Long-Standing

Blood Diseases are cured by the persevering use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

This medicine is an Alternative, and causes a radical change in the system. The process, in some cases, may not be quite so rapid as in others; but, with persistence, the result is certain.

Read these testimonials:—
"For two years I suffered from a severe pain in my right side, and had other troubles caused by my torrid liver and dyspepsia. After giving several medicines a fair trial without a cure, I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I was greatly benefited by the first bottle, and after taking five bottles I was completely cured."—John W. Benson, 70 Lawrence st., Lowell, Mass.

Last May a large carbuncle broke out on my arm. The usual remedies had no effect and I was confined to my bed for eight weeks. A friend induced me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Less than three bottles healed the sore. In all my experience with medicine, I never saw more wonderful results.

Another marked effect of the use of this medicine was the strengthening of my sight."—Mrs. Carrie Adams, Holly Springs, Texas.

I had a dry scaly humor for years, and suffered terribly; and, as my brother and sister were similarly afflicted, I presume the malady is hereditary. Last winter, Dr. Tyson, of Fernandina, Fla., recommended me to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and continue it for a year. For five months I took it daily. I have not had a blemish upon my body for the last three months."—T. E. Wiley, 146 Chambers st., New York City.

Last fall and winter I was troubled with a dull heavy pain in my side. I did not notice it much at first, but it gradually grew worse until it became almost unbearable. During the latter part of this time, disorders of the stomach and liver increased my troubles. I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, after faithfully continuing the use of this medicine for some months, the pain disappeared and I was completely cured."—Mrs. Augusta A. Furbush, Haverhill, Mass.

News Notes.

The autumn mackerel fishery on the south and south-west coast of Ireland, which has proved very unsuccessul since the opening of the season, has vastly improved within the past week. Some very good captures are now effected on this coast. White herring, saltwater trout, hake and mullet are showing and are caught in great abundance. The waters were literally teeming with herring a few nights ago, and are still, and large quantities were caught in the meshes of the mackerel nets, so large were they. Upwards of 100,000 mackerel have been daily cleaned and cured in the various depots around.

Dunn and Russell agencies report a decrease in the failures in Canada, of 5 per cent. in the number, and 40 per cent. liabilities for the past quarter. The past nine months there were only three less failures than last year, but 16 per cent. less liabilities. The past week there were 34 failures in Canada against 37 for the corresponding week of last year.

Emile de Laveleye says that 100 years hence, setting China aside, there would be in the world two colossal and over-shadowing powers—Russia and the United States. His setting aside of China is significant in that it indicates that he is one of the many publicists who believe that the celestial empire is destined to be an active, aggressive and disturbing element among the nations of the world.

Commodore Vanderbilt made $100,000,000, beginning with no money and very little education. He could write his name, and that was about the extent of his scholastic requirements. His name, which was good for any amount on a check, was not much to look at. He could not pronounce the letter "V," and always called himself Vanderbit. A new clerk at the post office greatly annoyed him by looking for his letters under the "V's." "Don't look among the V's; look among the W's," said the millionaire. At the age of 80 the commodore was at a match for the whole street. He opened all his own letters, dictated his answers on the margin, spent an hour in transacting business involving many millions, and then went to his stables. He was very proud of his horses, and liked to lead the road—and he generally did.

The Clac-na-Gael in Chicago evidently appreciates its unpopularity. When counsel hired by its money to defend one of its suspected members in a case of life and death, can only find four unprejudiced men out of a jury panel of six hundred to whom they are willing to trust their case, it looks much like a confession that prejudice had something to warrant it.

Odds and Ends.

A German baron invited an English guest to shoot with him on his reserve. "I have shot tigers in India," said the Englishman, by way of excuse, "and your German hunting is not exciting enough, don't you know?" "Ah!" returned the baron, "you love dancier, do you? Den you should go shoot mit me. Only an fortnight ago I shot my bruder-in-law right through the stomach."

Richard Robillard, night engineer at one of the Pillsbury mills at Minneapolis, has a very precious machine locked up in his house, which he guards jealously. This piece of mechanism is, so Robillard says, a solution of the problem of perpetual motion. At two o'clock yesterday afternoon the machine had been running seven weeks. It requires no fuel, and a little oil is all that is needed to keep it in shape. It has a fly-wheel ten inches in diameter, and will run two sewing machines.

A SAILOR INJURED BY HIS SHIPMATE.—While the schooner Nutwood was lying to off East Point one day last week, a somewhat serious scene was witnessed on deck, which is about to end in a lawsuit. Sandy Morrison, who was formerly employed in the cruiser Critic, was quietly walking along the deck, and when passing one of his shipmates, the latter made a dash at him with a knife which made an ugly gash in his arm from which the blood spouted freely. After some difficulty in stopping the blood, and having his wound tied up, Morrison came ashore where he is now under medical treatment. He has had a warrant sworn out against his assailant who says he only made a dash at him with the knife in fun, and did not intend to injure him.
