POLICE COURT.—Matilda Morrison (countrywoman) was this morning fined $4 or 20 days for drunkenness.

THE CRONIN CASE.—The case for the defence has been closed, and the State is now introducing rebuttal evidence.

EVENING SESSION.—Judge Alley will hold a session of the Revision Court this evening, opening at half-past seven o'clock.

THE PRESENCE OF DANDRUFF indicates a diseased scalp, and if not cured, blanching of the hair and baldness will result. Hall's Hair Renewer.

FROM HALIFAX.—The steamer Princess Beatrice arrived from Halifax via intermediate ports this afternoon. She will sail on return this evening.

UNCLE TOM'S CABIN.—The Boston Ideals will put this play on the boards this evening at the Market Hall. Beautiful scenery, trained bloodhounds, etc., etc.

FOR THE DESPATCH OF BUSINESS.—It is stated that the Quebec legislature will be called for the de patch of business on January 16th, the same date as the Dominion parliament.

FARM FOR SALE.—Mr. Pierce Naddy, of Rosemeath offers for sale his farm containing 50 acres, situate at Newtown Cross, Lot 57. For further particulars apply to McLean & McDonald, Solicitors, Charlottetown. nov28 2i wv

MILITARY BADGES.—The badges won at the shooting competitions of No. 1 Battery, G. A., the past season, have arrived from England, and will be presented to the winners at the Drill Shed this evening. The badges are very handsome.

CONCERT.—We learn that the Philharmonic Society has decided to give its first concert in about three weeks, the principal feature of which will be the rendition of Sir Sterndale Bennett's cantata "The May Queen." We bespeak a treat for the people of Charlottetown.

THE FASTEST YET.—The Quebec Telegraph says: The special train, carrying the mails ex steamer arriving at Halifax yesterday, arrived at Lewis at five o'clock this morning, covering the distance from Halifax to Lewis in seventeen hours and thirteen minutes, being the fastest trip on record.

MARKET HALL.—Miss Belle Laisell, as Topsy, has no equal. Her rendition of the "Child that nebbber was born" is acknowledged to be true to nature. We claim that none will deny that she is the greatest Topsy living. To see this black imp is a treat, and none should miss it. Market Hall to-night.

L. O. OF G. T.—Charlottetown Lodge, No. 1, will meet this evening at 7 sharp. Mrs. Hattie Starr Keefer will be present until 8 p. m., when the Lodge will move over to the Y. M. C. A. Hall, where Mrs. Keefer will deliver her popular and interesting lecture on "Taking Care of the Babies."

PROBATE COURT.—Further witnesses were examined yesterday in re estate of late James H. Ross. His Lordship the Judge, after considering the evidence, decreed that the will of the deceased be confirmed, and that the petitioner do pay the costs of the Citation and proceedings thereunder.

WESTERN EXPRESS.—We understand that after the change of time and until the close of navigation at Summerside, the steamboat express will run through to Tignish semi-weekly—Tuesdays and Fridays. This is a favor, certainly; but our friends up West should have more—and will have it, too, in the near future, when the province has some one at the Capital to look after her interests.

NOVEMBER STRAWBERRIES.—The North Sydney, C. B., Herald says: Mr. J. D. McKenzie of Millville, Boularderie, informs the Herald that he picked a cup full of ripe strawberries at that place a few days ago. We had almost expected to see the last season's placard "Strawberries and cream" tacked in the windows of our town restaurants; but now fear that the frost of last week has completely annihilated the entire second growth.

COMMENDABLE MOVE.—The Journal says: The citizens of Tignish station, it is reported intend organizing a fire company, as there are no available means at present for the protection of property in cases of fire. They purpose securing a good water supply by means of wells and think of purchasing a hand engine. In the mean time, the intention is to provide a supply of hook and ladders, pails, etc. This is a very commendable move, and we hope it will be successful.

THE LYCEUM.—East Lynne drew a very large and fashionable audience last night, and the beautiful play of Mrs. Wood was portrayed in a first-class manner by Manager Webber's excellent company. As Lady Isabel and Madam Vine, Miss Grey repeated her impersonation of that exacting dual character, and the sobs and tears of sympathy from the audience fully attested her powerful acting. All the company were very good in their respective roles, and the whole performance was thoroughly smooth and enjoyable. To-night, for the first time, Sterling's drama of the "White Slave," and the farce of the "Dead Shot" will be played. Let there be a full house.

