

Local and Other Items.

DRILL.—The Engineers meet for drill this evening at 8 o'clock.

ADVANCE.—Molasses has advanced one cent per gallon in Barbadoes.

SCOTT ACT.—One new summons—second offence—returnable on Friday, has been served.

POLICE COURT.—Two drunks—Peter Keenan and James Donovan—were fined $2 each this morning.

CRICKET.—A meeting of the members of the Park Cricket Club will be held in the office of Messrs. Davies & Sutherland, on the evening of Friday next at 7.30 o'clock.

INVESTIGATION.—An investigation into the late disastrous fire in this city will be held in the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court to-morrow, commencing at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

DROPPED DEAD WHILE PLOUGHING.—Edward Harris, aged 55, of McFarlane settlement, Southampton, York County, N. B., dropped dead while ploughing on his farm last Thursday. Heart disease was the cause.

EVIDENTLY PAYING.—The Halifax Street Railway carried one million passengers last year, the second of its existence, and the revenue was $16,000 over and above working expenses. The company are well satisfied with their investment.

SOME EGGS.—Freeman Bros., of Amherst, have gathered from 62 hens 3,905 eggs, or 32½ dozen from December 1 to May 15. The hens were mostly white leghorns from stock imported from the States. They have a pen 5x16, capable of holding 200 hens, which they intend to fill with pure bred fowls of the best laying breed.

WIZARD OIL.—The Wizard Oil Concert Co. gave another of their popular entertainments to a large audience in the Lyceum last evening. Several new features were introduced, and each number on the programme was loudly applauded. Wizard Oil sold rapidly. The prizes offered were a diamond ring, a cake basket and a pickle castor. The first-mentioned article fell to the lot of Mr. Mabon, the second to Prof. Hawley, and the third to a young lad whose name we did not learn. The Co. remain during this week, giving an entertainment each evening.

FROM BOSTON.—The steamer Worcester, Capt. Nickerson, with the usual general cargo and the following passengers, arrived from Boston at nine o'clock this morning: Miss Doherty (2) Mrs. Purcell, Mrs. Jas. Martin, Mrs. H. McLean, Mrs. Dixon, Mr. A. McKenzie, Mr. Grant, Mr. L. Barlow, Mr. Charles Nicholson, Miss Lizzie Pickering, Miss Jennie Buxton, Mrs. Mary C. Case, Miss Annie Case, Miss Ida Case, Miss Kate McKenzie, Miss Sarah McDonald, Miss Bate McLeod, Miss Trainor, Mrs. Ellen Burns, Miss Kate Burns, Miss Lizzie Burns.

FATAL CASE OF NOSE BLEEDING.—Says the Fredericton Capital: Hatheway Lint, son of Mrs. Charles Parsons, west end, took to bleeding at the nose on Monday, in an ordinary case of nose-bleeding. The blood ran freely but nothing serious was thought of at first, until all efforts to check it proved unavailing. He finally began bleeding from the mouth, and continued bleeding almost continuously until about 9 o'clock in the evening, when he expired. The young fellow had been in poor health for a number of years, and for the last few months had been unable to work. Deceased was about twenty years of age.

WELL REPRESENTED.—We understand that Canada is well represented at the International Exhibition which was opened at Glasgow on the 7th inst. There is a good display of cereals, wood, minerals, fish, birds and wild animals. There are besides paintings of nine of the principal cities of the Dominion and a fine collection of photographs of Canadian scenery. It does not appear that manufactures are included in the exhibits. The rich display of natural products, however, cannot fail to create a favorable impression of Canada among those visitors to the exhibition who wish to know what kind of a country Canada really is, and what are its capabilities.

PLENTY OF RUM.—Says the Chatham World: The spasmodic efforts at Scott Act enforcement stop the sale at respectable places where liquors of fair quality may be obtained by those who require them, and leave all the dens untouched where poor men throw away their wages and ruin their health. We saw more drunken men in the streets last Sunday than we ever saw in them before an attempt was made to enforce the Scott Act. The sale goes on in the jug taverns without the least attempt on the part of the Scott Act advocates to interfere with it. There is no money to be got out of the keepers of these places. The law is a fraud, and the show of enforcing it a farce.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

Fire at Annapolis.

HALIFAX, May 29. Annapolis has been visited by another conflagration. Fire broke out at midnight and destroyed the block containing the Post Office, Bank of Nova Scotia, Dominion Hotel, Malcom's grocery store, Miss Smith's millinery establishment, Simons' drug store, the law office of John B. Mills, M. P., the office of Registrar of Probate, and the entire plant of the Annapolis Spectator. The loss is $40,000; insurance, $20,000. The origin was undoubtedly incendiary. Annapolis produces more incendiary fires than all other Nova Scotia towns.

Montreal News.

MONTREAL, May 29. A test case has been commenced in the Superior Court against the insurance combine, on the export of cattle—an injunction having been applied for to-day, to restrain the Beaver line from carrying on an insurance business, being common carriers.

Joseph Angel's mangled remains were found to-day in the ruins of the wrecked gasometer, his features being scarcely recognizable. A post mortem examination of the remains of McAfee showed that his death was caused by inhaling inflammable gas.

