ENTHUSIASTIC MISSIONARY MEETING.

The Annual Missionary Meeting was held yesterday evening. Chair was taken by Rev. H. McKeown, President. On the platform were Revs Dr. Sutherland, Missionary Secretary; J. Shaw, President of the Toronto Conference; Dr. Stewart, H. Daniel, Stephen T. Teed, J. Lathern, R. Duncan, C. H. Paisley, A. M., and G. M. Campbell. After singing, prayer was offered by Rev. H. Daniel. Rev. R. Duncan, Secretary, read the report. It stated that the Society had 39 missionaries to the Indians, 4 to the Japanese, 3 to the Germans, 9 to the French, 23 to the Half-breeds, &c., in British Columbia, and 423 missionaries in the domestic work. Last year the income had been $141,475, and the expenditure $150,150. Prince Edward Island District had raised $2,804.

Rev. Stephen T. Teed had for his topic: Providential openings call for stimulated zeal and increased liberality. These openings were everywhere. All lands are calling for the Gospel. He vigorously combated the idea that the world was getting worse. The history of the missions of our own Church showed that Christianity was not played out. He paid a glowing eulogy to Canada. Truly patriotic sentiments were earnestly expressed and found a hearty reception in the audience.

Rev. G. M. Campbell spoke on the spiritual wants of our country and our responsibilities in view thereof. Equally patriotic with the former speaker, he dwelt upon the greatness of "our country." He claimed that we should follow the settlers into new countries. This is what has given Methodism its prominent position in the States.

Rev. J. Shaw said that newspapers tried to show the prosperity of the country depended upon politics and politicians. He said that this country owed a great deal to her pioneer preachers. Missions are essential to the life of a church. All kinds of churches have them. The success of missions cannot be tabulated. Its unknown success is greater than its known success. Can the Christian's joy as it passes from stage to stage be tabulated? Can the number of homes that have been saved from beggary and vice be numbered? It is our duty to sustain this cause. If we love our souls; if we love Christ, it is our duty to send the Gospel. Many people are discouraged at the greatness of the effort. But if God is on our side, have we reason for discouragement? Then we have the power of prayer. Greece once boasted of 30,000 gods. The apostles prayed, and these disappeared. The work may seem great, but it is not impossible. Let us say, then, in the language of faith, "it can be done." The toilers may fail, but the work will go on. Earnestly he urged the people to liberality. More jewelry was worn by the Methodist people than would pay off the debt of the Missionary Society. It was a good, practical speech.

Rev. Dr. SUTHERLAND tried to remember what he said when he was here five years ago, but could not and he comforted himself with the thought that their memories were as short as his. Grand results often came from small beginnings. Paul, Luke and Timothy formed the first missionary deputation to Europe. Half a century ago our own church had only two missionaries and an income between $300 and $400. In eloquent terms he dwelt upon the great openings on this Continent. Canada has a larger territory than the United States. The grand probabilities of the Province of Manitoba were dwelt upon. Of the 60,000 Indians of Dominion only about half had been reached by Christian agency. He claimed that we had got possession of the North-West Territory through the agency of the missionaries. Every Indian shot by the American Government cost $100,000! Our missionaries had dealt honorably with the Indians on behalf of the Government and the result was that we possessed that country without spending a cent of money or shedding a drop of blood. We have more faith in the Bible than in bullets and in the gospel than in gunpowder. Several illustrations were given of the remarkable success of the work among the Indians particularly at Fort Simpson. "To give life and save life" he claimed was the object of the Missionary Society. The Dr. was in his happiest mood and delivered a speech which will cause him long to be remembered. He possesses all the elements of a good speaker. There was a fairly good congregation. Suitable selections of music were furnished by the choir at intervals, adding to the enjoyment of all. A collection on behalf of the society was taken.
