize Liquor Cannot Be Sent Through The Mail

OTTAWA, Oct. 21 — (CP) — The Post Office Department emphasized in a statement Monday that liquor cannot be sent through the mails.

The statement referred to a story based on an army press release last week which said that the duty-free concession on cigars, tobacco and spirits sent to Canadian servicemen in the United Kingdom had been lifted. The Post Office Department said, of the reference to spirits.

"In order to dispel any misunderstanding, it should be noted that liquor is prohibited transmission in the Canadian mails

Exporters Protest As U. S. Action Delays Shipments

OTTAWA, Oct. 21 — (CP) — Canadian exporters Monday protested United States action in holding up trans-shipment of Canadian strategic metals at U. S. points because the shippers had not obtained clearance from Washington.

"The U. S. action took Canadian exporters by surprise, and government trade officials said they are consulting with the U. S. Government to clear the matter up at once.

Previously, Canadian shippers could move strategic goods across U. S. territory in bond, using an export permit obtained from the Canadian Government.

However, in a sudden move — apparently without consultation with the Canadian Government — U. S. authorities decided to block further trans-shipments of such metals as copper and brass until an American export permit was obtained from Washington.

As a result several consignments of Canadian brass and copper shipments are being held up in New York, while the Canadian shippers apply to Washington for a permit.

This, said the exporters, will force Canadian shippers to undergo extra costs and hardships in moving goods, say, from Montreal to London, via New York.

The protest was lodged by S. A. MacKay-Smith, vice-president of the Canadian Exporters' Association, in a letter to F. W. Bull, deputy trade minister.

Both American and Canadian export controls are designed to keep strategic goods out of the hands of the Communists. However, under Canada-U. S. co-operation, the U. S. Government "honored" Canadian export permits as though they had been issued by American authorities.

Canada, on her part, undertook to see that Canada was not used as a "back door" by any snapper contravening American export regulations.

and therefore, cannot be included in parcels for any destination, in Canada or abroad. Parcels containing liquor are intercepted and the prohibited contents removed."

Under such a period of steady government, he said, "we shall be able to make our way toward a revived prosperity in which we all will share."

During the last 12 months of Conservative government, Churchill said, "Britain's influence and reputation in the world have been sustained, the danger of war has Canadians are fortunate people. We eat better, dress better, live better than most other humans on this old globe. We are developing at an unprecedented pace, and we are only getting started.

It isn't all just luck, either. Canadians don't scare at a hard day's work. We are ready to use our muscles and brains. We know enough to get ready for the greater things to come — to save today to be prepared for tomorrow.

What's more, we are determined believers in freedom — personal freedom as well as national — personal progress — and that, my friends, puts a load of responsibility on each one of us.

It means that we must be ready for opportunities as well as emergencies — be ready to help ourselves individually as well as nationally. Canada calls on us as citizens to show faith in our future — to invest in her. She even shows us how to help by helping ourselves — Canada is selling nest eggs.

Canada has a painless, profitable plan for producing nest eggs: We call them CANADA SAVINGS BONDS. These bonds stretch like a 'bridge between' country and citizen. They demonstrate the democratic way. We can buy them like groceries when we want to, or ignore them. Behind these bonds are people — not policemen.

Canada Savings Bonds are safer than money in the pocket. We are more likely to keep a $100 bond than a $100 bill. And the longer we keep it, the more it pays. Everyday it works for Canada. Later it will work for us — as earnings or education, gadgets or garages, investment or invention, plans or piggy bank. A wise nation is a thrifty nation.

IN MY OPINION there is no better way to save than with CANADA SAVINGS BONDS. If we need the cash we can cash them at a moment's notice at full value plus interest. This is about as close to having your cake and eating it, too, as I know of. It's patriotism with a privilege. And a Canada Savings Bond is your investment in your freedom.
