—Hay is now selling in different parts of Nova Scotia for $4 and $5 per ton, which is the lowest price that has probably been offered for many years; and the North Sycam Herald remarks that "Cape Breton farmers will greatly exceed former years in feeding cattle, all winter, which will doubtless pay them better than selling their surplus crop at a small figure owing to the large surplus in eastern Canada, which will cause the price of hay to fall far below that of other years."

WEDDING BELLS.

The usual serenity of the quiet village of Cardigan gave place on the morning of the 15th inst., to a gentle flutter of excitement, the occasion being the marriage at All Saints Church of Miss Helen Walker, of Kensington, to Mr. Thomas N. Donahoe, of Launcheon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Macmillan, P. P., assisted by Rev. J. C. McLean, of St. Georges. Miss Mamie McDonald, of Lawrence, Mass., did duty as bridesmaid in a manner that charmed all present, and Mr. J. A. Macdonald, of Cardigan, in the capacity of groomsmen, contributed materially to the pleasure of the guests and to the success of the whole affair. The bride and bridesmaid were attired in most becoming, and beautiful costumes, but the writer does not know enough about such matters to attempt to describe them. The altars were tastefully decorated in honor of the event, and the choir exelled even their usual high standard in discoursing appropriate music. Miss Marie McDonald presided at the organ and rendered the wedding march in excellent style. After the marriage ceremony the party repaired to the parochial house for breakfast, where Dr. MacMillan dispensed hospitality in the generous manner for which he is well known. At noon, accompanied by about a dozen intimate friends, they started to drive to the former home of the bride at Launcheon, where they were welcomed in royal style by their many friends in that vicinity. After doing justice to the sumptuous dinner which was there served, dancing was begun, and to say that every person enjoyed themselves would be putting it very mildly. The guests remained "tripping the light fantastic toe," until well into the morning hours, when they dispersed to their homes, leaving enough good wishes to carry the newly married pair safely over the calm waters of a happy and prosperous future.

That the bride is a most popular young lady was amply demonstrated by the large number of elegant and expensive gifts which she received, and which were the admiration of all who saw them. The groom who is an active C. M. B. A. man, was presented by the members of Branch No. 295 with a beautiful gift and an address expressive of their good wishes and fraternal feeling, to which he made a short and eloquent reply. The happy couple will remain a few days at Launcheon and Cardigan, after which they proceed to their home at Kensington. That their married life may be long, happy and prosperous, is the sincere wish of all their acquaintances.
