Commonwealth Assembly To Be Proposed To PMs

By HAROLD MORRISON

LONDON (CP) — Commonwealth Secretary Arthur Bottomley says Commonwealth prime ministers will be asked to consider establishing a Commonwealth parliamentary assembly when they meet for discussions here in June.

"This might be a little idealistic but I have asked that it be considered," Bottomley told a press conference Tuesday.

Many countries spoke of building a world government one day, he added, and "if the Commonwealth cannot do it, what happens to the rest of the world?"

Bottomley, who flies to Malaysia, Australia and New Zealand next week, said a Commonwealth parliamentary assembly could initially be an experiment.

Suggesting that the developments that could flow from such a venture would be almost limitless, Bottomley mentioned specifically such things as a Commonwealth university and a Commonwealth court that could be established by the political assembly.

MEET JUNE 17-25

The prime ministers will meet here June 17-25 and one of their first decisions will be to give formal approval to a permanent secretariat to widen the exchange of information and consultation within the 21-country partnership.

Bottomley said several countries have nominated candidates for the job of secretary-general. Canada's nominee is Arnold Smith, assistant deputy external affairs minister.

A parliamentary assembly would be a natural development after the secretariat is established, to provide a forum for political examination of the secretariat's work, Bottomley suggested.

Asked how Britain could promote this closer political operation within the Commonwealth and at the same time seek closer association with the European Common Market, Bottomley replied that he sees no inconsistency.

Britain could participate in a Commonwealth parliamentary assembly and still associate with Europe, he said.

Crown Corporation Ticked Off By Auditor-General Henderson

OTTAWA (CP)—Auditor-General Maxwell Henderson has ticked off a federal Crown company for holding $9,719,433 in a special reserve account when in his opinion it should be shown on the company's books as rightfully belonging to the government as the sole shareholder.

Mr. Henderson pointed to the reserve account in a March 30 letter to Trade Minister Sharp, reporting on his audit of the accounts and financial statements of Export Credits Insurance Corporation.

The corporation was set up by a 1944 act of Parliament to insure exporters against losses in sales to foreign buyers who, because of financial risk or political uncertainty, could not establish adequate credit ratings through normal commercial channels.

The $9,719,433 represents the excess of income over the Crown company's expenses and policy-holders' claims since its incorporation.

Annual net earnings from operations were credited first to an underwriting reserve which was to be used if claims could not all be paid from current annual earnings. Parliament set a $5,000,000 limit on these reserves in 1954.

WENT INTO ACCOUNT

After the $5,000,000 limit was reached in 1960, further earnings went into a surplus account. The corporation deposited $10,000,000 in a non-interest-bearing account in the treasury last July 31, and was made free of income tax by Parliament last year.

Last year Parliament also removed the requirement that the corporation keep an underwriting reserve of not more than $5,000,000. But the board of directors decided by resolution on March 16 this year the underwriting reserve should be maintained. The directors are all senior civil servants.

So the underwriting reserve of $5,000,000 had added to it the $3,254,281 already in the surplus account and the corporation's 1964 surplus of $1,465,152.

"The effect of this transfer has been to increase the underwriting reserve from $5,000,000 at Dec. 31, 1963, to $9,719,433 at Dec. 31, 1964," Mr. Henderson said in his letter to the minister.

"The board also directed that the reserve be shown on the balance sheet of the corporation at Dec. 31, 1964, as a liability reserve rather than recognizing it with capital and capital surplus as part of the equity of the government of Canada in the corporation.

WAS GENERAL

"In my opinion, this reserve is general in nature and at Dec. 31, 1964, constituted part of the shareholders' equity in the corporation and should have been included in the capital or shareholders' equity section of the . . . balance sheet."

The corporation's annual report said it insured a record $346,000,000 worth of consumer and capital goods exports in 1964, more than double the value of export sales it insured in 1963.

Of the total, $214,880,155 was insured with the government backing special risks, and $1331,218,664 was in risk assumed by the corporation itself.

The largest accounts by countries in the government risk total were: The United States, $67,950,941; Czechoslovakia, $59,853,484; Poland, $56,529,880.

The largest underwritings on the corporation's own risk were: United Kingdom, $17,157,222; Australia, $11,224,308; Russia, $8,546,078; West Germany, $8,455,691; South Africa $7,738,866.

Socony Mobil Asks Permit For Pipeline

CALGARY (CP)—Socony Mobil Oil of Canada Ltd. has applied to the Alberta government for permission to build a 410-mile pipeline from Redwater, about 30 miles northeast of Edmonton, to the Rainbow discovery area of northwestern Alberta.

A spokesman for the company declined Tuesday to estimate cost of the line but said it would comprise one 175-mile section of 12¾-inch line and another section of 16½-inch line.

Stocks of companies with property in the Rainbow area have risen sharply in the last week following reports of a significant oil strike in the district.

Banff Oil Ltd., which sold as low as $1.30 a share last January, sold at $7.20 on the Toronto Stock Exchange Tuesday before settling to $6.55 for a 15-cent loss on the day. Dynamic Petroleums Ltd. gained 24 cents to 78 cents on a turnover of 693,800 shares.

APPROVE BUDGET

TORONTO (CP)—City council approved Toronto's record $147,000,000 budget Monday night after 12 hours of discussion. The residential mill rate for 1965 was set at 73.95, up 4.85 mills over last year and the commercial rate increased by 5.3 to 81.85.