A Satisfactory Appointment.

HALIFAX, May 29. The appointment of C. H. Tupper, Minister of Fisheries, gives special satisfaction to Nova Scotia. He will be sworn in before General Sir John Ross as soon as his commission arrives. The election will take place immediately. It is not known yet whether there will be any opposition to Mr. Tupper or not. His private secretary will be C. C. Chapman, formerly secretary to Sir Charles. But little doubt is now felt that Hon. Mr. McLellan will become Governor of Nova Scotia.

The Fisheries Treaty.

WASHINGTON, May 29. The Senate to-day began the consideration of the Fishery Treaty in open session. Mr. Fry, of Maine, spoke at length in opposition to the treaty, detailing the history of fishery treaties and declaring that the entire object of Great Britain and Canada was to get possession of the United States market. He advocated the enforcement of the non-intercourse feature of the Retaliation Act.

Train Wrecked.

PITTSBURG, May 29. During a heavy windstorm that passed over Western Pennsylvania yesterday a passenger train on the Pittsburg & Western Railway, while running at a high rate of speed, near Clarion Station, was blown from the track into a ditch. All the passengers and trainmen were injured, some seriously. Miss Rankine, of Clarion, was fatally hurt. The road is completely blocked.

The Longley Case.

TORONTO, May 29. The Toronto district meeting of the Methodist Church to-day, after considerable discussion, adopted the committee's report recommending the expulsion of Rev. Mr. Longley, late pastor of Queen Street Methodist Church. The matter will be referred to the Niagara Conference to be finally dealt with.

The C. P. R. Guarantee.

OTTAWA, May 29. At a meeting of the Cabinet to-day the agreement by which the Pacific Railway Company receive a guarantee upon their bonds upon specified security, was finally ratified in accordance with the Act of last session. The trustees are Hon. Messrs. Foster and Abbott and R. D. Angus.

Colonel Oliver, commandant of the Kingston Military College, has forwarded his resignation to the Government. The question as to who will succeed him has not yet been considered.

A Fatal Fire.

GRAVENHURST, Ont. May 29. A terrible fire occurred at Ufing, about twelve miles from here, last night, when Frederick M. Joye, the old and faithful township clerk, with his wife and three children two boys and a little girl 5, 9 and 11 years respectively, became food for the flames. The wind was so strong that nothing could be done to render any assistance. Only one member of the family, a girl aged 13, escaped.

DIED.

At his residence, South Lake, Lot 47, May 28th, leaving a large circle of relatives and friends, besides his widow and four helpless children, to mourn the loss of a true friend, a loving husband and indulgent parent, Donald A. Stewart passed from the earth life, we trust, to a higher and better. To the God of the widow, the Father of the fatherless and to the loving hearts and willing hands in her community we commend the sorrowing widow and her helpless little ones.

Sister Jessie, daughter of the late Peter Campbell, peacefully and gently went to rest at Montague, May 25, aged 84 years. In early life she gave herself to God. She lived a life of faith in the Son of God, and finally fell asleep in Jesus. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

An Interesting Column for Ladies.

Smart Mantles for street wear are shown in Corded Silks, Jetter Gauze, Striped and Brocaded Velvets, and Silks adorned with epaulettes and plaques of jet, for never was jet more lavishly displayed than just now, and some of the smaller Mantles are nothing more or less than a mass of beads, which sparkle at every movement of the wearer.

Lace as a trimming promises much, and it is also to be much worn for dresses, especially black Chantilly mounted upon white, rose, heliotrope, pale blue, salmon, &c. Among the new colors now being shown, browns and fawns promise to take the lead. Grey, putty, clove and most lovely fawn tints are all in excellent taste. Stripes and plain materials will reign supreme in the new shades.

Judging from the immense variety of lovely Washing Goods shown, this is to be a "Cotton Season" in earnest. Zephyrs are particularly pretty and useful, Light Blues, Pinks and Greys being favorites. Jerseys, smocked, gathered or even finely pleated in the upper parts, are exceedingly fashionable, and it is a very pretty style.

Small Bonnets and large Hats are undoubtedly leading styles in headwear—favorite shapes being La Tosca, Hollywood and Fairmont. Flowers will be, and in fact are, in very general use. They are so perfectly imitated, and have such charming possibilities, that all the leading Milliners hail them with delight. The variety of new Ribbons shown is unprecedented, whilst Laces, Tulles, &c., are also used largely for trimmings. The variety in Millinery Trimmings and Headwear is so large that we recommend all who want a more thorough knowledge of them to call at BEER BROS.,—the largest importers of these goods on the Island—where they will see all the styles we mention and a great many more. Indeed, everyone can be suited this season—the variety of shapes shown is so great and the styles so pretty. Lace edging to Bonnets is extremely fashionable. Poppies are much used, as also are Roses and Tulips, and Ivy leaves have been used with the utmost profusion lately on both Bonnets and Hats. In Jerseys, the leading favorites are the Nordica, Blouse, and the Norfolk. Many pretty novelties are also in Summer Parasols, Gloves, Prints, &c., all of which may be procured at