New J. P.'s.—The names of Thomas Butler, Esq., Glangarry, and Daniel O'Sullivan, Esq., Mimingham, have been added to the list of those associated in the commission of the peace for Prince County. Mr. O'Sullivan, when a boy, sat on the same bench with the present Chief Justice Sullivan in the country school of Hope River, and it is certainly a graceful act on the part of the ex-premier to remember and confer a dignity so well-deserved upon his old schoolfellow at the very moment of relinquishing the governmental helm. Mr. O'Sullivan is a well-to-do and highly-respected farmer, a prominent figure at church meetings, an organizer and live supporter of almost every progressive movement in his locality—in a word, just such a man as will make a worthy magistrate. Mr. Butler is an independent and highly-respected western farmer. We congratulate the new Justices.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER. Lord Salisbury's Programme.

LONDON, Nov. 27. The Conservative Conference at Nottingham yesterday approved of Lord Salisbury's social programme, but attached a rider, declaring that the party must have an effective labor platform. During the course of the proceedings Lord Salisbury condemned the declaration recently made by Lord Roseberry at a liberal meeting in Glasgow that the reform of the House of Lords must be of a drastic character and said that the declaration was a rash one. If Lord Roseberry meant that the House of Lords ought to contain an elected element superior to the hereditary members that necessarily involved an encroachment upon the rights and privileges of the House of Commons. Detailed criticism upon Lord Roseberry's plan, Lord Salisbury said, was needless until his scheme was fully stated. Referring to the progress of the home rule idea, the plan to federate England, Scotland, Ireland and Wales, Lord Salisbury said he considered the application of such a scheme to Great Britain as utterly chimerical.

A "Salvationist" Thief.

St. John, N. B., Nov. 27. Carrie McCluskey, the Salvation Army lassie arrested a few days ago for stealing from the residence of W. C. R. Allen, today pleaded guilty and was sent to prison for three months. The letters found in the lassie's possession are now in the hands of the police magistrate, and reveal that a very irreligious state of affairs has been existing in some of the transactions between this girl and Captains Evans and White now stationed in Annapolis. These two officers are not the only ones implicated in the dishonest transactions of Miss McCluskey, but an effort has been made to keep the affair quiet. The officers of the Army here say that there will be a thorough investigation and all those implicated will be dismissed. The letters in the possession of the Magistrate among other things contain requests from Evans and White for syrups and jams.

The Fire at Lynn.

LYNN, Mass., Nov. 27. The city to-day is patrolled by militia, six companies being on duty. Men are stationed at the entrance of the ruined streets barring all approaches to the burned district, and guards are stationed at stores that are but partially cleared out to prevent thieves from taking what is left of the property. No one is permitted to pass the guards without a permit from the Clerk of the City. Conservative manufacturers are of the opinion that the total loss will reach nearly $5,000,000. The number of buildings burned was 296, of which 46 were brick blocks, 112 wooden buildings used for business purposes, and 142 dwellings occupied by 164 families. The number of laboring people thrown out of employment is estimated at about 8000.

Brazilian Affairs.

LISSON, Nov. 27. After Dom Pedro sailed from Rio Janeiro the provisional government of Brazil telegraphed the Brazilian minister here, directing him, upon the ex-Emperor's arrival, to tender him a general reception. The Brazilian colony here regarded this action as dictated by delicate consideration on the part of the provisional government toward Dom Pedro. Several of the Brazilian ministers at the European courts are coming to take part in the reception to the dethroned Emperor.

A SENSATION IN CHURCH.—Says the Fredericton Gleaner: In St. Ann's church yesterday morning, Rev. G. G. Roberts preached a sermon with special reference to and in support of the Scott Act. Scarcely had the reverend gentleman entered upon his discourse when two of the most prominent members of the congregation, one of them a church warden, rose from their seats and went out. Their action caused quite a sensation.
