LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

The Great Northwest.

INTERESTING LETTER FROM REV. MR. COLPITTS.

Sir,—The crops in this country are looking so promising that all faces are smiling. The splendid wheat fields are a pleasing sight to behold, and the nutritious grasses, now just beginning to be cut for winter use, are a splendid crop. Altogether, the outlook for this country has never been so good for the four years that I have been here. Quite a large number from various countries have come out here this year and all that I have met are highly pleased with their prospects. Excellent land within easy distance of market towns is now to be obtained cheaply, and skilled laborers, especially blacksmiths and carpenters, can easily find remunerative employment. Of course you have heard all about our railway agitation and "Disallowance." The majority of the people look at it like this: The C. P. R. has doubtless done a great deal for the country in building a good road and building it quickly; but it has always had an eye single to its own advantage—locating its stations, acquiring rights in town sites, and so adjusting all its works as to serve its own interests, often at the expense of the ruin that it brought to towns already established. It has drawn very heavily upon the public purse, and now with every advantage in its favour if it cannot or will not compete with a new road not backed by Dominion money, largely constructed by private capital, let it go to the wall. I think it is safe to affirm that this great country will not consent to be ruled by a monopoly, though that monopoly may sometimes be generous; and, moreover, how is any one road going to carry all the freight that is to go out and to come into this country in the near future. I am sure that this season's crop will tax the carrying power of the C. P. R. as it has never been taxed before. The fact is this country needs a number of roads, and it has begun to take steps to acquire them, and if I know anything of the temper of the people they will not be easily persuaded to desert. Many are looking for the direct route to Europe, to be opened ere long via Hudson's Bay, that would make this Province maritime, and be a boon that few are able to estimate. You will easily guess that, notwithstanding the beauties of this country, the fertility of its soil, and healthfulness of its climate, yet we who have sniffed the sea breezes that flow along the shores of P. E.
Island; who have bathed in the waters rolling out on its sands, have listened to the music of the sea, sometimes in gentle plash rippling upon the beach, sometimes in deep bass, with roar and foam dashing itself against the rocks, that guard your headlands—that the sea will always have an attraction for us, that time and distance cannot break; and I am glad that though duty keeps me at my loved work, that the sharer of my missionary joys and privations (Mrs. C.) will, I think, ere this meet your eye, have landed again on your shores.
Yours, as ever,
W. WESLEY COLPITTS.
Fort Neepawa, July 19, 1887.

The Fisheries Matter.

Sir,—As one interested in protecting our valuable fishing grounds, we must give Capt.
Wm. McLaren, of the schooner Critic, great credit for the valuable service he has done the last week in keeping one hundred sail of American poachers off the coast.
On Sunday last he captured the Gloucester schooners Col. J. H. French and Argonaut off East Point, within one mile of the shore.
Both schooners were full of mackerel. Owing to the large fleet the schooners got clear of the cutter. The captain did not like to fire into the fleet.
We trust that the gallant Captain will be assisted by other cutters.
FISHERMAN.
East Point, July 25, 1887.

Address.

To Mr. Wm. A. Jackson.

DEAR SIR,—Having tendered your resignation as Principal of the Lower Montague School, we, the inhabitants of Lower Montague, take this opportunity of showing you the high esteem we have of you. During your stay among us you have, by your gentlemanly conduct, won a hold on our affections that will not soon be forgotten; and wherever your future lot may be cast, rest assured that we will always be pleased to hear of your future welfare.
And we sincerely hope that the kind hand of Providence may ever be with you to guide and direct you in the path of virtue as it has heretofore done.
With best wishes for your future prosperity, both spiritual and temporal, we are, dear sir, ever your friends, Thomas Anagar, Wm. H. Buchanan, Trustees; Wm. A. Poole, George Phillips, James Phillips, C. B. B. Poole, George E. Peters, Peter Ross, James W. Cameron, Thomas Phillips, Chas. Aorn, Jas. W. McFarlane, Abraham Young, John A. Anear, Benj. E.
Davy, J. Leslie Poole, James McFarlane, John Robertson, George Wright, and ten others.

REPLY.

