Home Economics Class Ends At The Vocational School

The formal closing of night and afternoon home economics classes at the Vocational School was held in the agricultural room of the school last evening. A feature of the program, under the chairmanship of Miss Doris Anderson, was the presentation of a fashion show in which the ladies modelled the garments they had made during the course. Malcolm MacKenzie, deputy minister of education, spoke briefly, followed by E. D. MacPhail, principal of the school. A delicious lunch, prepared by the night cooking class, was served following the program. The classes which closed last night include cooking, sewing, weaving, leatherwork, knitting, smocking, and crocheting. Approximately one hundred were present for the closing exercises.

Dr. Dewar said, "I resent the implication that all the fishermen in Prince County are poachers. No one should say that poaching is done only under the Conservative government? I know a lot of fishermen in West Prince and everyone of them are fine men and not one of them are poachers."
FROM OWN DISTRICT
Mr. Rossiter said it was a disgraceful thing for the Minister to stand on the floor of the House and denounce the federal minister, especially when he was responsible for Mr. Fraser's return to the Island. He said every province has a publicity director. Nothing could be accomplished until this had become a reality, he said.

WANTS RETRACTION

Mr. MacKinnon said, "I resent that remark and I think this government deserves a retraction. Mr. Fraser is one of the most valuable employees of the public service and the fact that he was chosen to go to Ghana to develop the tourist industry there is evidence of that fact."
Mr. Rossiter: "I agree with the Minister regarding Mr. Fraser's qualifications, but why did the government let him go when he was such a good man. There was now a director of the tourist bureau and it seems to me there is a duplication of services."
Hon. B. Earle MacDonald explained that quite frequently different magazines ask for information about the Island and the government had no one qualified to do this type of work. Mr. MacDonald said he was partly responsible for Mr. Fraser's return to the Island. He said every province has a publicity director. Nothing could be accomplished until this had become a reality, he said.

CALLS ORDER

Order was finally restored when William Acorn, chairman of the committee that this was no time for making political speeches. He said he would give anyone all the time he liked, so long as he stuck to the item under discussion.
Mr. Rossiter: "Whose in a hurry, we can stay here till next July, this is an important matter and we should discuss it."
Mr. Acorn: "That's fine, now let us come back to the item, under discussion."
There was no further discussion on fisheries the total estimates for which is $32,450.
Fireworks developed between the Minister of Industry and Natural Resources when Mr. Rossiter asked Mr. MacKinnon whether Mr. George Fraser was a publicity man for the Island government or for the Liberal Party.

was needed most of all was an aroused public opinion. Nothing could be accomplished until this had become a reality, he said.
MEMORIAL NURSERY
A total turnover of $30,000 was realized by the Cotton Memorial Nursery. Mr. Cullen informed the House. He said the government has a tree planting service which they conduct at $15 per acre.
Morley M. Bell said he would like to see an increase in the grant to the Summerside flower show which he noted had grown considerably during the past years.
Speaking of the $69,800 item for farm improvement service. He felt that this service should be self sustaining and noted that the service operated last year $52,000 in the hole.
Mr. Cullen said it was not always easy to collect for work done under farm improvement. He said the service was very popular among the farmers and felt its continuance was justified even if the province had to make an annual expenditure of $50,000. Mr. Rossiter said he was glad that a veterinary was actually coming to the east end of the Island. He assured the Minister that the doctor would be well treated by the people in that area.
JAILS
Speaking of jails, Mr. Bell asked whether it was a good idea to supply groceries to the jailer. Attorney General Matheson said it would be better to do it that way. He said all the groceries are supplied from the central stores at Riverside Hospital.
In answer to Mr. Bell's question, Mr. Matheson said the jailer supplied the menu.
Mr. Myers: "The day I was there, I wish I could have stayed for dinner."
Mr. MacDonald: "We can arrange that."
Mr. Myers said he had for a number of years been advocating a jail farm. He asked whether anything was being done about it. He said the federal government was building a jail farm should be self supporting.
