

North Baltic And Vicinity

The news of the death of His Lordship Bishop Boyle, whose death occurred in London, England, cast a sad gloom over the diocese of Charlottetown, as Bishop Boyle was well and favorably known in all the parishes which he visited at intervals and in which he administered the Sacrament of Confirmation.

The serious illness of the former pastor, Rev. R. J. MacDonald in the City Hospital in Charlottetown is regretted. Father MacDonald has recently suffered another stroke, but it is hoped that he will improve in the near future.

Despite the cold backward weather everything is looking good here. Most of the farmers have finished sowing their seeds as well as planting the famous potatoes.

Mr. Daniel MacDonald, who had been ill earlier in the spring, is now able to fish his lobster traps at North Lake.

Mrs. Syl MacAulay who has been a patient in Souris Hospital for the past week, is improved and hopes to return to her home next week. Mrs. MacAulay was seriously ill and was lucky to be near a hospital and to receive good medical care.

Mrs. P. D. Mossey, who visited her daughter and son-in-law at Portage La Prairie, Man., returned on May 30, accompanied by her grandchild Joanne Bower. Mrs. Mossey reports the Western crops as late too this spring, due to cold weather and too much moisture and that some farms are deluged with water. En route Mrs. Mossey visited her sister, St. Christine of the Angels, in Montreal.

Mr. Harold Fouchere, merchant, Souris, was a business visitor to this vicinity Thursday.

Mrs. Merrill Stewart, grand old lady of Kingsboro, is ill at her home now. All sincerely hope she will improve hastily and be her usual happy self at the summer functions again.

Mrs. Margaret Meurant, Moncton, spent a few days visiting her cousin, Mrs. Arthur Keene, Baltimore. Mrs. Meurant left on return Sunday.

Miss Florence Bruce, who has spent the past winter in Toronto, is now at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bruce.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Gallant and family are spending some time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Steven Miller.

Mr. Stephen Ellsworth who flew from Ottawa to Charlottetown, is now spending his vacation at the home of his sister, Mrs. J. B. Fay. Mr. Ellsworth is employed eight miles from the nice clean city of Ottawa.

Mr. Stephen Miller who had to quit his employment at North Lake due to illness is now at his home feeling much improved.

Mr. Harold MacGregor had the misfortune of losing a valuable horse last week.

Mr. Kenneth Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Chas. Campbell, successful student at P. W. C., taught for two weeks in East Baltic School prior to applying for a permanent school.

Mr. Dominic Harris who spent the winter months in Sacred Heart Home, Charlottetown, is now a patient in Souris Hospital.

Sincere sympathy goes out to Mr. Paul Gallant and family, due to the recent death of Mrs. Gallant in the City Hospital. Mrs. Gallant will be sorely missed as she leaves to mourn 10 children, mostly all at a tender age.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Flora MacMillan who passed away at her home at East Lake, was held at St. Columba Church on Tuesday. Requiem High Mass was celebrated by the pastor, Rev. W. D. MacDonald, who also officiated at her graveside in the adjoining cemetery.

Mr. Paul McEachern is a patient in Souris Hospital. His many friends wish him a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Birt, Mount Stewart, were recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Dover.

She was returned to her home at St. Columba.

Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved relatives of Miss Minnie Seaman of Souris. Miss Seaman was telephone operator in that town for many years and gave excellent service in that capacity.

Mr. and Mrs. James McIsaac and family have moved to Souris and taken residence there. Mrs. McIsaac taught school in Greenville. Due to lack of pupils this school is now closed.

EAST GERMAN USE JETS

BONN (AP)—East Germans are being taught to fly Soviet MiG-15 jet fighters and to operate submarines, West German security sources said Wednesday. Informants said a survey of the soviet-backed rearmament of Communist East Germany disclosed for the first time that the fledgling air force has started training with MiG jets. The report said the air force, which calls itself the "Aero Club," has 100 Soviet propeller fighters but conversion to jets had begun.
