

Why Young Men Should Join I. O. O. F's.

The approaching anniversary of American Odd Fellowship promises to be even more interesting this year than heretofore.

Oriental Lodge, No. 10, will celebrate the sixty-seventh anniversary of the order on Saturday afternoon, April 24, in the Grand Lodge Hall.

There are a great many very solid reasons why young men should become Odd Fellows, but none more emphatic than the one mentioned in the following extract from the Manchester Union.

The activity among the Patriarchs Militant still continues. This branch of the order expects to have several thousand men in line at the celebration in September.

The committees on the celebration in September, on the occasion of the visit of the Sovereign Grand Lodge to Boston, are already hard at work making the necessary preliminary arrangements.

A lodge in Denver, Col., has paid over $6,500 to one of its members, who is still on the sick list. And they have a right to feel proud of such action, while at the same time it is nothing more than the member's due.

Gold Decaying.

The statement recently made at a meeting of the managers of the Bank of England, that the stock of gold in Great Britain is £10,000,000 less than it was five years ago, is attracting a great deal of attention.

His Friend Jackpott.

"My dear," said Mrs. Saaggs to her husband this morning, "I don't think I know your friend, Mr. Pott, do I?"

"Yes, Mr. John Pott." "John Pott? I don't know anybody of that name."

"Oh, you surely must know him very well, for you talked about him in your sleep last night and called him Jack, as though you had known him all your life."

"Jack Pott! Ah, I must have been dreaming about a schoolmate of my boyhood days. I had almost forgotten him."

And Saaggs went down town cogitating what a narrow escape he had had.

Trying to Conceal It.

The great and upright lawyer, Judge Jeremiah S. Black, was once filled with just wrath at the arbitrary ruling of a prejudiced judge, and began gathering up his papers with evident excitement.

NOTES.

Not the promissory, but facts about WELCOME SOAP, an article that does not contain one particle of the adulterations used to reduce the cost of "Pure Goods," but does possess the value of legitimate Washing Qualities, the demand for which proves the advantage gained by the use of the genuine over Soaps of doubtful character.

MANHOOD

We have recently published a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical and permanent cure (without medicine) of Nervous Debility, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc., resulting from excesses.

Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cts or two postage stamps. The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from thirty years' successful practice, that alarming consequences may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicines or the use of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.