To Thomas Anagar, Wm. H. Buchanan, Wm.
A. Poole, Geo. Phillips, James Phillips, C.
B. B. Poole and others.
DEAR FRIENDS,—It affords very great pleasure to be the recipient of your token of esteem which you have been pleased to present to me on this the eve of my departure.
I know that I can but feebly express my feelings for your kindness extended to me during my residence among you, and also for your active co-operation in the discharge of my duties—imperfect though they be—as Principal of your school.
I assure you dear friends that I feel honored in having my name engraved in friendship on your memory.
And I hope that I may not be undeserving of this estimable mark of your appreciation of my humble efforts while in your midst.
Our paths through life may diverge widely, but an all-wise Providence whose kind guidance and protection you invoke in my behalf will watch over us and guide us as seemeth best to Him.
Thanking you also for your kind wishes for my temporal and spiritual welfare, I remain,
Yours truly,
Wm. H. JACKSON.
Lower Montague, June 30, 1887.

"As Others See Us."

A CORRESPONDENT of the Moncton Times writing from Cape Traverse, on the 25th, makes the following remarks about the Island as a summer resort, etc.

"That Prince Edward Island offers all the advantages of a summer resort is evidenced by the large and ever increasing influx of tourists, and one of the best places on the whole Island is Cape Traverse.

"A Monctonian can leave home on the day express, a short ride will make connection with the steamer for Summerside, on board of which he can regale himself with an excellent dinner, after which, if he feels so disposed, he can take in some pleasant scenery, as the sail is for the first half almost parallel with the low, thickly settled shore of New Brunswick, which gradually disappears in a thin blue line at Cape Tormentine, justly abbreviated to Cape Torment by the coasting mariner on account of the strong tides, currents, eddies and reefs which imperil his navigation at that place; then the second half of the voyage is nearly parallel with the coast of the Island, beginning at Cape Egmont, the first land sighted, and then as we get nearer the red banks and brilliant green verdure so characteristic of the country appears vividly.

"At the south side of the entrance to Bedouque Bay is Sea Cow Head, which is provided with a fixed light, and further up the bay is Summerside harbor light.
"At Summerside the passengers step aboard the train for all parts of the Island. Three quarters of an hour, and County Line Junction is reached, when a change of cars is made for Cape Traverse, the run to which occupies some thirty minutes more and carries the traveller through some of the finest farming districts of the Island.

"Cape Traverse is the point of departure and arrival of the ice boats in winter, and passengers upon landing are immediately carried to the main line of the railway via the Cape Traverse Branch. The ice boat service is a difficult one and many are the stories of hardships told by the old men who in former years, performed the work unaided by the Government.

"Just beside the station stands the Lansdowne Hotel, where the accommodations are first class, terms easy, surf bathing, boat sailing, mackerel fishing, lobster, ad infinitum, right at hand, and many pleasant drives in the immediate vicinity.
"One of the religious sects of the Island is the MacDonaldites, the peculiarities of which somewhat resemble the Shakers. Sunday, the 17th inst., being the annual observance of the Sabbath, your correspondent was induced to visit Desable, the headquarters of the Mac-Donaldites, where they have a neat church that will seat about 700. As the ceremony of the Lord's Supper is observed by these people only once a year, and then at this particular place, their communicants came from all parts of the Island to participate, and it is said that some have even returned home from the States at times to be present.

"As we were nearing the church, carriages might be seen coming from all directions, there being present in all probably upwards of 1000 people. On entering the building we found it filled and hundreds standing around the windows outside, apparently paying as good attention as if inside. The minister and successor to the founder of the sect, spoke during the forenoon in English, after lunch he spoke in Gaelic, during which the congregation was more affected than before, as was also he himself. At the close of the address one of the ladies prayed, then the 86th Psalm was sung, both in Gaelic; then another short address in English preceded the sacrament.
"During the singing, which was to a very weird air, and playing, several of the members began a violent clapping of hands, shouting, moaning, and swaying of the body. It is said that this formerly occurred to a much larger extent than at present, and it is now confined to the older communicants entirely, but the best feature of the MacDonaldites, and that which refutes all adverse criticisms, is their high standard of moral life."

FROM JOHN F. WYMAN, formerly Postmaster, South China, Me.: "Too much cannot be said of Ad-son's Botanic Cough Balsam, as it is the best remedy for coughs, colds, etc., that I have ever seen; and to its wonderful effects I owe my recovery. It is well worthy of praise, and I would advise all to use it who are afflicted." Trial bottles 10 cents.

A party of German officers from the garrison of Metz visited Nancy in militia costume during the national fête last week and have not been heard from since. It is presumed they were arrested while watching the review of troops or for having become embroiled in a quarrel. Their disappearance has caused some excitement in the Metz garrison.

NEAR Westville, N. S., on Friday, a brakeman named Chisholm, aged 24 years, fell off a coal train. One arm was so mangled by the wheels which passed over it, that the doctors have since amputated it near the shoulder.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain; and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for Mrs.
Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind. mac17 eod & wky
